WARNING - Westpac Capital Notes 5 are not deposit liabilities of Westpac, are riskier than bank deposits and may not be suitable for some investors. Their overall complexity may make them difficult to understand and the risks associated with the Notes could result in the loss of all of your investment. If you do not fully understand how they work or the risks associated with them, you should obtain professional advice.

Important notices

About this Prospectus

This Prospectus relates to the offer of Westpac Capital Notes 5 (“Notes”) at an Issue Price of $100 each to raise approximately $1.45 billion with the ability to raise more or less.

The Westpac Capital Notes 5 offered under this Prospectus are designated as Series 2018-1.

This Prospectus is dated 13 February 2018 and was lodged with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (“ASIC”) on that date. This is a replacement prospectus which replaces the prospectus dated 5 February 2018 and lodged with ASIC on that date (“Original Prospectus”). ASIC and ASX Limited (“ASX”) take no responsibility for the content of this Prospectus nor for the merits of the investment to which this Prospectus relates. This Prospectus expires on the date which is 13 months after the date of the Original Prospectus (“Expiry Date”) and no Notes will be issued or transferred on the basis of this Prospectus after the Expiry Date.

Status of Westpac Capital Notes 5

Westpac Capital Notes 5 are fully paid, non-cumulative, convertible, transferable, redeemable, subordinated¹, perpetual, unsecured notes issued by Westpac.

The Notes are not deposit liabilities or protected accounts of Westpac for the purposes of the Banking Act or Financial Claims Scheme and are not subject to the depositor protection provisions of Australian banking legislation (including the Australian Government guarantee of certain bank deposits).

Investment-type products are subject to investment risk, including possible delays in payment and loss of income and principal invested. Except as required by law, and only to the extent so required, neither Westpac nor any other person in any way warrants or guarantees the capital value or performance of the Notes, the performance of Westpac or any particular rate of return on any investment made under this Prospectus. If a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event occurs, Westpac will be required to Convert some or all of the Notes (or, where Conversion does not occur for any reason and Ordinary Shares are not issued for any reason, then: (i) those Notes will not be Converted in respect of such Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event (as the case may be) and will not be Converted, Redeemed or Transferred on any subsequent date; (ii) all rights in relation to those Notes will be terminated immediately on the Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date (as the case may be); and (iii) Holders will suffer loss as a consequence).

If Conversion occurs in these circumstances, Holders may (in the case of a Capital Trigger Event) and are likely to (in the case of a Non-Viability Trigger Event) receive Ordinary Shares that are worth significantly less than the Face Value of the Notes. If Holders receive Ordinary Shares worth less than the Face Value of the Notes, they will suffer loss as a consequence.

Defined words and expressions

Some words and expressions used in this Prospectus are capitalised as they have defined meanings. The Glossary in Appendix A and clause 16.2 of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms in Appendix B define these words and expressions.

A reference to time in this Prospectus is to Sydney time, unless otherwise stated. A reference to $, A$, dollars and cents is to Australian currency, unless otherwise stated.

No representations other than in this Prospectus

You should rely only on information in this Prospectus. No person is authorised to provide any information or to make any representations in connection with the Offer which are not contained in this Prospectus. Any information or representations not contained in this Prospectus may not be relied upon as having been authorised by Westpac in connection with the Offer.

Past performance information

The financial information provided in this Prospectus is for information purposes only and is not a forecast of operating results to be expected in future periods. Past performance is not a reliable indication of future performance.

This Prospectus does not provide investment advice – you should seek your own professional investment advice

The information in this Prospectus is not investment advice and has been prepared without taking into account your investment objectives, financial situation and particular needs (including financial and taxation considerations) as an investor. You should consider the appropriateness of the Notes having regard to these factors before deciding to apply for any Notes. It is important that you read the entire Prospectus (including the investment risks described in Sections 1.5 and 5) and seek professional investment advice from your financial adviser or other professional adviser before deciding whether to apply for any Notes.

Except for any liability which cannot be excluded by law, each Joint Lead Manager and its respective directors, officers, employees and advisers expressly disclaims and does not accept any liability for the contents of this Prospectus, the Notes or the Offer.

This Prospectus also contains information in relation to (amongst other things) the Reinvestment Offer. Neither Westpac nor any other person is providing any investment advice or making any recommendation to Eligible Westpac CPS Holders in respect of the Reinvestment Offer.

1. See Sections 1.4 and 2.7 for a description of how the Notes will rank in a Winding Up.

Restrictions in foreign jurisdictions

This Offer is being made in Australia only and this Prospectus does not constitute an offer in any jurisdiction in which, or to any person to whom, it would not be lawful to make such an offer. No action has been taken to register or qualify the Notes or the Offer or to otherwise permit a public offering of the Notes in any jurisdiction outside Australia. The distribution of this Prospectus (including an electronic copy) in jurisdictions outside Australia may be restricted by law.

You should read the foreign selling restrictions (including, in particular, the restrictions in the United States and on US Persons) in Section 7.12. If you come into possession of this Prospectus in jurisdictions outside Australia, you should seek advice on, and observe, any such restrictions. If you fail to comply with such restrictions that failure may constitute a violation of applicable securities laws.

Exposure period

The Corporations Act prohibits the acceptance of Applications during the seven day period after the date the Original Prospectus was lodged with ASIC. This period is referred to as the “exposure period” and ASIC may extend this period by up to a further seven days (that is up to 14 days in total). The purpose of the exposure period was to enable the Original Prospectus to be examined by market participants before the Opening Date.

How to obtain a Prospectus and an Application Form

During the Offer Period:

- Eligible Westpac CPS Holders will either be emailed a link to the electronic version of the Prospectus and online Reinvestment Application Form or will be mailed a printed Prospectus with a personalised Reinvestment Application Form (based on their communications election).
- Eligible Securityholders may view the electronic version of the Prospectus and the Securityholder Application Form online through www.westpac.com.au/westpaccapnotes5 or obtain a printed Prospectus with a personalised Securityholder Application Form accompanying it by:
 - registering online to receive a Prospectus and a Securityholder Application Form through www.westpac.com.au/westpaccapnotes5; or
 - calling the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Information Line (Monday to Friday, 8.30am to 5.30pm, Sydney time) on 1300 784 494.
- Broker Firm Applicants can obtain a copy of this Prospectus, including a Broker Firm Application Form, by downloading an electronic copy from www.westpac.com.au/westpaccapnotes5 or from their Syndicate Broker.

An electronic copy of this Prospectus can be downloaded at www.westpac.com.au/westpaccapnotes5.

This Prospectus is only available electronically to persons accessing and downloading or printing the electronic version of this Prospectus in Australia. If you access an electronic copy of this Prospectus, you should ensure that you download and read the entire Prospectus.

The Corporations Act prohibits any person from passing the Application Form on to another person unless it is attached to a printed Prospectus or the complete and unaltered electronic version of this Prospectus.

Applications for Westpac Capital Notes 5

Applications for any Notes under this Prospectus may only be made during the Offer Period on an Application Form attached to or accompanying this Prospectus including, in the case of Eligible Westpac CPS Holders and Eligible Securityholders, by submitting an online Application through www.westpac.com.au/westpaccapnotes5.

For information on who is eligible to apply for any Notes under the Offer and how to make an Application – see Section 8 and the Application Form.

No withdrawal of Application

You cannot withdraw your Application once it has been lodged, except as permitted under the Corporations Act.

Refunds

If you are Allocated less than the number of Notes that you applied for, you will receive a refund as soon as possible after the Issue Date. If the Offer does not proceed, any Application Payment you have made will be refunded to you. No interest will be payable on Application Payments.

Trading in Westpac Capital Notes 5

It is your responsibility to determine your Allocation before trading in Notes to avoid the risk of selling Notes you do not own. To assist you in determining your Allocation before the receipt of your Holding Statement, you may call the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Information Line (Monday to Friday, 8.30am to 5.30pm, Sydney time) on 1300 784 494 if you are an Eligible Westpac CPS Holder or Eligible Securityholder, or contact your Syndicate Broker if you are a Broker Firm Applicant. If you sell Notes before you receive confirmation of your Allocation, you do so at your own risk.

Providing personal information

You will be asked to provide personal information to Westpac (directly or via its agents, including the Registrar) if you apply for any Notes. See Section 7.13 for information on how Westpac (and its agents, including the Registrar on its behalf) collects, holds and uses this personal information. You can also obtain a copy of Westpac’s privacy policy at www.westpac.com.au/privacy.

Incorporation by reference

Information contained in or accessible through the documents or websites mentioned in this Prospectus does not form part of this Prospectus unless it is specifically stated that the document or website is incorporated by reference and forms part of this Prospectus.

1.1.3 Key features of Westpac Capital Notes 5	Westpac Capital Notes 5 are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • fully paid – the Issue Price ($100 per Note, which will also be the Initial Face Value of the Note) must be paid to Westpac before the Notes are issued; • non-cumulative – they offer Distributions which are discretionary and unpaid Distributions do not accumulate. Holders will not have any right to compensation if Westpac does not pay a Distribution; • convertible – in certain circumstances, Westpac will be required or permitted to Convert the Notes into Ordinary Shares; • redeemable and transferable – in certain circumstances, Westpac may be permitted to repay the Face Value (initially $100 per Note) of the Notes to Holders or transfer the Notes to a third party (but there are significant restrictions on repayment of the Notes); • perpetual – they do not have a fixed maturity date and could exist indefinitely if not Redeemed, Converted or Transferred (in which case you would not receive your capital back, unless you sell your Notes on ASX at the prevailing market price to realise your investment); • unsecured – they are not guaranteed nor are they deposit liabilities or protected accounts of Westpac under the Banking Act or Financial Claims Scheme and they are not subject to the depositor protection provisions of Australian banking legislation; • subject to a Capital Trigger Event and Non-Viability Trigger Event – where such an event occurs (which includes where Westpac suffers significant losses), some or all of the Notes must be Converted into Ordinary Shares or, if Conversion does not occur for any reason, the rights of Holders attaching to those Notes will be terminated immediately on the Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date (as the case may be), and Holders will lose all the value of their investment in those Notes and they will not receive any compensation or unpaid Distributions; • subordinated – in the event of a Winding Up, if the Notes are still on issue and have not been Redeemed or Converted, or otherwise had the rights attaching to them terminated, they will have priority over Ordinary Shares and rank equally with certain other Capital Securities issued by Westpac, but they will be subordinated to claims of Senior Creditors. However, it is likely that a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event would occur prior to a Winding Up and the Notes would have been Converted into Ordinary Shares or otherwise had the rights attaching to them terminated; and 	Section 2 Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms	18 100

Topic	Summary	Further information	Page(s)
1.1.3 Key features of Westpac Capital Notes 5 (continued)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> listed – Westpac has applied for the Notes to be quoted on ASX and the Notes are expected to trade under ASX code WBCPH. The Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms are complex and derive from the detailed capital requirements that APRA applies to these instruments. Westpac's ability to pay Distributions or to Convert or Redeem the Notes is subject to a number of restrictions, including APRA not objecting to the Distributions and APRA giving prior written approval to a Redemption.
1.1.4 Use of proceeds of the Westpac Capital Notes 5	Westpac is issuing the Notes to raise regulatory capital which satisfies the regulatory capital requirements of APRA. The proceeds received under the Offer will be used by Westpac for general business purposes.	Sections 4.1.4 and 4.2.1	48 and 49

1.2 Summary of the Distributions payable on Westpac Capital Notes 5

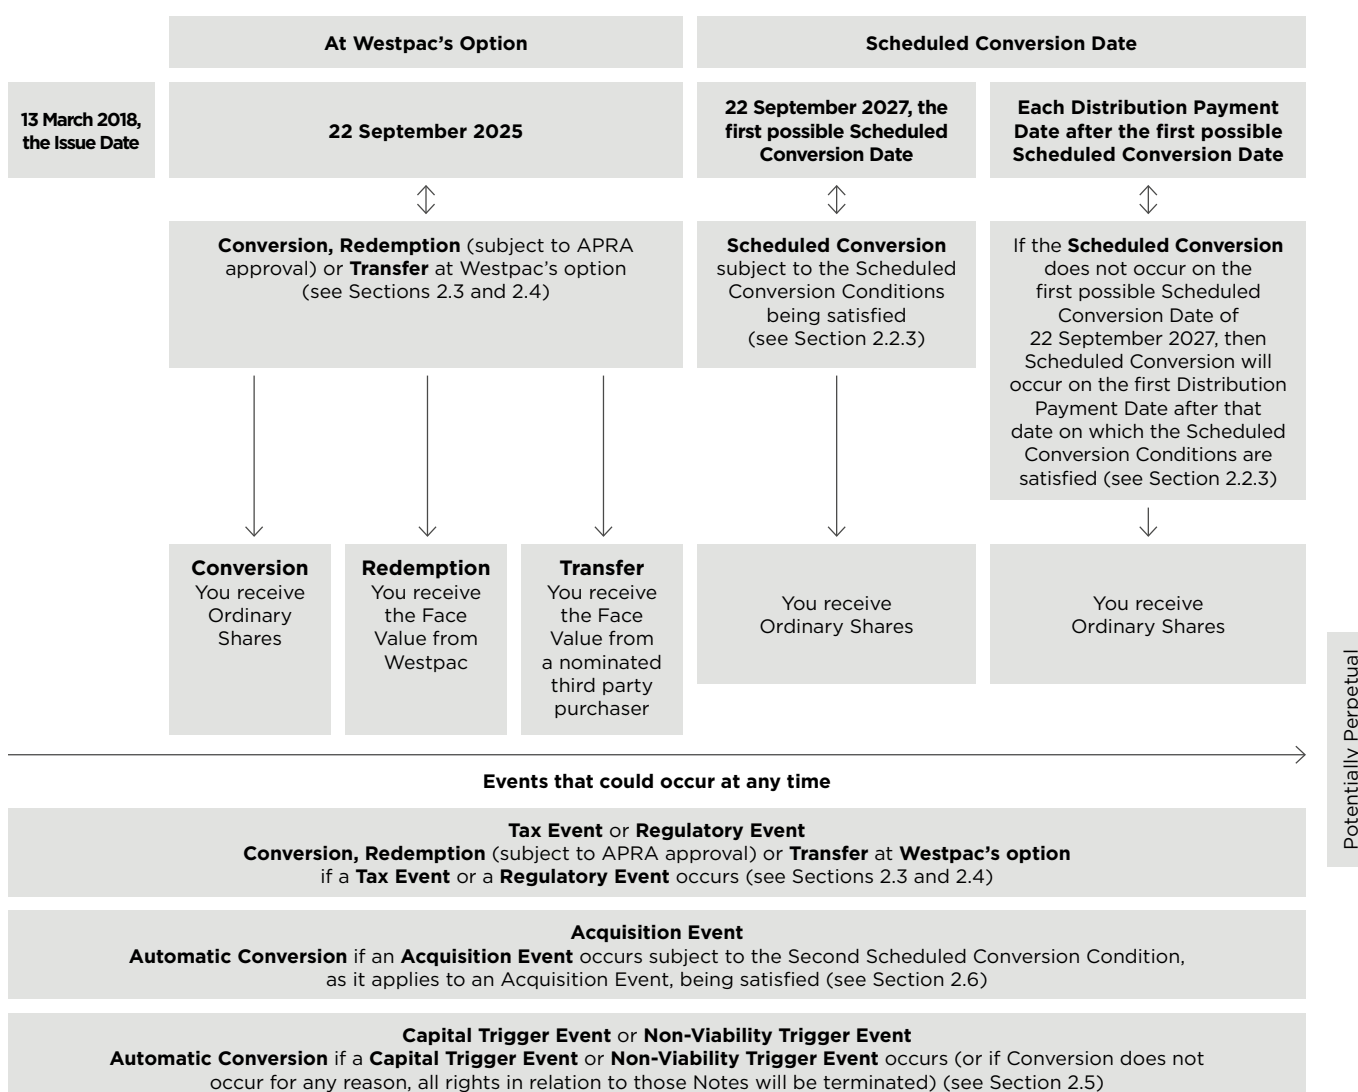

Topic	Summary	Further information	Page(s)
1.2.1 Distributions payable on Westpac Capital Notes 5	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Notes offer Holders quarterly, floating rate Distributions until the Notes are Converted at their full Face Value (or terminated following a failure to Convert) or Redeemed. The first Distribution is scheduled to be paid on 22 June 2018. You should note that the first Distribution Period is longer than the normal Distribution Period. The Distribution Payment Dates are quarterly, being 22 March, 22 June, 22 September and 22 December of each year. The Distribution Rate is determined in accordance with the following formula: (90 day Bank Bill Rate + Margin) x (1 - Tax Rate¹) The Margin is 3.20% per annum. Distributions are expected to be fully franked. 	Section 2.1 Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clause 3	19 101
1.2.2 Distributions may not be paid on Westpac Capital Notes 5	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Payments of Distributions are within the absolute discretion of Westpac, which means Westpac does not have to pay them. Distributions are also only payable if the other Distribution Payment Conditions are satisfied. Distributions are non-cumulative, which means that unpaid Distributions will not be made up or accumulate. Holders will not have any rights to compensation if Westpac does not pay Distributions. Failure to pay any Distribution is not an event of default² and Holders have no right to apply for a Winding Up on the grounds of non-payment of a Distribution. If for any reason a Distribution has not been paid in full for a relevant Distribution Payment Date, then until a Distribution is paid in full on a subsequent Distribution Payment Date (or all Notes are Converted at their full Face Value, Redeemed or terminated following a failure to Convert), Westpac must not: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> determine or pay any Dividends on its Ordinary Shares; or undertake any discretionary Buy Back or Capital Reduction, unless the amount of the unpaid Distribution is paid in full within 20 Business Days of the relevant Distribution Payment Date (and in certain other limited circumstances). 1. The Tax Rate is 30% (or 0.30 expressed as a decimal) as at the date of this Prospectus but that rate may change.

