Things you should know

- 'Allowable Transaction Value' represents the value of transactions available under this plan. For example if you pay a $15 monthly plan fee you can access $45 worth of transactions without incurring additional fees. Unused value cannot be transferred or refunded. Once you have used up your allowable transaction value, excess transaction fees apply for each and every subsequent transaction and are calculated at the applicable rate according to the plan you have chosen .
- EFTPOS and ATM withdrawal fees are not applicable if your business account does not have card access
- A deposit to an account with two cheques will count as three transactions, one for the deposit (which is charged as a branch transaction) and one for each cheque lodged because each item requires individual processing
- The branch staff assisted electronic fee is applicable if your business account does not have card access Other fees and charges may be payable. Fees and charges apply if you exceed your monthly allowable transaction value
- Narrated credits are branch transactions using a serial number encoded deposit slip designed to allow you to identify the deposit from the serial number used
- Non-Westpac/St.George/BankSA branded ATMs apply an ATM operator fee by the ATM Owner, which is disclosed at the time of the transaction on the ATM screen. This fee will be debited on the day (or next business day) of the transaction and itemised separately on your statement
- Some overseas banks may also apply a surcharge to withdrawals from their ATMs. This should be drawn to your attention before you proceed with your transaction. This surcharge amount will be added to your withdrawal amount, converted to Australian dollars and debited to your account as one transaction. Details of how to access your accounts via an ATM while overseas, and of the participating institutions in the Global ATM Alliance, are available in the 'A banking guide for overseas travel' brochure. Visit your local branch, call Business Telephone Banking for further details or sign-in to www.westpac.com.au/business
- The Westpac Foreign Transaction fee is payable and will be incorporated into the $AUD transaction amount shown on your statement. The fee charged will either be:
 - 3% of the $AUD transaction amount where a transaction is made in foreign currency and the merchant or financial institution accepting the card is located outside of Australia (comprising of 2% Westpac Processing Fee plus 1% Westpac On-Charged Scheme Fee)
 - 2.2% of the $AUD transaction amount where a transaction is made in foreign currency and the merchant or financial institution accepting the card is located in Australia (comprising of 2% Westpac Processing Fee plus a Westpac On-Charged Scheme Fee of 0.2%)
- Account enquiries include balance enquiries and obtaining the details of a deposit or withdrawal. An account balance received immediately after, and as part of, a withdrawal transaction is exempt from fees and does not count towards the number of free transactions.

Things you should know

1. The interest rates shown above do not apply if you have a netted interest arrangement or set-off agreement. Credit interest, where applicable, is calculated daily and credited to the account monthly in arrears, on the last business day of each calendar month. Balances in your account on and after the last business day of the month, including deposits made to your account on or after the last business day of the month, will not be included in the interest calculation for that month, but the interest calculation for the following month. Interest is only payable on the amount of the closing daily balance in excess of $2,000. For example, if a customer's closing daily balance was $10,000, interest will be calculated on $8,000.
