Lump sum payment of up to $200,000 to cover medical treatment expenses

A Westpac Well policy provides you with a lump sum to help cover expenses associated with, but not limited to medical treatment. A lump sum payment is made if you suffer one of the specified serious conditions before the age 65 and survive for at least 14 days.

- You're covered 24/7, worldwide until the age of 65
- Available for entry customers aged 18 to 54
- Your premiums are set annually and based on age, gender, whether you smoke and the level of cover chosen
- No medical examination required, only a simple health declaration is needed
- If you apply with a partner, they'll receive 10% partner discount
- You can make payments by credit card or with automatic monthly deductions from any account.

A benefit is paid if you suffer one of the following medical conditions (please read the Product Disclosure Statement for definitions):

1. Cancer
2. Coronary artery bypass surgery
3. Heart attack
4. Stroke
5. Multiple sclerosis
6. Kidney failure
7. Paralysis
8. Loss of independent existence.

Did you know?

With Westpac Well, the payment you receive may be used in any way you like to help speed your recovery.