2. The Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms do not include any events of default.

1.3 Summary of certain events which may affect what Holders of Westpac Capital Notes 5 receive and when they receive it

Topic	Summary	Further information	Page(s)
1.3.1 Events that may affect the Westpac Capital Notes 5	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Notes do not have a fixed maturity date and Holders do not have a right to request or require Westpac to Convert, Redeem or arrange for the Transfer of the Notes. Accordingly, what will happen to the Notes is uncertain. It is possible that the Notes could remain on issue indefinitely and the Face Value (initially $100 per Note) will not be repaid. Conversion upon an Acquisition Event	If an Acquisition Event occurs	No	Yes ⁵	Ordinary Shares worth approximately $101.01 ⁶ per Note plus a Distribution ³	A variable number of Ordinary Shares plus a cash Distribution ³	Section 2.6 Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clauses 5.9 and 9

1. Holders should not expect that APRA's approval will be given if requested.

2. Westpac may only Redeem Notes if it replaces them with capital of the same or better quality (and the replacement is done under conditions that are sustainable for the income capacity of Westpac) or obtains confirmation that APRA is satisfied that Westpac does not have to replace the Notes.

3. The Distribution would be for the period from (but excluding) the last Distribution Payment Date to (and including) the relevant Conversion Date, Redemption Date or Transfer Date (as applicable). Payments of Distributions are within the absolute discretion of Westpac, which means Westpac does not have to pay them. Distributions are also only payable if the Distribution Payment Conditions are satisfied.

4. On Transfer, Holders will receive the Face Value in cash from the Nominated Party to whom the Notes are transferred.

5. Conversion is conditional on Westpac's share price being above a specified level in the period prior to Conversion.

6. Based on the Initial Face Value of $100 per Note and the average of the daily volume weighted average sales prices of Ordinary Shares during the relevant VWAP Period before the Conversion Date, with the benefit of a 1% discount. The value of Ordinary Shares received on the Conversion of one Note may be worth more or less than $101.01 depending on the market price of Ordinary Shares before Conversion and the Face Value of the Notes at the Conversion Date.

Event	When?	Is APRA approval required?	Are there other pre-conditions to the event?	What value will a Holder receive?	In what form will that value be provided to Holders?	Where to find further information?
Conversion upon a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event	If a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event occurs	No	No	A variable value, depending on the price of the Ordinary Shares at the relevant time. However, Holders may (in the case of a Capital Trigger Event) and are likely to (in the case of a Non-Viability Trigger Event) receive significantly less than approximately $101.01 for each Note (based on the Initial Face Value of $100 per Note), and the value may be nothing if Conversion does not occur for any reason and Ordinary Shares are not issued for any reason ¹	A variable number of Ordinary Shares up to the Maximum Conversion Number. However, if Conversion of the Notes does not occur for any reason and Ordinary Shares are not issued for any reason, then the rights of Holders attaching to those Notes will be terminated immediately on the Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date (as the case may be) and Holders will lose all of the value of their investment in those Notes and they will not receive any compensation or unpaid Distributions	Sections 2.5 and 5.1.6 to 5.1.8 Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clauses 5.1 to 5.8 and 9

1. Section 2.5 provides further detail on the circumstances in which Holders are likely to receive significantly less than $101.01 due to a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event.

1.4 Ranking of Westpac Capital Notes 5 in a Winding Up of Westpac

The table below illustrates how the Notes would rank upon a winding up of Westpac, if they are on issue at that time. It is likely that a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event would occur prior to a Winding Up and the Notes would have been Converted into Ordinary Shares or otherwise had the rights attaching to them terminated immediately on the Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date (as the case may be) where Conversion does not occur for any reason.

1.5 Key risks associated with an investment in Westpac Capital Notes 5 and Westpac

Before applying for any Notes, you should consider whether the Notes are a suitable investment for you. There are risks involved with investing in the Notes and in Westpac. Many of these risks are outside the control of Westpac and the Westpac Directors. These risks include those in this Section 1.5 and Section 5 and any other matters referred to in this Prospectus.

Westpac Capital Notes 5 are not deposit liabilities or protected accounts	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Notes are not deposit liabilities or protected accounts of Westpac for the purposes of the Banking Act or Financial Claims Scheme and are not subject to the depositor protection provisions of Australian banking legislation (including the Australian Government guarantee of certain bank deposits). 1. This diagram and the descriptions are simplified and illustrative only, and do not include every type of security or obligation that may be issued or entered into by Westpac, or every potential claim against Westpac in a Winding Up. Westpac will from time to time issue additional securities or incur other obligations that rank ahead of, equally with, or subordinated to, the Notes. Further, some of the securities represented in the diagram (for example, Westpac Subordinated Notes 2013, Westpac NZD Subordinated Notes and Additional Tier 1 Capital securities) may be converted into Ordinary Shares, which will then rank equally with other Ordinary Shares.

Market price of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 may fluctuate	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Notes may trade at a market price below Face Value (initially $100 per Note). Circumstances in which the market price of the Notes may decline include general conditions, changes in investor perception and sentiment in relation to Westpac, the availability of better rates of return on other securities issued by Westpac or other issuers and the occurrence of or increase in the likelihood of the occurrence of a Capital Trigger Event or a Non-Viability Trigger Event. 	Section 5.1.2	55
Liquidity of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 may be low	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The market for the Notes will likely be less liquid than the market for Ordinary Shares. Holder s who wish to sell their Notes may be unable to do so at an acceptable price, or at all, if insufficient liquidity exists in the market for the Notes. 	Section 5.1.3	55
Distributions may not be paid	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> There is a risk that Distributions will not be paid. Distributions are discretionary and are only payable subject to the satisfaction of the Distribution Payment Conditions. For example, this includes the Distribution not resulting in a breach of capital requirements. Distributions are non-cumulative. If a Distribution is not paid in full because the Distribution Payment Conditions are not satisfied, Holders are not entitled to receive the unpaid Distribution. 	Sections 2.1.9 and 5.1.4	23 and 55
Changes in the Distribution Rate	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Distribution Rate will fluctuate (and may increase and/or decrease) over time with movements in the 90 day Bank Bill Rate. There is a risk that the Distribution Rate may become less attractive compared to returns available on comparable securities or investments. 	Sections 2.1.2 and 5.1.5	19 and 56
Conversion or termination of rights on account of a Capital Trigger Event or a Non-Viability Trigger Event	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The value of Ordinary Shares received for each Note that is Converted upon the occurrence of a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event may (in the case of a Capital Trigger Event) and is likely to (in the case of a Non-Viability Trigger Event) be significantly less than approximately $101.01 for each Note (based on the Initial Face Value of $100 per Note). This is because the number of Ordinary Shares issued on Conversion is limited to the Maximum Conversion Number, as required by APRA. The Maximum Conversion Number applied on a Conversion of this kind is based on an Ordinary Share price that reflects 20% of the Ordinary Share price at the time of issue of the Notes. If Conversion of Notes does not occur for any reason and Ordinary Shares are not issued for any reason following the occurrence of a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event (for example, due to laws relating to the insolvency, winding-up or other external administration of Westpac, Australian foreign investment laws, the Corporations Act or other applicable laws, an order of a court, an action of any government authority or operational delays), then: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> those Notes will not be Converted in respect of such Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event (as the case may be) and will not be Converted, Redeemed or Transferred on any subsequent date; and 	Sections 2.5.4, 2.5.5, 5.1.7 and 5.1.8	33, 34, 56 and 57

Conversion or termination of rights on account of a Capital Trigger Event or a Non-Viability Trigger Event (continued)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - all rights in relation to those Notes will be terminated immediately on the Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date (as the case may be), and Holders will lose all of the value of their investment in those Notes and they will not receive any compensation or unpaid Distributions.
Credit ratings	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Any credit rating assigned to the Notes or other Westpac securities could be reviewed, suspended, withdrawn or downgraded by credit ratings agencies, or credit rating agencies could change their rating methodology, at any time which could adversely affect the market price and liquidity of the Notes and other Westpac securities. 	Section 5.1.10	58
The price used to calculate the number of Ordinary Shares to be issued on Conversion may not be the market price	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Ordinary Share price used to calculate the number of Ordinary Shares to be issued on Conversion may be different to the market price of Ordinary Shares at the time of Conversion because the price used in the calculation is based on the VWAP during the relevant period prior to the Conversion Date. • The value of Ordinary Shares Holders receive based on the calculation may therefore be less than the value of those Ordinary Shares based on the market price on the Conversion Date. 	Section 5.1.11	58
It is not certain whether and when the Westpac Capital Notes 5 will be Converted, Redeemed or Transferred	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Conversion may not occur on 22 September 2027, being the first possible Scheduled Conversion Date, or at all if the Scheduled Conversion Conditions are not satisfied. • Conversion, Redemption or Transfer may occur in certain circumstances before the Scheduled Conversion Date, which may be disadvantageous in light of market conditions or your individual circumstances. • Holders have no right to request that their Notes be Converted, Redeemed or Transferred. Unless their Notes are Converted, Redeemed or Transferred, Holders would need to sell their Notes on ASX at the prevailing market price to realise their investment. That price may be less than the Face Value (initially $100 per Note) and there may be no liquid market in the Notes. 	Sections 5.1.12 to 5.1.15	58 and 59
No fixed maturity date	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • As the Notes are perpetual instruments and have no fixed maturity date, there is a risk the Notes could remain on issue indefinitely and Holders may not be repaid their investment. 	Section 5.1.16	59
Ranking of the Westpac Capital Notes 5	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In the event of a Winding Up, if the Notes are still on issue and have not been Redeemed or Converted, they will rank ahead of Ordinary Shares, equally with all Equal Ranking Capital Securities and behind Senior Creditors (including depositors and holders of Westpac's senior or less subordinated debt). This means that if there is a shortfall of funds on a Winding Up to pay all amounts ranking senior to, and equally with, the Notes, Holders will lose all or some of their investment. - Distribution Periods will generally have 90-92 days in them. The number of days in the first Distribution Period will be 101 days and is longer than the normal Distribution Period.
- All calculations of payments will be rounded to four decimal places. For the purposes of making any payment in respect of a Holder's aggregate holding of Notes, any fraction of a cent will be rounded to the nearest one Australian cent (with one half of an Australian cent being rounded up to one Australian cent). The Distribution Rate on which this calculation is based, and the Distribution, are for illustrative purposes only and do not indicate the actual Distribution Rate or Distribution. It is not a guarantee or forecast of the actual Distribution that may be obtained. Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future performance.
- Australian resident taxpayers may be entitled to utilise franking credits. Australian resident taxpayers that are individuals or complying superannuation entities may be entitled to a refund of excess franking credits. Investors should seek professional advice in relation to their tax position. Reference should also be made to the summary of the Australian tax consequences for Holders in Section 6.

2.1.4 Franking of Distributions	Westpac expects, but does not guarantee, that Distributions will be fully franked. If there is a change in the Tax Rate, the Distribution Rate will change accordingly. If a Distribution is not fully franked (including if that occurs because the current franking system is changed) then the amount of the cash Distribution entitlement would be adjusted to compensate for the unfranked amount. For example, if the Tax Rate decreases, the cash amount of any Distribution that Westpac may pay would increase and the franking credits attached to that Distribution would decrease. The formula for determining the adjusted Distribution is: <table border="1" data-bbox="424 651 1129 976"> <tr> <td colspan="2" style="text-align: center;">Distribution</td> </tr> <tr> <td colspan="2" style="text-align: center;">Adjusted Distribution = $\frac{\text{Distribution}}{1 - [\text{Tax Rate} \times (1 - \text{Franking Rate})]}$</td> </tr> <tr> <td style="text-align: center;">Distribution</td> <td>The Distribution entitlement for the Distribution Period prior to adjustment – see Section 2.1.3</td> </tr> <tr> <td style="text-align: center;">Tax Rate</td> <td>See Section 2.1.2</td> </tr> <tr> <td style="text-align: center;">Franking Rate</td> <td>The percentage of the Distribution that would carry franking credits.</td> </tr> </table>	Distribution		Adjusted Distribution = $\frac{\text{Distribution}}{1 - [\text{Tax Rate} \times (1 - \text{Franking Rate})]}$		Distribution	The Distribution entitlement for the Distribution Period prior to adjustment – see Section 2.1.3	Tax Rate	See Section 2.1.2	Franking Rate	The percentage of the Distribution that would carry franking credits. 2.1.5 Franking credits in respect of Distributions	It is expected (but not guaranteed) that Holders will receive franking credits in respect of Distributions (other than where a Holder's lack of entitlement to franking credits is a result of an act by, or circumstance affecting, the Holder). The franking credits represent each Holder's share of tax paid by Westpac on the profits from which the cash Distribution is paid. Westpac has applied for a public Class Ruling on behalf of Australian resident Holders which should confirm the ability of Holders to utilise the franking credits attached to those Distributions, subject to satisfaction of certain criteria. Impact of franking credits If the Distribution is fully franked, the potential value of the franking credits attached to a Distribution at the Distribution Rate of 3.4965% per annum in the example in Section 2.1.2 would be 1.4985% per annum. If that potential value is taken into account in full, the combined value of those franking credits and the cash Distribution would be equivalent to an unfranked Distribution Rate of approximately 4.9950% per annum. However, you should be aware that the potential value of the franking credits does not accrue to you at the same time as you receive the cash Distribution. You should also be aware that your ability to use the franking credits, either as an offset to your tax liability or by claiming a refund after the end of the year of income, will depend on your individual tax position.	Section 6	71

2.1.6 90 day Bank Bill Rate	The 90 day Bank Bill Rate is a key benchmark interest rate for the Australian money market. It is the primary short-term interest rate benchmark used in the financial markets for the pricing and valuation of Australian dollar securities and as a lending reference rate. This rate changes to reflect the supply and demand within the cash and currency markets. The movements in the 90 day Bank Bill Rate over the last 10 years are set out in the graph below.¹ The rate on 22 January 2018 was 1.7950% per annum. 90 day Bank Bill Rate (% per annum)  The graph displays the 90-day Bank Bill Rate as a percentage per annum from January 2008 to January 2018. The y-axis ranges from 0.00% to 10.00% in 1.00% increments. The x-axis shows dates from Jan 2008 to Jan 2018 in yearly increments. The rate begins at approximately 8.00% in Jan 2008, drops to about 7.50% by Jan 2008, then falls sharply to around 3.00% by Jan 2009. It then fluctuates between 3.00% and 5.00% until Jan 2012, after which it shows a steady decline, reaching approximately 1.7950% by Jan 2018.	Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clause 3.1	101
2.1.7 Distribution Payment Dates	Distributions are payable quarterly in arrear on the Distribution Payment Dates, subject to satisfaction of the Distribution Payment Conditions. The Distribution Payment Dates are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 22 March, 22 June, 22 September and 22 December of each year commencing on 22 June 2018, until the Notes are Converted at their full Face Value (or terminated following a failure to Convert) or Redeemed; and • the Conversion Date (other than a Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date), Redemption Date or Transfer Date, if those dates are not 22 March, 22 June, 22 September or 22 December. If a Distribution Payment Date is not a Business Day, then the Distribution will be paid on the next Business Day (without any interest in respect of the delay). The first Distribution Period runs from (but excludes) the Issue Date to (and includes) 22 June 2018. Thereafter, each Distribution Period runs from (but excludes) the previous Distribution Payment Date to (and includes) the next Distribution Payment Date. You should note that the first Distribution Period is a longer period of 101 days and other Distribution Periods will otherwise generally be 90 to 92 days. The Distribution Rate for the first Distribution Period will be determined on the Issue Date. After the first Distribution Period, the Distribution Rate will be determined on the first Business Day of each Distribution Period. Distributions will be paid to persons who are Holders on the Record Date in respect of the Distribution.	Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clause 3.5	102

2.1.8 Method of payment of Distributions	Distributions will be paid in Australian dollars. Westpac will only pay Distributions directly into an Australian dollar account of a financial institution. Westpac reserves the right to vary the way in which any Distribution is paid in accordance with the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms (provided that Distributions are always paid in cash).	Section 8.5.1 Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clause 11	88 112
2.1.9 Distribution Payment Conditions	Distributions are only payable subject to satisfaction of the Distribution Payment Conditions, being: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Westpac's absolute discretion; • the payment of the Distribution not resulting in a breach of Westpac's capital requirements (on a Level 1 basis) or of the Westpac Group's capital requirements (on a Level 2 basis) under the then current Prudential Standards at the time of the payment; • the payment of the Distribution not resulting in Westpac becoming, or being likely to become, insolvent; and • APRA not otherwise objecting to the payment. Distributions will also be subject to the Corporations Act and any other law regulating the payment of Distributions.	Section 5.1.4 Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clause 3.3	55 102
2.1.10 Consequence if a Distribution is not paid in full	Payments of Distributions are within the absolute discretion of Westpac and are non-cumulative. If a Distribution is not paid in full because the Distribution Payment Conditions are not satisfied or because of any other reason, Holders will not be entitled to receive the unpaid portion of that Distribution. No interest accrues on any unpaid Distributions and Westpac has no liability to the Holder and the Holder has no claim in respect of such non-payment. Non-payment of a Distribution will not be an event of default ¹ and Holders have no right to apply for a Winding Up on the grounds of Westpac's failure to pay a Distribution.	Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clause 3.4	102
2.1.11 Dividend and capital restrictions may apply to Westpac if a Distribution is not paid	If for any reason a Distribution has not been paid in full for a relevant Distribution Payment Date, then until a Distribution is paid in full on a subsequent Distribution Payment Date (or all Notes are Converted at their full Face Value, Redeemed or terminated following a failure to Convert) Westpac must not: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • determine or pay any Dividends on its Ordinary Shares; or • undertake any discretionary Buy Back or Capital Reduction, unless the amount of the unpaid Distribution is paid in full within 20 Business Days of the relevant Distribution Payment Date (and in certain other limited circumstances). 1. The Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms do not include any events of default.

2.2 Conversion on the Scheduled Conversion Date

2.2.1 Meaning of Conversion	Conversion means the conversion of the Notes into a variable number of Ordinary Shares in accordance with the formula contained in clause 9.1 of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms. On Conversion of a Note, the Holder's rights (including to payment of Distributions, other than any Distribution payable on the Scheduled Conversion Date, and Face Value and any other payments) in relation to that Note will be immediately and irrevocably terminated. However, the Holder will be issued with Ordinary Shares that will have the same rights as other Ordinary Shares on issue at the relevant time.	Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clause 9.1	108
2.2.2 Scheduled Conversion Date	The Notes do not have a maturity date but have a Scheduled Conversion Date. Conversion is expected to occur on the Scheduled Conversion Date, which will be the earlier of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 22 September 2027; and • the first Distribution Payment Date after 22 September 2027, on which the Scheduled Conversion Conditions are satisfied. 	Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clause 4.1	103
2.2.3 Scheduled Conversion Conditions	The Scheduled Conversion Conditions in relation to a potential Scheduled Conversion Date are satisfied where: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • First Scheduled Conversion Condition: the VWAP of Ordinary Shares on the 25th Business Day before (but not including) the potential Scheduled Conversion Date is greater than 56.12% of the Issue Date VWAP; and • Second Scheduled Conversion Condition: the VWAP of Ordinary Shares during the 20 Business Days before (but not including) the potential Scheduled Conversion Date is greater than 50.51% of the Issue Date VWAP. The percentages used in the Scheduled Conversion Conditions are derived from market precedents and the cap on the number of Ordinary Shares that are permitted to be issued under applicable Prudential Standards and ratings guidance. The following diagram illustrates the timeframes that are relevant for the Scheduled Conversion Conditions using the date 22 September 2027 as a potential Scheduled Conversion Date. These dates are indicative only and may change.	Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clause 4.2	103

2.2.4 Purpose of the Scheduled Conversion Conditions	The Scheduled Conversion Conditions are intended to operate so that upon Conversion on the Scheduled Conversion Date, Holders will receive Ordinary Shares worth approximately $101.01 per Note (based on the Initial Face Value of $100 per Note and the average of the daily volume weighted average sales prices of Ordinary Shares during the 20 Business Days before the Scheduled Conversion Date, with the benefit of a 1% discount).¹ If the price of Ordinary Shares were to fall significantly and there were no Scheduled Conversion Conditions, the number of Ordinary Shares that you would receive might be limited by the Maximum Conversion Number and in that case, the value of those Ordinary Shares would be likely to be less than $101.01 per Note. In order to give Holders some protection against receiving Ordinary Shares worth less than approximately $101.01 per Note, the Scheduled Conversion Conditions have been included, so that where the VWAP of Ordinary Shares has fallen to less than the specified percentage of the Issue Date VWAP, Scheduled Conversion is deferred.	Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clause 4.2	103
2.2.5 Consequences if the Scheduled Conversion Conditions are not satisfied	If the Scheduled Conversion Conditions are not satisfied on 22 September 2027, Conversion will not occur until the next Distribution Payment Date on which the Scheduled Conversion Conditions are satisfied.	Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clauses 4.1 and 4.2	103
2.2.6 VWAP and Issue Date VWAP	In general terms, VWAP refers to the average of the daily volume weighted average sales prices of Ordinary Shares sold on ASX and Chi-X during the relevant period. The Issue Date VWAP means the VWAP of Ordinary Shares during the 20 Business Days on which trading in Ordinary Shares took place immediately preceding (but not including) the Issue Date (as adjusted in accordance with the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms). The satisfaction of the Scheduled Conversion Conditions on a potential Scheduled Conversion Date will depend on the price of Ordinary Shares. For example², if the Issue Date VWAP is $30.00, then, for the First Scheduled Conversion Condition and Second Scheduled Conversion Condition to be satisfied: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the VWAP for the First Scheduled Conversion Condition would need to be at least $16.84 (56.12% of the Issue Date VWAP); and • the VWAP for the Second Scheduled Conversion Condition would need to be at least $15.16 (50.51% of the Issue Date VWAP). 	Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clauses 9.1 to 9.8 and 16.2 (definition of “Issue Date VWAP” and “VWAP”)	108, 109, 118 and 119

1. However, if the market price of Ordinary Shares on the Scheduled Conversion Date is different to the price used to calculate the number of Ordinary Shares to be issued on Conversion, the value of Ordinary Shares resulting from the Conversion of one Note may be worth more or less than $101.01. The value of Ordinary Shares Holders receive could also be less than this amount if the Face Value has previously been reduced (following a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event – see Section 2.5 for more information). If the Scheduled Conversion Conditions are not met, the Notes will not Convert on the Scheduled Conversion Date and the Scheduled Conversion Conditions will be re-tested on the next possible Scheduled Conversion Date. The Notes may remain on issue indefinitely.

2. This example is for illustrative purposes only and does not indicate whether or not the Scheduled Conversion Conditions will actually be satisfied in respect of a potential Scheduled Conversion Date.

2.2.7 How many Ordinary Shares will I receive if the Westpac Capital Notes 5 are Converted?	Upon Conversion, Holders will receive for each Note they hold a variable number of Ordinary Shares calculated using the following formula: <table border="1" data-bbox="424 400 1129 757"> <thead> <tr> <th colspan="2" style="text-align: center;">Face Value</th> </tr> <tr> <th colspan="2" style="text-align: center;">0.99 x VWAP</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>Face Value</td> <td>Initially $100 per Note</td> </tr> <tr> <td>VWAP</td> <td>The VWAP during the VWAP Period</td> </tr> <tr> <td>VWAP Period</td> <td>In the case of a Scheduled Conversion, the period of 20 Business Days on which trading in Ordinary Shares took place immediately preceding (but not including) the Scheduled Conversion Date</td> </tr> </tbody> </table> For example, assuming the VWAP is $30.00, the number of Ordinary Shares that Holders will receive for each Note on the Scheduled Conversion Date would be calculated as follows: <table border="1" data-bbox="424 889 1129 1025"> <tbody> <tr> <td>Face Value</td> <td style="text-align: right;">$100.00</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Divide by 0.99 x VWAP</td> <td style="text-align: right;">$29.70</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Ordinary Shares per Note</td> <td style="text-align: right;">3.3670</td> </tr> </tbody> </table> Assuming the price of the Ordinary Shares on the Scheduled Conversion Date is also $30.00, the aggregate value of the Ordinary Shares would be approximately $101.01 (calculated by multiplying 3.3670 Ordinary Shares by the Ordinary Share price of $30.00). Please be aware, the above example is for illustrative purposes only. The actual VWAP and number of Ordinary Shares that Holders may receive on Conversion on the Scheduled Conversion Date may be higher or lower than in this example. In addition, if the total number of Ordinary Shares to be allotted and issued in respect of a Holder's aggregate holding of Notes includes a fraction of an Ordinary Share, that fraction of an Ordinary Share will be disregarded. 2.2.8 Is there a limit on the number of Ordinary Shares I will receive on a Scheduled Conversion Date?	Yes. 2.2.9 What if I do not wish to receive Ordinary Shares or if I am prohibited or restricted from receiving Ordinary Shares?	If you do not wish to receive Ordinary Shares, you can notify Westpac of this at any time but no less than 15 Business Days prior to the Conversion Date. If Conversion occurs and you have notified Westpac that you do not wish to receive Ordinary Shares, or if you are an Ineligible Holder¹, then Westpac will issue the relevant number of Ordinary Shares to the Sale Agent who will hold the Ordinary Shares on trust for sale for your benefit². At the first reasonable opportunity, the Sale Agent will arrange for the sale of the Ordinary Shares on your behalf and pay the proceeds less selling costs, brokerage, stamp duty and other taxes and charges, to you. No guarantee is given in relation to the timing or price at which any sale will occur or whether a sale can be achieved.	Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clause 9.10	109

2.3 Optional Redemption and optional Transfer

Topic	Summary	Further information	Page(s)
2.3.1 Westpac's option to Redeem or Transfer the Westpac Capital Notes 5	Westpac may elect to Redeem or Transfer: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • all or some of the Notes on 22 September 2025; or • all (but not some) of the Notes following a Tax Event or Regulatory Event. Redemption is subject to Westpac receiving APRA's prior written approval. There can be no certainty that APRA will provide its prior written approval.	Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clauses 7, 8 and 16.2 (definition of "Tax Event" and "Regulatory Event")	106, 107, 118 and 119
2.3.2 Tax Event	A Tax Event will occur if Westpac determines, after receiving a supporting opinion of reputable legal counsel or other tax adviser in Australia experienced in such matters, that (as a result of a Change of Law) there is a more than insubstantial risk that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Westpac would be exposed to a more than de minimis adverse tax consequence or increased cost in relation to the Notes; or • any Distribution would not be a frankable distribution within the meaning of Division 202 of the Tax Act. A Tax Event will not arise where, at the Issue Date, Westpac expected the event would occur.	Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clause 16.2 (definition of "Tax Event")	119

1. Westpac will treat a Holder as not being an Ineligible Holder unless the Holder has otherwise notified it after the Issue Date and no less than 15 Business Days prior to the Conversion Date.

2. If Conversion is occurring because of the occurrence of a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event and the Conversion is not effective and Ordinary Shares are not issued for any reason to the Sale Agent within 5 Business Days, then: (i) those Notes will not be Converted in respect of such Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event (as the case may be) and will not be Converted, Redeemed or Transferred on any subsequent date; and (ii) all rights in relation to those Notes will be terminated immediately on the Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date (as the case may be) (and Holders will lose all of the value of their investment in those Notes and they will not receive any compensation or unpaid Distributions).

Topic	Summary	Further information	Page(s)
2.3.3 Regulatory Event	Broadly, a Regulatory Event will occur if Westpac receives legal advice that, as a result of a change of law or regulation after the Issue Date: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • additional requirements would be imposed on the Westpac Group in relation to Notes which Westpac determines to be unacceptable; or • Westpac determines that it will not be entitled to treat some or all of the Notes as Additional Tier 1 Capital of the Westpac Group. A Regulatory Event will not arise where, at the Issue Date, Westpac expected the event would occur.	Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clause 16.2 (definition of “Regulatory Event”)	118
2.3.4 Meaning of Redemption	Redemption means Westpac will pay to Holders the Face Value (initially $100 per Note) for each Note Redeemed. Westpac may only Redeem Notes if it replaces them with capital of the same or better quality (and the replacement is done under conditions that are sustainable for the income capacity of Westpac) or obtains confirmation that APRA is satisfied that Westpac does not have to replace the Notes. Holders cannot request Redemption of their Notes.	Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clauses 7 and 16.2 (definition of “Redemption”)	106 and 118
2.3.5 Meaning of Transfer	Transfer means Westpac will arrange for a Nominated Party to undertake to purchase Notes from Holders for the Face Value. On Transfer, Holders will receive the Face Value (initially $100 per Note) for each Note from the Nominated Party, paid in cash. If the Nominated Party does not pay the Face Value to Holders on 22 September 2025 or following a Tax Event or Regulatory Event, the Transfer will not proceed and Holders will continue to hold their Notes. The Nominated Party cannot be a member of the Westpac Group or a related entity (as described in the Prudential Standards) of Westpac. Holders cannot request a Transfer of Notes.	Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clauses 8 and 16.2 (definition of “Transfer”)	107 and 119

2.4 Optional Conversion

Topic	Summary	Further information	Page(s)
2.4.1 When does Westpac have an option to Convert Westpac Capital Notes 5?	Subject to satisfaction of the Optional Conversion Restriction, Westpac may elect to Convert: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • all or some of the Notes on 22 September 2025; or • all (but not some) of the Notes following a Tax Event or Regulatory Event. 	Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clauses 6 and 16.2 (definition of “Tax Event” and “Regulatory Event”) Sections 2.3.2 and 2.3.3 (for a brief description of Tax Events and Regulatory Events)	105, 118 and 119 27 and 28

A condition that may prevent Westpac from Converting the Notes on the Optional Conversion Date Once an Optional Conversion Notice has been sent, Westpac may still be prevented from Converting the Notes by the operation of the Second Scheduled Conversion Condition, which is deemed to apply to Optional Conversion as though the proposed Optional Conversion Date were a Scheduled Conversion Date. The Second Scheduled Conversion Condition otherwise applies as set out in Section 2.2.3, except that in the case of Optional Conversion following a Tax Event or Regulatory Event, it applies as if the reference to 50.51% referred to 20.20% of the Issue Date VWAP. The percentages used in the above restrictions and conditions for Optional Conversion are derived from market precedents and the cap on the number of Ordinary Shares that are permitted to be issued under the Prudential Standards and ratings guidance. 	Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clauses 6.2 and 6.4	105 and 106

2.4.5 Consequences if Conversion does not occur on an Optional Conversion Date	If Westpac chooses to Convert the Notes (and gives an Optional Conversion Notice to Holders) but the Second Scheduled Conversion Condition (applied as described in Section 2.4.2) prevents Conversion from occurring on the Optional Conversion Date, Westpac will notify Holders and the Conversion will be deferred until the next Distribution Payment Date on which the Scheduled Conversion Conditions are satisfied as if that Distribution Payment Date was a Scheduled Conversion Date (the "Deferred Conversion Date"). Where a Non-Viability Trigger Event occurs because APRA has determined that without a public sector injection of capital, or equivalent support, Westpac would become non-viable, all Notes must be Converted at their full Face Value. If Conversion does not occur for any reason following a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event and Ordinary Shares are not issued for any reason, then: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • those Notes will not be Converted in respect of such Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event (as the case may be) and will not be Converted, Redeemed or Transferred on any subsequent date; and • the Holder's rights in relation to those Notes will be immediately and irrevocably terminated on the Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date (as the case may be), and Holders will lose all of the value of their investment in those Notes and they will not receive any compensation. If Westpac is required to Convert some of the Notes following a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event, Westpac must treat Holders on an approximate pro-rata basis among themselves and other holders of Relevant Securities or in a manner that is otherwise, in the opinion of Westpac, fair and reasonable. This is subject to such adjustments as Westpac may determine to take account of the effect of marketable parcels of Notes and the need to round to whole numbers the number of Ordinary Shares and any Notes or other Relevant Securities remaining on issue, provided that such determination does not impede the immediate Conversion of the relevant number of Notes.	Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clauses 5.2, 5.4, 5.5 and 5.7	103 and 104

2.5.3 Non-Viability Trigger Event	A Non-Viability Trigger Event will occur when APRA notifies Westpac in writing that it believes Conversion of some or all Notes (or conversion or write down of other capital instruments of the Westpac Group) or a public sector injection of capital, or equivalent support, is necessary because, without it, Westpac would become non-viable. Upon a Non-Viability Trigger Event occurring, Westpac must Convert (or otherwise terminate the rights attaching to the Notes, if Conversion does not occur for any reason) that number of the Notes (or such percentage of the Face Value of the Notes) as is necessary (when added to the amount of any other Relevant Securities converted or written down) to satisfy APRA that Westpac will no longer be non-viable. Where a Non-Viability Trigger Event occurs because APRA has determined that without a public sector injection of capital, or equivalent support, Westpac would become non-viable, all Notes must be Converted at their full Face Value. Whether a Non-Viability Trigger Event will occur is at the discretion of APRA. APRA has not provided guidance on when it will consider an entity to be non-viable and there are currently no Australian precedents for this. However, it is likely that APRA will consider an entity to be non-viable when, for example, the entity is suffering from significant financial stress, is insolvent or cannot raise money in the public or private market.	Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clauses 5.3, 5.4, 5.7 and 9.1	104 and 108
2.5.4 How many Ordinary Shares will I receive on Conversion following a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event?	If Notes are Converted following a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event then in respect of each Note that is Converted, Holders will receive a number of Ordinary Shares equal to the lower of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the Maximum Conversion Number (which, applied on a Conversion of this kind, is based on an Ordinary Share price that reflects 20% of the Ordinary Share price at the time of issue of the Notes); and • the Conversion Number calculated in the same manner as if Conversion was occurring on the Scheduled Conversion Date (see Section 2.2.7) except that the VWAP Period will be the 5 Business Days in which trading of Ordinary Shares took place on ASX preceding, but not including, the Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date, as applicable. In addition, the Conversion of Notes into Ordinary Shares on a Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date is not subject to the Scheduled Conversion Conditions being satisfied. This means that, due to the application of the Maximum Conversion Number, depending on the market price of Ordinary Shares at the time, Holders may (in the case of a Capital Trigger Event) and are likely to (in the case of a Non-Viability Trigger Event) receive significantly less than approximately $101.01 per Note (based on the Initial Face Value of $100 per Note). If Holders receive Ordinary Shares worth less than the Face Value of the Notes, they will suffer loss as a consequence. The value received may be nothing if Conversion does not occur for any reason and Ordinary Shares are not issued for any reason.	Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clauses 5.5, 5.7, 9.1 and 16.2 (definition of “VWAP Period”)	104, 108 and 120

2.5.5 Is there a limit on the number of Ordinary Shares I will receive on Conversion following a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event?	Yes. The Maximum Conversion Number is used to limit the number of Ordinary Shares to be issued on Conversion following a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event. The below example illustrates how many Ordinary Shares may be issued for each Note on Conversion following a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event, assuming a VWAP of $4.00 and an Issue Date VWAP of $30.00. This example is for illustrative purposes only. The actual VWAP, Issue Date VWAP and Maximum Conversion Number may be higher or lower than provided in this example, and may be adjusted in certain circumstances as outlined in the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms. Step 1 – Calculate the Conversion Number of Ordinary Shares for each Note <table border="1" data-bbox="424 752 1137 891"> <tr> <td>Face Value</td> <td style="text-align: right;">$100.00</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Divide by 0.99 x VWAP</td> <td style="text-align: right;">$3.96</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Ordinary Shares per Note</td> <td style="text-align: right;">25.2525</td> </tr> </table> Step 2 – Calculate the Maximum Conversion Number applicable to Conversion in the case of a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event <table border="1" data-bbox="424 1032 1137 1171"> <tr> <td>Face Value</td> <td style="text-align: right;">$100.00</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Divide by 0.20 x Issue Date VWAP</td> <td style="text-align: right;">$6.00</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Ordinary Shares per Note</td> <td style="text-align: right;">16.6667</td> </tr> </table> Step 3 – Assess the effect of the Maximum Conversion Number In this example, the Maximum Conversion Number is lower than the Conversion Number of Ordinary Shares for each Note. As a result, the number of Ordinary Shares a Holder would receive for each Note would be limited to the Maximum Conversion Number of Ordinary Shares for each Note. For example, a Holder of a single Note would receive 16 Ordinary Shares on Conversion in the case of a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event (as a fraction of an Ordinary Share to be allotted in respect of a Holder's aggregate holding of Notes will be disregarded). If those Ordinary Shares were sold on the ASX at the same price as the VWAP (being $4.00), the Holder would receive $64.00, thereby suffering a loss of $36.00 on their investment of $100.00 on the Initial Face Value of the Note. The Maximum Conversion Number will be announced by Westpac to the ASX at the time of issue of the Notes. The Maximum Conversion Number may be adjusted up or down to reflect transactions affecting the capital of Westpac (including bonus issues, share splits, consolidations or other similar transactions not involving any cash payment (or the giving of any other form of consideration) to or by holders of Ordinary Shares) as set out in the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms. The Maximum Conversion Number will not be adjusted to reflect other transactions which may affect the price of Ordinary Shares, including, for example, rights issues, returns of capital, buy-backs or special dividends.	Face Value	$100.00	Divide by 0.99 x VWAP	$3.96	Ordinary Shares per Note	25.2525	Face Value	$100.00	Divide by 0.20 x Issue Date VWAP	$6.00	Ordinary Shares per Note	16.6667	Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clauses 9.1 to 9.8	108 to 109

Divide by 0.99 x VWAP	$3.96
Ordinary Shares per Note	25.2525

Ranking of Westpac Capital Notes 5 in a Winding Up	In the event of a Winding Up (and assuming the Notes are still on issue and have not been Redeemed or Converted or otherwise had the rights attaching to them terminated following a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event), the right of Holders to receive a return of capital will rank ahead of Ordinary Shares, equally among themselves and with Equal Ranking Capital Securities, but subordinated to Senior Creditors. The ranking of the Notes in a Winding Up will be adversely affected if a Capital Trigger Event or a Non-Viability Trigger Event occurs. It is likely that such an event would occur prior to a Winding Up, requiring the Conversion of Notes. If Conversion has occurred, Holders will hold Ordinary Shares and will rank equally with other holders of Ordinary Shares. However, if for any reason Conversion of Notes following a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event does not occur (for example due to laws relating to the insolvency, winding-up or other external administration of Westpac, Australian foreign investment laws, the Corporations Act or other applicable laws, an order of a court, an action of any government authority or operational delays) and the Ordinary Shares are not issued for any reason by 5.00pm on the fifth Business Day following a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event, then:	Sections 1.4, 5.1.8, 5.1.9, 5.1.23 and 5.1.24 Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms clauses 2, 5.8 and 13.4	10, 57, 58 and 61 101, 105 and 113

Reinvestment Offer for Westpac CPS holders

This Section sets out:

3.1 What are Westpac CPS?

3.2 The Reinvestment Offer

3.3 Options for Westpac CPS holders

3.4 Key differences between Westpac CPS and Westpac Capital Notes 5

3.5 What are the risks associated with the Reinvestment Offer?

3.6 Further information about Westpac CPS and the Reinvestment Offer

WARNING - Westpac Capital Notes 5 are not deposit liabilities of Westpac, are riskier than bank deposits and may not be suitable for some investors. Their overall complexity may make them difficult to understand and the risks associated with the Notes could result in the loss of all of your investment. If you do not fully understand how they work or the risks associated with them, you should obtain professional advice.

3.1 What are Westpac CPS?

Westpac CPS are fully paid, perpetual, convertible, unguaranteed and unsecured preference shares issued by Westpac. Westpac CPS trade on ASX under the code "WBCPC".

Westpac has amended the Westpac CPS Terms to enable:

- the transfer of Participating Westpac CPS to the Westpac CPS Nominated Party on 13 March 2018 for $100 per Participating Westpac CPS (to facilitate the Reinvestment Offer);
- the payment of the Pro-Rata Westpac CPS Dividend and amendment of the dividend period for the Final Westpac CPS Dividend; and
- the transfer of Non-Participating Westpac CPS to the Westpac CPS Nominated Party for $100 per Westpac CPS, on 3 April 2018.¹

The amended Westpac CPS Terms were lodged by Westpac with the ASX on 5 February 2018.

A transfer notice in respect of Participating Westpac CPS and Non-Participating Westpac CPS was lodged on the ASX on 5 February 2018 in accordance with the Westpac CPS Terms.

3.2 The Reinvestment Offer

The Reinvestment Offer is an opportunity for Eligible Westpac CPS Holders to apply to reinvest some or all of their Westpac CPS in Notes. Participating Westpac CPS will be transferred to the Westpac CPS Nominated Party on 13 March 2018 for $100 per Participating Westpac CPS and the Transfer Proceeds will be automatically reinvested in Notes ($100 per Note).

To be eligible to participate in the Reinvestment Offer, Westpac CPS holders must:

- be registered holders of Westpac CPS at 7.00pm (Sydney time) on the Reinvestment Offer Record Date, being 29 January 2018; and
- be shown on the Westpac CPS Register as having an address in Australia.

Participating Westpac CPS Holders will be Allocated one Note for each Participating Westpac CPS reinvested.

Participating Westpac CPS Holders will also be entitled to the Pro-Rata Westpac CPS Dividend on 13 March 2018 for each Westpac CPS held on the record date for the Pro-Rata Westpac CPS Dividend (provided the dividend payment test in the Westpac CPS Terms is satisfied). These payments will be made in the same way in which dividends on Westpac CPS have previously been paid. You may amend these instructions with the Registrar up to 5.00pm (Sydney time) on 5 March 2018.

All Eligible Westpac CPS Holders will either be emailed a link to the electronic version of the Prospectus and online Reinvestment Application Form or will be mailed a printed Prospectus with a personalised Reinvestment Application Form (based on their communications election) shortly after the Offer opens.

Westpac will give priority to Applications received under the Reinvestment Offer (including Applications made through Syndicate Brokers) when Allocating the Notes. This priority does not apply to Applications for additional Notes by Eligible Westpac CPS Holders (as further described in Option 1 in Section 3.3) and if you apply for additional Notes, you may not receive the full Allocation of additional Notes applied for.

Eligible Westpac CPS Holders who apply to participate in the Reinvestment Offer are taken to agree to a holding lock being placed on those Westpac CPS elected for reinvestment pending completion of the Reinvestment Offer. Once the holding lock has been applied, you will not be able to dispose of or otherwise successfully deal with those Westpac CPS. However, it is also your responsibility to ensure that you do not dispose of or otherwise deal with those Westpac CPS.

No brokerage or stamp duty is payable on the reinvestment of the Transfer Proceeds under the Reinvestment Offer or an Application for additional Notes.

3.3 Options for Westpac CPS holders

Eligible Westpac CPS Holders have two options to consider which are described in the table on the following page.

Holders of Westpac CPS who are not eligible to participate in the Reinvestment Offer should refer to Option 2 in the table on the following page.

1. The first Westpac CPS Optional Conversion/Redemption Date of 31 March 2018 is not a business day for the purposes of the Westpac CPS Terms and accordingly, the transfer of Non-Participating Westpac CPS will occur on the next business day (being 3 April 2018).

Options
Option 1 – Reinvest some or all of your Westpac CPS in Notes If you choose to participate in the Reinvestment Offer only in respect of some of your Westpac CPS, please also refer to Option 2 in respect of any Non-Participating Westpac CPS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Eligible Westpac CPS Holders may apply to participate in the Reinvestment Offer in respect of some or all of their Westpac CPS held on the Reinvestment Offer Record Date. See Section 8.2 for details on how to apply. • If you choose to participate in the Reinvestment Offer, you will elect to reinvest each Participating Westpac CPS, which will be automatically reinvested towards the subscription for any Notes. You do not need to submit an Application Payment in respect of Westpac CPS being reinvested. • Eligible Westpac CPS Holders who apply to reinvest all of their Westpac CPS may also apply for additional Notes. You will need to submit an Application Payment for the additional Notes. See Section 8.2 for details on how to apply. • Eligible Westpac CPS Holders who choose this option will be paid the Pro-Rata Westpac CPS Dividend on 13 March 2018 for each Participating Westpac CPS being reinvested, provided the dividend payment test in the Westpac CPS Terms is satisfied. The Pro-Rata Westpac CPS Dividend is the last dividend you will receive on any Participating Westpac CPS. • You will also be paid the Final Westpac CPS Dividend on 3 April 2018¹ for any Non-Participating Westpac CPS not reinvested that you hold on the Final Westpac CPS Dividend Record Date, provided the dividend payment test in the Westpac CPS Terms is satisfied.
Option 2 – Do not participate in the Reinvestment Offer	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If you are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – an Eligible Westpac CPS Holder and you have chosen not to participate in the Reinvestment Offer (no action is required to be taken under this option); or – an Eligible Westpac CPS Holder and you have elected to participate in the Reinvestment Offer but in respect of only some of your Westpac CPS; or – a holder of Westpac CPS on the Reinvestment Offer Record Date but do not meet the eligibility criteria to qualify as an Eligible Westpac CPS Holder and therefore cannot elect to participate in the Reinvestment Offer; or – an Eligible Westpac CPS Holder who has elected to participate in the Reinvestment Offer but either (a) did not receive an Allocation of Notes or (b) had your Allocation of Notes scaled back, you are considered a “Non-Participating Westpac CPS Holder” in relation to any Non-Participating Westpac CPS you continue to hold after 13 March 2018 (being the expected transfer date for Participating Westpac CPS). • If you are a Non-Participating Westpac CPS Holder, no further action is required and you can continue to hold your Non-Participating Westpac CPS until 3 April 2018. Non-Participating Westpac CPS will be treated in accordance with the Westpac CPS Terms. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – You will be paid the Pro-Rata Westpac CPS Dividend on 13 March 2018 for each Westpac CPS you hold on the record date for the Pro-Rata Westpac CPS Dividend, provided the dividend payment test in the Westpac CPS Terms is satisfied. – Your Westpac CPS will be automatically transferred to the Westpac CPS Nominated Party on 3 April 2018² (in accordance with the Westpac CPS Terms). On that date, you will be paid the transfer proceeds of $100 per Non-Participating Westpac CPS. – You will also be paid the Final Westpac CPS Dividend on 3 April 2018¹ for each Westpac CPS you hold on the Final Westpac CPS Dividend Record Date, provided the dividend payment test in the Westpac CPS Terms is satisfied. – These payments will be made in accordance with your payment instructions recorded on the Westpac CPS Register. You may amend these instructions with the Registrar up to 5.00pm (Sydney time) on the record date for the relevant Westpac CPS dividend payment. • Holders of Non-Participating Westpac CPS may choose to sell their Westpac CPS on ASX at the prevailing market price, which may be higher or lower than the transfer proceeds of $100. The last day of trading for Westpac CPS is expected to be 14 March 2018. It is also expected that off-market transfers of Westpac CPS will not be accepted after 23 March 2018. You may be required to pay applicable brokerage if you choose to sell Westpac CPS on ASX.

1. The first Westpac CPS Optional Conversion/Redemption Date of 31 March 2018 is not a business day for the purposes of the Westpac CPS Terms and accordingly, the Final Westpac CPS Dividend payment will be made on the next business day (being 3 April 2018).

2. The first Westpac CPS Optional Conversion/Redemption Date of 31 March 2018 is not a business day for the purposes of the Westpac CPS Terms and accordingly the transfer of Non-Participating Westpac CPS will occur, and Final Westpac CPS Dividend payment will be made, on the next business day (being 3 April 2018).

3.4 Key differences between Westpac CPS and Westpac Capital Notes 5

There are a number of differences between Westpac CPS and the Notes which you should be aware of before deciding whether to reinvest your Westpac CPS under the Reinvestment Offer.

The following table describes the key features of Westpac CPS and the Notes and highlights the main differences between them. This table is not an exhaustive description of the differences between Westpac CPS and the Notes. If you have any questions about the differences between Westpac CPS and the Notes, you should seek advice from your financial or other professional adviser before deciding to invest in the Notes.

In these circumstances, those Notes will have no ranking in a Winding Up Refer to Section 2.7	Effectively rank in priority to Ordinary Shares, equally with equal ranking capital securities of Westpac and behind senior creditors (including depositors and holders of Westpac's senior or less subordinated debt) of Westpac If Westpac CPS have been converted into Ordinary Shares, holders will become holders of Ordinary Shares and will rank equally with other holders of Ordinary Shares

3.5 What are the risks associated with the Reinvestment Offer?

The main risks of participating in the Reinvestment Offer are the same risks relating to an investment in Notes and in Westpac. For further information about these risks, see Section 5. These risks should be considered carefully before you apply to reinvest in Notes under the Reinvestment Offer or apply for additional Notes.

There are also the risks that you may not receive the full Allocation of Notes that you apply for or that the Offer does not proceed. See Option 2 in Section 3.3 and Section 3.6.2 for further details.

If following the Reinvestment Offer, you hold both Notes and any Non-Participating Westpac CPS, you will hold two securities with different terms and conditions and different risk profiles until, as intended, your Non-Participating Westpac CPS are transferred to the Westpac CPS Nominated Party.

3.6 Further information about Westpac CPS and the Reinvestment Offer

3.6.1 Taxation consequences of the Reinvestment Offer

Section 6 provides information about the general taxation consequences of participating in the Reinvestment Offer.

The Australian taxation consequences of participating in the Reinvestment Offer will depend on your individual circumstances. You should obtain your own taxation advice before you invest in, hold, or dispose of Westpac CPS and/or Notes.

3.6.2 What happens if the Offer does not proceed?

If you have elected to apply to reinvest some or all of your Westpac CPS under the Reinvestment Offer and the Offer does not proceed, your Westpac CPS will remain on issue and be dealt with in accordance with the Westpac CPS Terms. You will be paid the Pro-Rata Westpac CPS Dividend on 13 March 2018 (to the extent it has not been paid and provided the dividend payment test in the Westpac CPS Terms is satisfied) and your Westpac CPS are expected to be transferred to the Westpac CPS Nominated Party on 3 April 2018¹ (subject to the Westpac CPS Terms). On that date, you will be paid the transfer proceeds of $100 per Westpac CPS you still hold on 3 April 2018, and you will also be paid the Final Westpac CPS Dividend for each Westpac CPS you hold on the Final Westpac CPS Dividend Record Date (provided the dividend payment test in the Westpac CPS Terms is satisfied).

These payments will be made in accordance with your payment instructions recorded on the Westpac CPS Register. You may amend these instructions with the Registrar up to 5.00pm (Sydney time) on the record date for the relevant Westpac CPS dividend payment.

3.6.3 What will happen if the transfer of Westpac CPS to a Westpac CPS Nominated Party does not occur as expected?

If either the transfer in respect of:

- the Participating Westpac CPS does not occur as expected on 13 March 2018 for any reason; or
- the Non-Participating Westpac CPS does not occur as expected on 3 April 2018 for any reason, the relevant Westpac CPS the subject of the relevant transfer will remain on issue until otherwise dealt with in accordance with the Westpac CPS Terms. In addition, no Notes will be allocated to Participating Westpac CPS Holders under the Reinvestment Offer if the transfer of Participating Westpac CPS does not occur.

1. The first Westpac CPS Optional Conversion/Redemption Date of 31 March 2018 is not a business day for the purposes of the Westpac CPS Terms and accordingly the transfer of Non-Participating Westpac CPS will occur, and the Final Westpac CPS Dividend payment will be made, on the next business day (being 3 April 2018).

WARNING - Westpac Capital Notes 5 are not deposit liabilities of Westpac, are riskier than bank deposits and may not be suitable for some investors. Their overall complexity may make them difficult to understand and the risks associated with the Notes could result in the loss of all of your investment. If you do not fully understand how they work or the risks associated with them, you should obtain professional advice.

4.1 Overview of Westpac's business including summary financial information

4.1.1 Overview of Westpac's business

Westpac is one of the four major banking organisations in Australia and one of the largest banking organisations in New Zealand. The Westpac Group provides a broad range of banking and financial services in these markets, including consumer, business and institutional banking and wealth management services.

Westpac has branches, affiliates and controlled entities throughout Australia, New Zealand, Asia and in the Pacific region, and maintains branches and offices in some of the key financial centres around the world.

As at 30 September 2017, Westpac and its controlled entities had total assets of approximately $852 billion. Westpac's Ordinary Shares and certain other securities are quoted on ASX and, as at 22 January 2018, Westpac's Ordinary Share market capitalisation was approximately $104 billion.

The performance of Ordinary Shares during the period from January 2008 to January 2018 is set out in the graph below.

4.1.2 Organisational structure

Westpac's operations comprise the following key customer-facing business divisions operating under multiple brands.

Consumer Bank ("CB") is responsible for sales and service to consumer customers in Australia under the Westpac, St.George, BankSA, Bank of Melbourne and RAMS brands. Activities are conducted through a dedicated team of specialist consumer relationship managers along with Westpac's call centres and Westpac's extensive network of branches and ATMs. Customers are also supported by a range of internet and mobile banking solutions. CB also works in an integrated way with BT Financial Group (Australia) ("BTFG") and Westpac Institutional Bank ("WIB") in the sales and service of select financial services and products, including in wealth and foreign exchange. The revenue from these products is mostly retained by the product originator.

Business Bank ("BB") is responsible for sales and service to micro, small to medium enterprises (SME) and commercial business customers in Australia for facilities up to approximately $150 million. The division operates under the Westpac, St.George, BankSA and Bank of Melbourne brands. Customers are provided with a wide range of banking and financial products and services to support their borrowing, payments and transaction needs. In addition, specialist services are provided for cash flow finance, trade finance, automotive and equipment finance, property finance and treasury. The division is also responsible for consumer customers with auto finance loans. BB works in an integrated way with BTFG and WIB in the sales and service of select financial services and products including corporate superannuation, foreign exchange and interest rate hedging. The revenue from these products is mostly retained by the product originator.

BT Financial Group (Australia) ("BTFG") is the Australian wealth management and insurance arm of the Westpac Group, providing a broad range of associated services. BTFG's funds management operations include the manufacturing and distribution of investment, superannuation, retirement products, wealth administration platforms, private banking, margin lending and equities broking. BTFG's insurance business covers the manufacturing and distribution of life, general and lenders mortgage insurance. The division also uses third parties to manufacture certain general insurance products. In managing risk across all insurance classes, the division reinsures certain risks using external providers. BTFG operates a range of wealth, funds management and financial advice brands and operates under the banking brands of Westpac, St.George, Bank of Melbourne and BankSA for Private Wealth and Insurance.

Westpac Institutional Bank ("WIB") delivers a broad range of financial products and services to commercial, corporate, institutional and government customers with connections to Australia and New Zealand. WIB operates through dedicated industry relationship and specialist product teams, with expert knowledge in transactional banking, financial and debt capital markets, specialised capital and alternative investment solutions. Customers are supported throughout Australia as well as via branches and subsidiaries located in New Zealand, the US, UK and Asia. WIB is also responsible for Westpac Pacific, currently providing a range of banking services in Fiji and PNG. WIB works in an integrated way with all the Westpac Group's divisions in the provision of more complex financial needs, including across foreign exchange and fixed interest solutions.

Westpac New Zealand is responsible for sales and service of banking, wealth and insurance products for consumers, business and institutional customers in New Zealand. Westpac conducts its New Zealand banking business through two banks in New Zealand:

- Westpac New Zealand Limited (WNZL), which is incorporated in New Zealand; and
- Westpac Banking Corporation (New Zealand Branch), which is incorporated in Australia.

Westpac New Zealand operates via an extensive network of branches and ATMs across both the North and South Islands. Business and institutional customers are also served through relationship and specialist product teams. Banking products are provided under the Westpac brand, while insurance and wealth products are provided under Westpac Life and BT brands, respectively. Westpac New Zealand also maintains its own infrastructure, including technology, operations and treasury.

Group Businesses include:

- Treasury, which is responsible for the management of the Westpac Group's balance sheet including wholesale funding, capital and management of liquidity. Treasury also manages the interest rate risk and foreign exchange risks inherent in the balance sheet, including managing the mismatch between Westpac Group assets and liabilities. Treasury's earnings are primarily sourced from managing the Westpac Group's balance sheet and interest rate risk (excluding Westpac New Zealand) within set risk limits;
- Group Technology, which comprises functions for the Australian businesses, is responsible for technology strategy and architecture, infrastructure and operations, applications development and business integration; and

- Core Support, which comprises functions performed centrally, including Australian banking operations, property services, strategy, finance, risk, compliance, legal and human resources.

Group Technology costs are fully allocated to other divisions in the Westpac Group. Core Support costs are partially allocated to other divisions in the Westpac Group, with costs attributed to enterprise activity retained in Group Businesses.

Group Businesses also includes earnings on capital not allocated to divisions, accounting entries for certain intra-group transactions that facilitate the presentation of the performance of the Westpac Group's operating segments, earnings from non-core asset sales, earnings and costs associated with the Group's fintech investments and certain other head office items such as centrally raised provisions.

1. The consolidated balance sheet has been derived from Westpac's audited annual financial report as at 30 September 2017.

Impact of the issue of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 on Westpac's consolidated balance sheet

The unaudited pro-forma balance sheet shows the adjustments that would be made to Westpac's audited consolidated balance sheet as at 30 September 2017, assuming:

- an issue of $1,450 million¹ of Notes, less Offer costs of $17 million; and
- the retirement of $1,189 million of Westpac CPS, assuming $500 million is reinvested in Notes² and $689 million of Non-Participating Westpac CPS are transferred to the Westpac CPS Nominated Party with $300 million being redeemed and $389 million being converted into Ordinary Shares.

The impact of the pro-forma adjustments show an increase in Westpac's net assets and shareholders' equity of $389 million. The Offer will not have a material impact on Westpac's financial position. The anticipated proceeds received under the Offer will be used by Westpac for general business purposes.

Total Capital Ratio	14.8%	14.3%	0.2%	14.5%
Leverage Ratio	5.7%	5.5%	0.1%	5.6%

Impact of the issue of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 on Westpac's Level 2 capital adequacy position

The reported Level 2 capital adequacy position of Westpac as at 31 December 2017 is set out in the above table. The reported Level 2 capital adequacy position of Westpac is discussed in Section 4.2.5.

The table also shows the unaudited pro-forma capital adequacy position (Level 2) as at 31 December 2017 assuming the following pro-forma adjustments:

- the issue of $1,450 million¹ of Notes, which increases the pro-forma Additional Tier 1 Capital Ratio by 0.4%;
- the retirement of $1,189 million of Westpac CPS assuming $500 million is reinvested in Notes² and $689 million of Non-Participating Westpac CPS are transferred to the Westpac CPS Nominated Party with $300 million being redeemed and $389 million being converted into Ordinary Shares. This reduces the pro-forma Additional Tier 1 Capital Ratio by 0.3%; and
- the issue of $389 million of Ordinary Shares following the conversion of $389 million of Non-Participating Westpac CPS into Ordinary Shares, less Offer costs of $17 million, which increases the pro-forma Common Equity Tier 1 Capital Ratio by 0.1%.

The impact of the pro-forma adjustments represents an increase in Westpac's Tier 1 Capital Ratio and Total Capital Ratio of 0.2%.

APRA has confirmed that the Notes will be eligible for inclusion as Additional Tier 1 Capital under APRA's Prudential Standard APS 111.

4.2 Capital management strategy and capital ratios

4.2.1 Capital adequacy framework

APRA is the prudential regulator of the Australian financial services industry. It oversees credit unions, building societies, general insurance and reinsurance companies, life insurers, friendly societies, most members of the superannuation industry, and Authorised Deposit-taking Institutions ("ADIs") such as Westpac. APRA's website at www.apra.gov.au includes further details of its functions and Prudential Standards.

APRA's Prudential Standards aim to ensure that ADIs remain adequately capitalised to support the risks associated with their activities and to generally protect Australian depositors.

APRA applies a tiered approach to measuring Westpac's capital adequacy by assessing financial strength at three levels:

- Level 1, comprising Westpac and its subsidiary entities that have been approved by APRA as being part of a single 'Extended Licensed Entity' for the purposes of measuring capital adequacy;
- Level 2, the consolidation of Westpac and all its subsidiary entities (including offshore subsidiaries such as Westpac New Zealand Limited) except those entities specifically excluded by APRA regulations such as insurance or wealth management subsidiaries; and

1. Westpac may raise more or less than $1,450 million under the Offer and these figures will be impacted accordingly.

2. The actual Westpac CPS reinvestment rate may be more or less and this figure will be impacted accordingly.

- Level 3, the consolidation of Westpac and all its subsidiary entities.

APRA measures an ADI's regulatory capital as a percentage of RWA, by reference to:

- Common Equity Tier 1 Capital ("CET1"), the highest quality components of capital that consists of paid-up share capital, retained profits and certain reserves, less certain intangible assets, capitalised expenses and software, and investments and retained profits in insurance and funds management subsidiaries that are not consolidated for capital adequacy purposes. The ratio of CET1 to RWA is called the "Common Equity Tier 1 Capital Ratio" ("CET1 Ratio");
- Tier 1 Capital, being the sum of Common Equity Tier 1 Capital and Additional Tier 1 Capital. Additional Tier 1 Capital comprises high quality components of capital that consists of certain securities not included in Common Equity Tier 1 Capital, but which include loss absorbing characteristics such as the Notes. The ratio of Tier 1 Capital to RWA is called the "Tier 1 Capital Ratio"; and
- Total Capital, being the sum of Tier 1 Capital and Tier 2 Capital. Tier 2 Capital includes subordinated instruments and other components of capital that, to varying degrees, do not meet the criteria for Tier 1 Capital, but nonetheless contribute to the overall strength of an ADI and its capacity to absorb losses. The ratio of Total Capital to RWA is called the "Total Capital Ratio".

APRA has confirmed that the Notes will constitute Additional Tier 1 Capital for the purposes of Westpac's regulatory capital requirements.

4.2.2 Regulatory capital requirements

Under APRA's Prudential Standards, Australian ADIs, including Westpac, are required to maintain at least the following minimum ratios of capital to RWA at Level 1 and Level 2:

- 4.5% Common Equity Tier 1 Capital;
- 6% Tier 1 Capital; and
- 8% Total Capital.

APRA may also require ADIs, including Westpac, to meet prudential capital requirements ("PCR") above the minimum capital ratios. APRA does not allow the PCR for individual ADIs to be disclosed.

APRA also requires ADIs to hold an additional buffer of capital above the ADI's minimum capital ratios ("capital buffer"). This must be met with CET1. The capital buffer comprises:

- a capital conservation buffer. The capital conservation buffer for a domestic systemically important bank ("D-SIB") is 3.5% of RWA, unless otherwise determined by APRA. APRA has determined that Westpac is a D-SIB; and
- a countercyclical capital buffer. The countercyclical capital buffer is set on a jurisdictional basis and APRA is responsible for setting the requirement in Australia, currently within a range of 0% to 2.5% of RWA¹. The countercyclical capital buffer requirement is currently set to zero for Australia and New Zealand.

1. ADIs will be notified of any decision to set, or increase, the level of the countercyclical buffer up to 12 months before the date from which it applies.

APRA's Prudential Standards are generally consistent with the international regulatory framework for banks, also known as Basel III, issued by the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision ("BCBS"), except where APRA has exercised certain discretions. On balance, the application of these discretions acts to reduce capital ratios reported under APRA's Prudential Standards relative to the BCBS approach and to those reported in some other jurisdictions.

4.2.3 Capital regulatory developments

Financial System Inquiry's ("FSI") recommendations on bank capital

In 2014, the Australian Government completed a review of the Australian Financial System and recommended that APRA set capital standards such that the capital ratios of Australian ADIs are "unquestionably strong."

On 19 July 2017, APRA released an Information Paper titled, Strengthening banking system resilience – establishing unquestionably strong capital ratios. In its release, APRA concluded that the four major Australian banks, including Westpac, need to have a CET1 Ratio of at least 10.5%, as measured under the existing capital framework to be considered "unquestionably strong". Banks are expected to meet this new benchmark by 1 January 2020.

APRA has indicated that their implementation of capital standards to produce "unquestionably strong capital ratios" will also incorporate changes to the prudential framework resulting from the finalisation of international Basel III reforms in December 2017.

APRA has announced that it intends to release a discussion paper on proposed revisions to the capital framework and, following release of the discussion paper, that it expects to consult on draft prudential standards giving effect to the new framework in 2018, leading to the determination of final prudential standards in 2019. The new framework is anticipated to take effect in early 2021.

Whilst APRA has signalled that its revisions to the capital framework will not necessitate further capital increases for the industry above the 10.5% benchmark, the details of the changes (including at a product level) remain unclear.

Accordingly, these changes may reduce the surplus of CET1 that Westpac currently holds above the PCR and capital buffer as outlined in section 4.2.6.

In addition to the risk based capital ratio, APRA has announced it intends to implement other capital related FSI recommendations including:

- the introduction of a Leverage Ratio that acts as a backstop to ADIs' risk-based capital requirements; and
- the implementation of a framework for additional loss absorbing capacity.

Resolution planning and APRA's crisis management powers

In response to the FSI recommendations, the Australian Government also agreed to further reforms regarding crisis management powers.

In August 2017, Treasury issued draft legislation to strengthen APRA's crisis management powers. This was introduced into Parliament in October 2017 and subsequently referred to the Senate Economics Legislation Committee. The intention of these reforms is to strengthen APRA's powers to facilitate the orderly resolution of an institution so as to protect the interests of depositors and to protect the stability of the financial system. The reforms also enhance APRA's ability to take actions in relation to resolution planning, including measures to ensure regulated entities and their groups are better prepared for resolution.

Macro-prudential regulation

Since December 2014, APRA has made use of macro-prudential measures targeting mortgage lending that continue to impact lending practices in Australia. These measures include limits on investment property lending growth, serviceability assessments, and from March 2017 restrictions on interest only loans and limits on the volume of interest only loans with loan-to-valuation ratios above 80%.

Westpac has implemented a number of steps to comply with these limits.

4.2.4 Capital management strategy

Westpac's approach to capital management seeks to balance the fact that capital is an expensive form of funding with the need to be adequately capitalised as an ADI. Westpac considers the need to balance efficiency, flexibility and adequacy when determining sufficiency of capital and when developing capital management plans. Westpac evaluates these considerations through an Internal Capital Adequacy Assessment Process, the key features of which include:

- the development of a capital management strategy, including consideration of regulatory minimums, capital buffers and contingency plans;
- consideration of both economic and regulatory capital requirements;
- a stress testing framework that challenges the capital measures, coverage and requirements including the impact of adverse economic scenarios; and
- consideration of the perspectives of external stakeholders including rating agencies and equity and debt investors.

Westpac's preferred capital range

In light of APRA's announcement on "unquestionably strong" capital on 19 July 2017, Westpac has ceased to use its preferred range of 8.75% to 9.25% of RWAs for the CET1 Ratio as a guide to managing CET1 levels. Westpac will revise its preferred range for the CET1 Ratio once APRA finalises its review of the capital adequacy framework. In the interim, Westpac will seek to operate with a CET1 Ratio of at least 10.5% in March and September as measured under the existing capital framework. This also takes into consideration:

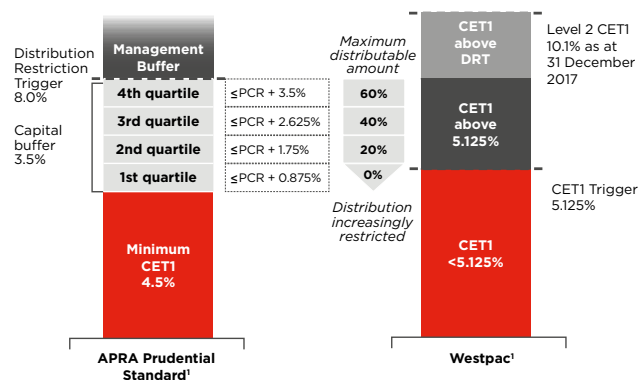

- current regulatory minimums and capital buffers;
- stress testing to calibrate an appropriate buffer against a downturn; and

- quarterly volatility of capital ratios due to the half yearly cycle of dividend payments.

Distribution restrictions

Should an ADI's Level 1 or Level 2 CET1 Ratio fall below the PCR plus the capital buffer ("Distribution Restriction Trigger" or "DRT"), restrictions on the distribution of earnings will apply ("Maximum Distributable Amount"). This includes restrictions on the amount of earnings that can be distributed through dividends, Additional Tier 1 Capital distributions (which will include distribution payments on the Notes) and discretionary staff bonuses ("Tier 1 Capital Distributions"). The Distribution Restriction Trigger is currently 8.0% for D-SIBs, however it may be higher for individual ADIs.

The Maximum Distributable Amount that can be paid as Tier 1 Capital Distributions is limited in accordance with the diagram below which sets out the indicative Distribution Restriction Trigger. Earnings are defined as distributable profits calculated prior to deduction of Tier 1 Capital Distributions on an after tax basis.

An ADI can apply to APRA to make payments in excess of the Maximum Distributable Amount. APRA will only grant approval where it is satisfied that an ADI has established measures to raise capital equal to or greater than the amount above the constraint that it wishes to distribute. The Corporations Act does not limit the sources of payment of Distributions on the Notes to the profits of a particular year or period.

In addition, under the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms, if a Distribution has not been paid in full for a relevant Distribution Payment Date, Westpac must not:

- determine or pay any Dividends on its Ordinary Shares; or
- undertake any discretionary Buy Back or Capital Reduction.

Distributions can be paid in certain limited circumstances.

However, it is expected that Westpac would give priority to the payment of distributions on Additional Tier 1 Capital securities (including Notes) over payments of Dividends and discretionary bonuses so it is not restricted from paying Dividends.

Other Additional Tier 1 Capital securities within the Westpac Group include similar restrictions if distributions on those securities are not paid in full.

1. The Distribution Restriction Trigger is currently 8.0% for D-SIBs, however it may be higher for individual ADIs (including Westpac).

4.2.5 CET1 Ratio

Westpac's reported CET1 Ratio at 31 December 2017 was 9.9% on a Level 1 basis, and 10.1% on a Level 2 basis and these take into account the 2017 final dividend on Ordinary Shares paid on 22 December 2017.

Westpac is well placed to meet APRA's unquestionably strong CET1 benchmark of 10.5% by 2020 as outlined in Section 4.2.3.

4.2.6 CET1 Ratio and the Notes

Under the Terms, the Notes include certain loss absorption features required by APRA, such as Conversion of the Notes into Ordinary Shares or if for any reason Conversion does not occur, the termination of Holders' rights, when Westpac's CET1 Ratio falls to or below a certain threshold – see Sections 2.5.2 and 5.1.6 for a discussion on the Capital Trigger Event. A Capital Trigger Event may occur if Westpac's CET1 Ratio declines to (or falls below) 5.125%, on either a Level 1 or Level 2 basis, as defined by APRA.

The table at the end of this section 4.2.6 shows Westpac's CET1 surplus above the Capital Trigger Event level of 5.125% and Distribution Restriction Trigger of 8.0%. The Distribution Restriction Trigger of 8.0% applies to D-SIBs, however it may be higher for individual ADIs (including Westpac) – see Section 4.2.4.

A CET1 Ratio of 9.9% on a Level 1 basis and 10.1% on a Level 2 basis at 31 December 2017 equates to:

- a surplus of $18.6 billion and $20.4 billion for the Level 1 Westpac Group and Level 2 Westpac Group respectively of CET1 above the Capital Trigger Event level of 5.125%; and
- a surplus of $7.5 billion and $8.6 billion for the Level 1 Westpac Group and Level 2 Westpac Group respectively of CET1 above a Distribution Restriction Trigger of 8.0%.

Differences between Westpac's Level 1 and Level 2 CET1 Ratios relate principally to the level of capital held by, and RWA of, offshore banking subsidiaries. Westpac expects its Level 1 and Level 2 capital ratios to move in a broadly similar way over time, based on Westpac's current capital management policy for Westpac subsidiaries which assumes surplus capital is repatriated from subsidiaries (subject to subsidiary board and overseas regulatory approvals).

Westpac gives no assurance as to what its CET1 Ratio on a Level 1 or Level 2 basis will be at any time as it may be significantly impacted by regulatory changes to the measurement of capital or RWA calculations, and unexpected events affecting its business, operations and financial condition.

CET1 surplus above the Capital Trigger Event and Distribution Restriction Trigger

	Reported 31 March 2017	Reported 30 September 2017	Reported 31 December 2017
Level 1 Westpac Group
Surplus ($bn) above Capital Trigger Event level of 5.125%	18.7	20.2	18.6
Surplus ($bn) above Distribution Restriction Trigger of 8.0%	8.1	9.2	7.5
Level 2 Westpac Group
Surplus ($bn) above Capital Trigger Event level of 5.125%	19.6	22.0	20.4
Surplus ($bn) above Distribution Restriction Trigger of 8.0%	8.0	10.3	8.6

4.3 Funding and liquidity

4.3.1 Funding

The Westpac Group monitors the composition and stability of its funding so that it remains within the Westpac Group's funding risk appetite. This includes targeting greater than 75% of total funding from stable sources. Stable sources include customer deposits, wholesale term funding with residual maturity greater than 12 months, securitisation and equity. Maintaining a diverse funding base with the capacity and flexibility to access a wide range of funding markets, debt investors, currencies, maturities and products is an important part of managing liquidity risk.

4.3.2 Liquidity

The Westpac Group has a liquidity risk management framework which seeks to meet the objective of meeting cash flow obligations under a wide range of market conditions, including name specific and market-wide stress scenarios, as well as meeting the regulatory requirements of the Liquidity Coverage Ratio ("LCR") and Net Stable Funding Ratio ("NSFR").

Liquid Assets

The Westpac Group's liquid asset portfolio includes both high-quality liquid assets ("HQLA") and other securities that are eligible for repurchase with a central bank. In total, Westpac held $137.8 billion in unencumbered liquid assets as at 30 September 2017. At 30 September 2017, the portfolio comprised:

- $72.1 billion of cash, deposits at central banks, government and semi-government bonds;
- $17.8 billion of repo-eligible private securities; and
- $47.9 billion of self-originated AAA rated mortgage backed securities, which are eligible collateral for repurchase agreements with the RBA or the Reserve Bank of New Zealand.

LCR

The LCR requires banks to hold sufficient HQLA, as defined, to withstand 30 days under a regulator-defined acute stress scenario.

Given the limited amount of Government debt in Australia, the RBA, jointly with APRA, makes available to ADIs a Committed Liquidity Facility ("CLF"). Subject to the satisfaction of qualifying conditions, the CLF can be accessed to help meet the LCR requirement. In order to have access to a CLF, ADIs are required to pay a fee of 15 basis points (0.15%) per annum to the RBA on the approved undrawn facility. APRA has approved a CLF allocation for Westpac of $57 billion for the 2018 calendar year.

The Westpac Group's LCR as at 31 December 2017 was 116%.

Net Stable Funding Ratio

The Westpac Group is required to maintain a NSFR, designed to encourage longer-term funding resilience, of at least 100% which came into effect on 1 January 2018. Based on the latest guidance from APRA, Westpac had an estimated NSFR of 110% at 31 December 2017.

4.4 Royal Commission into the banking, superannuation and financial services industries

On 14 December 2017, the Australian Government established a Royal Commission into the alleged misconduct of Australia's banks and other financial services entities. The inquiry will consider a number of matters, including the conduct of banks, insurers, financial services providers and superannuation funds (not including self-managed superannuation funds), and how well equipped regulators are to identify and address misconduct. The inquiry will not inquire into other matters such as financial stability or the resilience of Australia's banks. The Royal Commissioner is required to have regard to the implications of any proposed changes to laws on the general economy, the cost of financial services for consumers, competition in the financial sector and financial system stability.

Under its terms of reference, the Royal Commission will be required to submit its final report by 1 February 2019 (and may provide an interim report by no later than 30 September 2018). The recommendations by, and the adopted outcomes of, the Royal Commission are uncertain and could, either individually or in aggregate with other regulatory action, adversely affect Westpac's business, reputation, prospects, financial performance or financial condition.

Section 5

Investment risks

This Section sets out:

5.1 Investment risks relating to the Westpac Capital Notes 5

5.2 Investment risks relating to Westpac

WARNING - Westpac Capital Notes 5 are not deposit liabilities of Westpac, are riskier than bank deposits and may not be suitable for some investors. Their overall complexity may make them difficult to understand and the risks associated with the Notes could result in the loss of all of your investment. If you do not fully understand how they work or the risks associated with them, you should obtain professional advice.

Before applying for any Notes, you should consider whether the Notes are a suitable investment for you. There are risks associated with an investment in the Notes, many of which are outside the control of Westpac. These risks include those in this Section 5 and other matters referred to in this Prospectus. You should carefully consider the risks described and the other information in this Prospectus before investing in Notes. The risks and uncertainties described below are not the only ones Westpac faces. Additional risks and uncertainties that Westpac is unaware of, or that Westpac currently deems to be immaterial, may also become important factors that affect the Notes or Westpac.

5.1 Investment risks relating to the Westpac Capital Notes 5

Set out in this Section 5.1 are risks associated specifically with an investment in the Notes. In particular, these risks arise from the nature of the Notes and the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms. You should also consider the other risks in Section 5.2 as they relate to Westpac.

5.1.1 Investments in Notes are not deposit liabilities or protected accounts under the Banking Act or Financial Claims Scheme

Investments in Notes are an investment in Westpac and will be affected by the ongoing performance, financial position and solvency of Westpac. They are not deposit liabilities or protected accounts of Westpac for the purposes of the Banking Act or Financial Claims Scheme and are not subject to the depositor protection provisions of Australian banking legislation (including the Australian Government guarantee of certain bank deposits). Therefore, the Notes are not guaranteed or insured by the Australian Government, any government agency or compensation scheme of Australia or any other jurisdiction.

5.1.2 Market price of the Notes may fluctuate

Westpac has applied for quotation of the Notes on ASX, but Westpac is unable to forecast the market price and liquidity of the market for the Notes. The market price for the Notes may fluctuate due to various factors, including:

- Australian and international general conditions (including inflation rates, interest rates and currency exchange rates), changes in government policy, changes in regulatory policy, the expressed views of regulators, investor sentiment and general market movements, which may or may not have an impact on Westpac's actual operating performance;
- operating results of Westpac that vary from expectations of securities analysts and investors;
- changes in expectations as to Westpac's future financial performance, including financial estimates by securities analysts and investors;
- changes in market valuations of other financial services institutions;
- announcement of acquisitions, strategic partnerships, joint ventures or capital commitments by Westpac or its competitors;

1. The Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms do not include any events of default.

- changes in the market price of Ordinary Shares and/or other debt securities or other Capital Securities issued by Westpac or by other issuers, or changes in the supply of equity securities or capital securities issued by Westpac or by other issuers;
- the occurrence or increase in the likelihood of the occurrence of a Capital Trigger Event or a Non-Viability Trigger Event; and
- other major Australian and international events such as hostilities and tensions, and acts of terrorism.

It is possible that the Notes will trade at a market price above or below the Face Value as a result of these and other factors.

5.1.3 The liquidity of the Notes may be low

The market for the Notes will likely be less liquid than the market for Ordinary Shares. Holders who wish to sell their Notes may be unable to do so at an acceptable price, or at all, if insufficient liquidity exists in the market for the Notes.

Westpac does not guarantee the market price or liquidity of the Notes. There is a risk that if Holders sell Notes before the Scheduled Conversion Date, Holders may lose some of the money they have invested.

5.1.4 Distributions may not be paid

Distributions are discretionary and only payable subject to satisfaction of the Distribution Payment Conditions, being:

- Westpac's absolute discretion;
- the payment of Distributions not resulting in a breach of Westpac's capital requirements (on a Level 1 basis) or of the Westpac Group's capital requirements (on a Level 2 basis) under the then current Prudential Standards at the time of payment;
- the payment of Distributions not resulting in Westpac becoming, or being likely to become, insolvent; and
- APRA not otherwise objecting to the payment.

There are restrictions on the amount of earnings that can be distributed through Tier 1 Capital Distributions should an ADI's Level 1 or Level 2 CET1 Ratios fall below the Distribution Restriction Trigger (as more fully described in Section 4.2.4). This may result in a Distribution Payment Condition not being satisfied. Payments of Distributions are non-cumulative. If a Distribution is not paid in full because the Distribution Payment Conditions are not satisfied or because of any other reason, Holders will not be entitled to receive the unpaid portion of that Distribution. No interest accrues on any unpaid Distributions and Westpac has no liability to the Holder and the Holder has no claim in respect of such non-payment.

Non-payment of a Distribution will not be an event of default¹ and Holders have no right to apply for a Winding Up on the grounds of Westpac's failure to pay a Distribution.

However, if a Distribution has not been paid in full for a relevant Distribution Payment Date, then until a Distribution is paid in full on a subsequent Distribution Payment Date (or all Notes are Converted at their full Face Value, Redeemed or terminated following a failure to Convert) Westpac must not:

- determine or pay any Dividends on its Ordinary Shares; or
- undertake any discretionary Buy Back or Capital Reduction, unless the amount of the unpaid Distribution is paid in full within 20 Business Days of the relevant Distribution Payment Date (and in certain other limited circumstances).

However, it is expected that Westpac would give priority to the payment of distributions on Additional Tier 1 Capital securities (including Notes) over payments of Dividends and discretionary bonuses so it is not restricted from paying Dividends.

Further, the terms of Westpac's other outstanding and future securities could limit Westpac's ability to make payments on the Notes. If Westpac does not make payments on other securities, payments may not be permitted to be made in respect of the Notes.

5.1.5 Changes in the Distribution Rate

The Distribution Rate is calculated for each Distribution Period by reference to the relevant 90 day Bank Bill Rate, which is influenced by a number of factors and varies over time. The Distribution Rate will fluctuate and may increase and/or decrease over time with movements in the 90 day Bank Bill Rate.

Refer to the graph in Section 2.1.6 to see the movements in the 90 day Bank Bill Rate over the last 10 years.

As the Distribution Rate fluctuates, there is a risk that the rate may become less attractive when compared to returns available on comparable securities issued by Westpac or other issuers or other investments.

Westpac does not guarantee any particular rate of return on the Notes.

5.1.6 A Capital Trigger Event or a Non-Viability Trigger Event may occur

A Capital Trigger Event occurs when Westpac determines, or APRA notifies Westpac in writing that it believes, that either or both the Westpac Level 1 Common Equity Tier 1 Capital Ratio or Westpac Level 2 Common Equity Tier 1 Capital Ratio is equal to or is less than 5.125%.

The Common Equity Tier 1 Capital Ratio is the ratio of Westpac's Common Equity Tier 1 Capital to its risk weighted assets, where Common Equity Tier 1 Capital comprises the highest quality components of capital.

A Non-Viability Trigger Event occurs when APRA notifies Westpac in writing that it believes:

- Conversion of all or some Notes (or conversion or write down of other capital instruments of the Westpac Group) is necessary because, without it, Westpac would become non-viable; or
- a public sector injection of capital, or equivalent support, is necessary because, without it, Westpac would become non-viable.

It should be noted that whether a Non-Viability Trigger Event will occur is at the discretion of APRA and there are currently no Australian precedents for this. The circumstances in which APRA may exercise its discretion are not limited to when APRA may have a concern about a bank's capital levels but may also include when APRA has a concern about a bank's funding and liquidity levels or any other matters affecting a bank's viability.

APRA has not provided guidance as to how it would determine non-viability. Non-viability could be expected to include serious impairment of Westpac's financial position, concerns about its capital, funding or liquidity levels and/or insolvency. However, it is possible that APRA's definition of non-viability may not necessarily be confined to these matters and APRA's position on these matters may change over time. As the occurrence of a Non-Viability Trigger Event is at the discretion of APRA, there can be no assurance given as to the factors and circumstances that might give rise to such an event.

Refer to Section 4.2.6 for further details regarding the surplus of Common Equity Tier 1 Capital above the Capital Trigger Event level of 5.125%.

Differences between Westpac's Level 1 and Level 2 Common Equity Tier 1 Capital relate principally to the level of capital held by, and risk weighted assets of, offshore banking subsidiaries. Westpac expects its Level 1 and Level 2 capital ratios to move in a broadly similar way over time based on Westpac's current capital management policy for Westpac subsidiaries.

5.1.7 Conversion following a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event

Upon the occurrence of a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event, all or some of the Notes (or a percentage of the Face Value of each Note), will Convert into the Conversion Number of Ordinary Shares based on the VWAP during the 5 Business Days prior to but not including the Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date.

If a Non-Viability Trigger Event occurs because APRA has determined that without a public sector injection of capital, or other public sector support, Westpac would become non-viable, then Westpac must Convert all of the Notes.

Conversion following a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event is not subject to the Scheduled Conversion Conditions being satisfied and Holders will receive the Conversion Number of Ordinary Shares on the Conversion Date, which will not exceed the Maximum Conversion Number.

Maximum Conversion Number

The Conversion Number of Ordinary Shares following a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event is subject to the Maximum Conversion Number. The Maximum Conversion Number of Ordinary Shares following a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event will be calculated based on a VWAP set to reflect 20% of the Issue Date VWAP.

Accordingly, depending upon the Ordinary Share price during the 5 Business Days prior to a Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date, the value of Ordinary Shares received for each Note may (in the case of a Capital Trigger Event) and is likely to (in the case of a Non-Viability Trigger Event) be significantly less than approximately $101.01 for each Note (based on the Initial Face Value of $100 per Note).

The Maximum Conversion Number may be adjusted to reflect a consolidation, division or reclassification, or pro-rata bonus issue, of Ordinary Shares. However, no adjustment will be made to it on account of other transactions which may affect the price of Ordinary Shares, including for example, rights issues, returns of capital, buy-backs or special dividends. The Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms do not limit the transactions that Westpac may undertake with respect to its share capital and any such action may increase the risk that Holders receive only the Maximum Conversion Number and so adversely affect the position of Holders.

Order of Conversion of Relevant Securities

If Westpac is only required to convert a certain amount of Relevant Securities, Westpac will determine the amount of Notes which will be Converted and other Relevant Securities which will be converted or be written down as follows:

- first, Westpac will convert or write down such number or amount of the face value of any other Relevant Securities whose terms require them to be converted or written down before Conversion of the Notes as is necessary to return either or both Westpac's Level 1 Common Equity Tier 1 Capital Ratio or Westpac's Level 2 Common Equity Tier 1 Capital Ratio, as the case may be, to above 5.125% or satisfy APRA that Westpac will no longer be non-viable; and
- second, if conversion or write down of those Relevant Securities is not sufficient, Westpac will Convert the Notes and/or convert or write down other Relevant Securities, on a pro-rata basis or in a manner that is otherwise, in the opinion of Westpac, fair and reasonable, the Face Value of the Notes and the face value of any Relevant Securities whose terms require or permit them to be converted or written down in that manner (subject to such adjustments as Westpac may determine to take into account the effect on marketable parcels and whole numbers of Ordinary Shares and any Notes or Relevant Securities remaining on issue), but such determination will not impede the immediate Conversion of the relevant number of Notes or percentage of the Face Value of each Note (as the case may be), or, if applicable, termination of the relevant Holders' rights and claims.

However, Westpac has no obligation to have or maintain on issue any Relevant Securities (and does not, and may never, have on issue Relevant Securities) which are required to be converted or written down ahead of Notes and Westpac gives no assurance that there will be any such instruments on issue at the time at which the Notes may be required to be Converted.

Further, in Converting Notes or converting or writing-down other Relevant Securities, although Westpac will endeavour to treat Holders and holders of other Relevant Securities on an approximately proportionate basis, Westpac may discriminate to take account of the effect on marketable parcels of Notes and other logistical considerations. Accordingly, should a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event occur and only some of the Notes must be Converted, it is possible that not all Holders will have their Notes Converted into Ordinary Shares.

Westpac expects that any ASX purchase or sale transactions in Notes that have not settled on the date a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event occurs will continue to settle in accordance with the normal ASX T+2 settlement, although Westpac expects that the seller will be treated as having delivered, and the buyer will be treated as having acquired, the number of Ordinary Shares into which the Notes have been Converted as a result of the occurrence of the Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event.

Ordinary Shares

The Ordinary Shares issued on Conversion may not be listed. Westpac's Ordinary Shares may not have been listed for some period of time, for example, if Westpac is acquired by another entity and delisted. The price of Ordinary Shares and the ability to trade them may be affected if not listed.

The Ordinary Shares may not be able to be sold at prices representing their value based on the VWAP. In particular, the VWAP prices will be based on trading days which occur before the Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event.

Ordinary Shares are a different type of investment to the Notes. Like Distributions on the Notes, Dividends are payable at the absolute discretion of Westpac, but, unlike Distributions, Dividends are not scheduled to be paid at any particular time and the amount of each Dividend is also discretionary (and not subject to a formula). In a Winding Up, claims of holders of Ordinary Shares rank behind claims of holders of all other securities and debts of Westpac. The market price of Ordinary Shares may fluctuate and be more sensitive than that of Notes to changes in Westpac's performance, operational issues and other business issues.

5.1.8 Termination of rights where Conversion does not occur following a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event

If for any reason Conversion of Notes does not occur and the Ordinary Shares are not issued for any reason by 5.00pm on the fifth Business Day following a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event, then:

- those Notes will not be Converted in respect of such Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event (as the case may be) and will not be Converted, Redeemed or Transferred on any subsequent date; and
- all rights in relation to those Notes will be terminated immediately on the Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date (as the case may be), and Holders will lose all of the value of their investment in those Notes and they will not receive any compensation or unpaid Distributions.

Conversion of Notes may not occur, for example, due to laws relating to the insolvency, winding-up or other external administration of Westpac, Australian foreign investment laws, the Corporations Act or other applicable laws, an order of a court, an action of any government authority or operational delays. Those delays, laws and the grounds on which a court or government authority may make orders or take action preventing the Conversion of Notes may change and the change may be adverse to the interests of Holders.

5.1.9 Ranking of the Notes

In the event of a Winding Up, if the Notes are still on issue and have not been Redeemed or Converted, they will rank for payment:

- ahead of Ordinary Shares;
- equally with all Equal Ranking Capital Securities which at the Issue Date, would include Westpac CPS, Westpac Capital Notes, Westpac Capital Notes 2, Westpac Capital Notes 3, Westpac Capital Notes 4 and Westpac USD AT1 Securities; and
- behind Senior Creditors.

If, in a Winding Up, the Notes have not been Converted, Redeemed, or Transferred, Holders will be entitled to be paid the Liquidation Sum at the commencement of the Winding Up (or if less actual cash is available to Westpac for distribution to Holders, a proportionate share of that cash). The Liquidation Sum is an amount of surplus assets equal to $100 per Note (as adjusted for a Conversion under clauses 5.2 or 5.4 of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms or termination of rights under clause 5.8 of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms).

The claim for the Liquidation Sum effectively ranks equally with Equal Ranking Capital Securities, but is subordinated to Senior Creditors. As the Notes rank after Senior Creditors, there is a risk that in the Winding Up, there will be insufficient funds to provide to Holders any return of their initial investment.

However it is likely that any Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event would occur prior to a Winding Up, requiring the Conversion of the Notes.

Where a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event occurs, the ranking of Notes in a Winding Up will be adversely affected.

If the Notes have been Converted (including upon the occurrence of a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event), Holders will hold Ordinary Shares and rank equally with other holders of Ordinary Shares in a Winding Up.

If for any reason Conversion of Notes does not occur following one of these events (for example due to laws relating to the insolvency, winding-up or other external administration of Westpac, Australian foreign investment laws, the Corporations Act or other applicable laws, an order of a court, an action of any government authority or operational delays) and the Ordinary Shares are not issued for any reason by 5.00pm on the fifth Business Day following such an event, then:

- those Notes will not be Converted in respect of such Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event (as the case may be) and will not be Converted, Redeemed or Transferred on any subsequent date; and
- all rights in relation to those Notes will be terminated immediately on the Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date (as the case may be), and Holders will lose all of the value of their investment in those Notes and they will not receive any compensation or unpaid Distributions. In these circumstances, those Notes will have no ranking in a Winding Up.

5.1.10 Changes to credit rating

Any credit rating assigned to the Notes or other Westpac securities could be reviewed, suspended, withdrawn or downgraded. Credit rating agencies may withdraw, revise or suspend credit ratings or change the methodology by which securities are rated at any time. Any revisions and any other changes could adversely affect the market price and liquidity of the Notes or other Westpac securities.

5.1.11 The Ordinary Share price used to calculate the Conversion Number of Ordinary Shares may be different to the market price of Ordinary Shares at the time of Conversion

The number of Ordinary Shares issued to Holders upon Conversion will depend on the average of the daily VWAP of Ordinary Shares over the 20 Business Days on which trading in Ordinary Shares took place immediately prior to the relevant Conversion Date (or in the case of a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event, the average of the daily VWAP over 5 Business Days prior to the Conversion Date). Accordingly, the Ordinary Share price used to calculate the Conversion Number of Ordinary Shares may be different to the market price of Ordinary Shares at the time of Conversion so that the value of Ordinary Shares Holders receive may be less than the value of those Ordinary Shares based on the Ordinary Share price on the Conversion Date.

Holders receiving Ordinary Shares on Conversion may not be able to sell those Ordinary Shares at the price on which the Conversion calculation is based, or at all.

5.1.12 Holders cannot request Conversion, Redemption or Transfer of the Notes

Holders have no right to request Conversion, Redemption or Transfer of the Notes for any reason. Therefore, to realise their investment Holders would have to sell their Notes on ASX at the prevailing market price. Depending on market conditions at the time, the Notes may be trading at a market price below the Face Value and/or the market for the Notes may not be liquid. Brokerage fees may also be payable if Notes are sold through a broker. Westpac does not guarantee that Holders will be able to sell Notes on ASX at an acceptable price or at all.

5.1.13 Conversion may or may not occur on 22 September 2027

The Notes may Convert into Ordinary Shares on 22 September 2027, being the first possible Scheduled Conversion Date. However, there is a risk that Conversion will not occur on 22 September 2027 because the Scheduled Conversion Conditions are not satisfied – see Sections 2.2.3 and 2.2.5. The Scheduled Conversion Conditions will not be satisfied if the VWAP of Ordinary Shares on the 25th Business Day on which trading in Ordinary Shares took place before (but not including) the Scheduled Conversion Date is less than or equal to 56.12% of the Issue Date VWAP, or the VWAP of Ordinary Shares during the period of 20 Business Days on which trading in Ordinary Shares took place before (but not including) the Scheduled Conversion Date is less than or equal to 50.51% of the Issue Date VWAP.

If Conversion does not occur on a potential Scheduled Conversion Date, Distributions will continue to be paid on the Notes, subject to the Distribution Payment Conditions.

The Notes are perpetual instruments. If the Ordinary Share price deteriorates significantly and never recovers, it is possible that the Scheduled Conversion Conditions will never be satisfied and, if this occurs, the Notes may never Convert.

5.1.14 Westpac may initiate Conversion, Redemption or Transfer of Notes

Westpac may initiate Conversion, Redemption (subject to APRA's prior written approval) or Transfer:

- of some or all of the Notes on 22 September 2025; or
- of all (but not some) of the Notes following the occurrence of a Tax Event or Regulatory Event.

If Westpac elects to Redeem Notes, APRA's prior written approval is required. There can be no certainty that APRA will provide its prior written approval. Westpac may only Redeem Notes if it replaces them with capital of the same or better quality (and the replacement is done under conditions that are sustainable for the income capacity of Westpac) or obtains confirmation that APRA is satisfied that Westpac does not have to replace the Notes.

Holders have no right to request or require a Conversion, Redemption or Transfer of their Notes.

Any Conversion, Redemption or Transfer may occur on dates not previously contemplated by Holders, which may be disadvantageous in light of market conditions or Holders' individual circumstances. This means that the period for which Holders will be entitled to the benefit of the rights attaching to the Notes is unknown.

Where Holders receive cash on Redemption or Transfer, the rate of return at which Holders could reinvest their funds may be lower than the Distribution Rate at the time. Further, upon Redemption, Holders will receive the Face Value of the Notes which may be less than their market value immediately prior to Redemption.

5.1.15 Westpac may issue a Transfer Notice requiring the Transfer of Notes to a Nominated Party

Westpac may elect to issue a Transfer Notice, requiring all or some Notes (in the case of a Transfer on 22 September 2025) or all (but not some) Notes (in the case of a Tax Event or Regulatory Event) to be Transferred to a Nominated Party for a cash amount per Note equal to the Face Value.

Upon a Transfer of Notes (in the circumstances described in Section 5.1.14), it will be the Nominated Party's obligation to pay the aggregate Face Value of the Notes being Transferred, not Westpac's. If the Nominated Party does not pay this amount to Holders, the Transfer will not proceed, in which case Holders will continue to hold Notes in accordance with the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms.

Where Holders receive cash pursuant to a Transfer, the rate of return at which Holders could reinvest their funds may be lower than the Distribution Rate at the time.

5.1.16 No fixed maturity date

The Notes are perpetual instruments. The Notes may Convert on a potential Scheduled Conversion Date, but it is possible that market conditions at the time may be such that the Scheduled Conversion Conditions are not satisfied. If the Ordinary Share price falls far enough and never recovers it is possible that the Notes will not Convert at any point in time. Furthermore, any Optional Conversion, Redemption or Transfer is subject to the discretion of Westpac and certain other restrictions. Redemption is also subject to obtaining APRA's prior written approval. It is possible that Optional Conversion, Redemption or Transfer will not occur at any point in time.

5.1.17 Changes to regulatory capital requirements in Australia

Any fall in Westpac's Common Equity Tier 1 Capital Ratio as a result of future changes to regulatory capital requirements may adversely impact the market price of the Notes or potentially increase the chance at a later date that Conversion of Notes takes place due to the occurrence of a Capital Trigger Event (a Capital Trigger Event will occur where Westpac determines, or APRA notifies Westpac in writing that it believes, that Westpac's Common Equity Tier 1 Capital Ratio is equal to or less than 5.125% on a Level 1 or Level 2 basis) or a Non-Viability Trigger Event (a Non-Viability Trigger Event will occur where APRA notifies Westpac in writing that it believes Conversion of some or all of the Notes or conversion or write down of capital instruments of the Westpac Group or a public sector injection of capital, or equivalent support, is necessary because, without it, Westpac would become non-viable).

See Section 5.1.7 for the risk associated with Conversion of the Notes due to the occurrence of a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event.

See Sections 4.2.1 and 4.2.2 for more information about the Basel III capital framework and proposed changes to regulatory capital requirements.

5.1.18 Regulatory classification

APRA has confirmed that the Notes will be eligible for inclusion as Additional Tier 1 Capital under APRA's Prudential Standard APS 111.

However, if APRA subsequently determines that the Notes do not or will not qualify for Additional Tier 1 Capital treatment (under the Basel III capital adequacy framework, as amended from time to time), Westpac may decide that a Regulatory Event has occurred and may elect to Convert, Redeem (subject to APRA's prior written approval) or Transfer the Notes – see Sections 2.3 and 2.4.

A Regulatory Event may also occur as a result of other regulatory changes. See Section 2.3.3 for information on what constitutes a Regulatory Event, and Section 5.2.1 for risks associated with regulation for Westpac generally.

5.1.19 Taxation treatment

A general description of the Australian taxation consequences of investing in the Notes is set out in Section 6. The information in Section 6 is provided in general terms and is not intended to provide specific advice in relation to the circumstances of any particular potential investor or Holder. Accordingly, you should seek independent advice in relation to your individual tax position before you choose to apply for or invest in the Notes.

A Tax Event will occur if Westpac determines, after receiving a supporting opinion of reputable legal counsel or other tax adviser in Australia experienced in such matters, that (as a result of a Change of Law), there is a more than insubstantial risk that:

- Westpac would be exposed to a more than de minimis adverse tax consequence or increased cost in relation to the Notes; or
- any Distribution would not be a frankable distribution within the meaning of Division 202 of the Tax Act.

In each of those situations, the risk may itself be a Tax Event, even before the cost or adverse tax consequence is incurred or the Distribution ceases to be frankable. If a Tax Event occurs, Westpac may Convert, Redeem or Transfer the Notes (subject to the conditions contained in the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms, including that Westpac has obtained a supporting opinion of reputable legal counsel or other tax adviser, experienced in such matters, in relation to the Tax Event – see Section 2.3.2).

5.1.20 Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (“FATCA”) withholding and reporting

In order to comply with FATCA, Westpac (or, if Notes are held through another financial institution, such other financial institution) may be required (pursuant to an agreement with the United States or under applicable law including pursuant to the terms of an applicable intergovernmental agreement entered into between the United States and any other jurisdiction) (i) to request certain information from Holders or beneficial owners of Notes, which information may be provided to the US Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”), and (ii) to withhold tax on some portion of payments made after 31 December 2018 with respect to Notes if such information is not provided or if payments are made to certain foreign financial institutions that have not entered into a similar agreement with the United States (and are not otherwise required to comply with the FATCA regime under applicable law including pursuant to the terms of an applicable intergovernmental agreement entered into between the United States and any other jurisdiction).

If Westpac or any other person is required to withhold amounts under or in connection with FATCA from any payments made with respect to Notes or with respect to the issuance of any Ordinary Shares upon any Conversion, Holders and beneficial owners of Notes, and holders of Ordinary Shares issued upon any Conversion will not be entitled to receive any gross up or additional amounts to compensate them for such withholdings. FATCA is complex and its application to the Notes remains uncertain. Prospective investors are advised to consult their own tax advisers about the application of FATCA to the Notes.

This information is based on guidance issued by the IRS or other relevant tax authority as at the date of this Prospectus. Future guidance may affect the application of FATCA to Westpac, Holders or beneficial owners of Notes or Ordinary Shares.

5.1.21 Provision of information and certifications pursuant to Common Reporting Standard compliance requirements

The Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development’s Common Reporting Standard for Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information (“CRS”) will require certain financial institutions to report information regarding certain accounts (which may include the Notes) to their local tax authority and follow related due diligence procedures. A jurisdiction that has signed the CRS Competent Authority Agreement may provide this information to other jurisdictions that have signed the CRS Competent Authority Agreement. Australia enacted legislation to give effect to the CRS from 1 July 2017 (with the government to government exchange of information to take place by 30 September 2018). Therefore, Holders may be requested to provide certain information and certifications to ensure compliance with the CRS and this information may be provided to the ATO and, potentially, other taxing authorities in other jurisdictions outside Australia.

5.1.22 Powers of an ADI statutory manager

In certain circumstances APRA may appoint a statutory manager to take control of the business of an ADI, such as Westpac. Those circumstances are defined in the Banking Act to include:

- where the ADI informs APRA that it considers it is likely to become unable to meet its obligations, or is about to suspend payment;
- where APRA considers that, in the absence of external support:
 - the ADI may become unable to meet its obligations;
 - the ADI may suspend payment;
 - it is likely that the ADI will be unable to carry on banking business in Australia consistently with the interests of its depositors; or
 - it is likely that the ADI will be unable to carry on banking business in Australia consistently with the stability of the financial system in Australia;
- the ADI becomes unable to meet its obligations or suspends payment; or
- where, in certain circumstances, the ADI is in default of compliance with a direction by APRA to comply with the Banking Act or regulations made under it and the Federal Court of Australia authorises APRA to assume control of the ADI’s business.

The powers of an ADI statutory manager include the power to alter an ADI’s constitution, to issue, cancel or sell shares (or rights to acquire shares) in the ADI and to vary or cancel rights or restrictions attached to shares in a class of shares in the ADI. The ADI statutory manager is authorised to do so despite the Corporations Act, the ADI’s constitution, any contract or arrangement to which the ADI is party or the ASX Listing Rules. In the event that a statutory manager is appointed to Westpac in the future, these broad powers of an ADI statutory manager may be exercised in a way which adversely affects the rights attaching to the Notes and the position of Holders.

5.1.23 Future issues of debt or other securities by Westpac

Westpac and members of the Westpac Group may, at their absolute discretion, issue securities in the future that:

- rank for distribution or payment of capital (including in the Winding Up of Westpac or another member of the Westpac Group) equally with, behind or ahead of the Notes; or
- have the same or different dividend, interest or distribution rates as the Notes; or
- have the same or different terms and conditions as the Notes.

Any issue of other securities may affect Holders' ability to recover the Liquidation Sum due to Holders on a Winding Up, if the Notes are on issue at the time.

The Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms do not require Westpac to refrain from certain business changes or require Westpac to operate within certain ratio limits.

An investment in Notes carries no right to participate in any future issue of securities (whether equity, hybrid, debt or otherwise) by any member of the Westpac Group.

No prediction can be made as to the effect, if any, such future issues of debt or other securities by an entity in the Westpac Group may have on the market price or liquidity of the Notes.

5.1.24 Successor holding company

Where Westpac is replaced as the ultimate holding company of the Westpac Group by an Approved Successor and certain other conditions are satisfied, Conversion of Notes will not be triggered but Westpac may be allowed to instead make amendments (provided APRA's prior written approval is obtained) to substitute the Approved Successor as the debtor in respect of the Notes and as the issuer in respect of the ordinary shares issued on Conversion and to make certain other amendments to the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms. Accordingly, potential investors should be aware that, if:

- Westpac is replaced by an Approved Successor as the ultimate holding company of the Westpac Group; and
- a substitution of the Approved Successor as the debtor in respect of the Notes and the issuer of the ordinary shares on Conversion is effected under the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms,

Holders will be obliged to accept Approved Successor Shares and will not receive Ordinary Shares on Conversion.

Potential investors should also be aware that Holders may not have a right to vote on any proposal to approve, implement or give effect to the establishment of an Approved Successor.

Westpac has not made any decision to substitute an Approved Successor as the ultimate holding company of the Westpac Group.

Where Westpac transfers only some of its assets to an Approved Successor, the Approved Successor may as a result have reduced assets which may affect its credit rating and the likelihood Holders will receive their claims in full in a Winding Up.

There is also a risk that the establishment of a successor holding company that is not an Approved Successor is treated as an Acquisition Event, leading to the Conversion of the Notes. Further, if the establishment of a successor holding company is treated as an Acquisition Event and Conversion does not occur, a number of different risks may arise for Holders, including that Westpac may be assigned a different credit rating and its financial position may be materially altered thereby adversely affecting its ability to pay Distributions.

5.1.25 Amendment of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms

Westpac may, with APRA's prior written approval where required and subject to compliance with applicable laws, amend the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms without the approval of Holders. This includes an amendment which, in Westpac's opinion, is:

- of a formal, minor or technical nature;
- made to cure ambiguities and manifest errors;
- necessary to give effect to the listing of the Notes on any stock exchange (and is not considered by Westpac to be materially prejudicial to the interest of Holders as a whole) or to comply with applicable laws; or
- generally not materially prejudicial to the interest of Holders as a whole.

Westpac may also amend the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms, with APRA's prior written approval, if the amendment has been approved by a Special Resolution of Holders or is necessary to effect the substitution of an Approved Successor as the debtor in respect of the Notes and the issuer of ordinary shares on Conversion.

Amendments under these powers are binding on all Holders despite the fact that a Holder may not agree with the amendment.

APRA's prior written approval to amend the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms is always required where the amendment would impact, or potentially impact, the classification of the Notes as Additional Tier 1 Capital on a Level 1 or Level 2 basis.

5.1.26 No rights if control of Westpac is acquired

If a person other than an Approved Successor acquires control of Westpac, the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms do not provide any right or remedy for the Holders on account of such an acquisition occurring except where the acquisition constitutes an Acquisition Event. Further, such an acquisition of Westpac may result in Westpac's Ordinary Shares no longer being quoted on ASX.

If after such an acquisition has occurred a Non-Viability Trigger Event occurs, the number of Ordinary Shares issued on Conversion will reflect the VWAP for the period of 5 Business Days on which the Ordinary Shares were last traded on ASX. The period of 5 Business Days may be well before the Non-Viability Trigger Event and, accordingly, the value of the Conversion Number of Ordinary Shares when issued may be very different from the value based on the VWAP used to determine the Conversion Number. This may adversely affect the value of the Ordinary Shares which are issued to Holders upon Conversion and such Ordinary Shares may not be freely tradable.

5.2 Investment risks relating to Westpac

Set out in this Section 5.2 are specific risks associated with an investment in Westpac. Westpac's business is subject to risks that can adversely impact its business, reputation, financial performance, financial condition and future performance. These risks are relevant to an investment in Notes and Ordinary Shares as the value of such an investment in Notes will depend on Westpac's financial condition and future performance, regardless of when or if the Notes are Converted, Redeemed, Transferred or, in the event of a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event, terminated. If any of the following risks occur, Westpac's business, prospects, reputation, financial performance or financial condition could be materially adversely affected, and the likelihood of a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event may increase, with the result that the trading price of Westpac's securities could decline and as a Holder you could lose all, or part, of your investment.

5.2.1 Westpac's businesses are highly regulated and it could be adversely affected by changes in laws, regulations or regulatory policy

As a financial institution, Westpac is subject to detailed laws and regulations in each of the jurisdictions in which Westpac operates or obtains funding, including Australia, New Zealand, the United Kingdom, the United States and various jurisdictions in Asia. Westpac is also supervised by a number of different regulatory and supervisory authorities which have broad administrative powers over Westpac's businesses. In Australia, the relevant regulatory authorities include the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority ("APRA"), Reserve Bank of Australia ("RBA"), Australian Securities and Investments Commission ("ASIC"), Australian Securities Exchange ("ASX"), Australian Competition and Consumer Commission ("ACCC"), the Australian Transaction Reports and Analysis Centre ("AUSTRAC") and the Australian Taxation Office ("ATO"). The Reserve Bank of New Zealand ("RBNZ") and the Financial Markets Authority ("FMA") have supervisory oversight of Westpac's New Zealand operations. In the United States, Westpac is subject to supervision and regulation by the US Office of the Comptroller of the Currency ("OCC"), the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("CFTC") and the US Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). In the United Kingdom, Westpac is subject to supervision and regulation by the Financial Conduct Authority ("FCA") and the Prudential Regulation Authority ("PRA"). In Asia, Westpac is subject to supervision and regulation by local authorities, including the Monetary Authority of Singapore ("MAS"), the China Banking Regulatory Commission ("CBRC") and the Hong Kong Monetary Authority ("HKMA"). In other jurisdictions in which Westpac operates, including various Pacific countries, Westpac is also required to comply with relevant requirements of the local regulatory bodies.

The Westpac Group's business, reputation, prospects, financial performance and financial condition could all be affected by changes to law and regulation, changes to policies and changes in the supervisory activities of Westpac's regulators.

As with other financial services providers, Westpac faces increasing supervision and regulation in most of the jurisdictions in which Westpac operates or obtains funding particularly in the areas of funding, liquidity, capital adequacy, tax, anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing, conduct, competition and consumer protection (including in the design and distribution of financial products), remuneration, privacy, data access, prudential regulation, anti-bribery and corruption, and economic and trade sanctions.

Regulatory changes could impact Westpac in a number of ways. For example, new regulation could require Westpac to have increased levels of liquidity and higher levels of, and better quality, capital and funding. Regulatory change could also result in restrictions on how Westpac operates its business by imposing restrictions on the types of businesses Westpac can conduct, require Westpac or Westpac's competitors to change its business models or require Westpac to amend its corporate structure.

If regulatory change has any such effect, it could adversely affect one or more of Westpac's businesses, restrict its flexibility, require it to incur substantial costs and could impact the profitability of one or more of its business lines. Any such costs or restrictions could adversely affect its business, prospects, financial performance or financial condition.

Regulation may also affect how Westpac provides products and services to its customers. New laws and regulations could restrict Westpac's ability to provide products and services to certain customers (including by imposing regulatory limits on certain types of lending and on lending to certain customer segments), require it to alter its product and service offerings and restrict its ability to set prices for certain products and services. These types of changes could affect Westpac's profitability by adversely affecting its ability to maintain or increase margins and fees. This could occur because a regulation seeks to place a cap on the price of a product or service Westpac provides, or because, in response to new regulation, Westpac increases the price it charges for a product or service. This price increase could lead to customers seeking out alternative products or services, whether within the Westpac Group or with a competitor (including customers switching residential mortgages from interest-only to principal and interest).

There are numerous sources of regulatory change that could affect Westpac's business. In some cases, changes to regulation are driven by international bodies. For example, in December 2010, the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision ("BCBS") announced a revised global regulatory framework known as Basel III. Basel III, among other things, increased the required quality and quantity of capital held by banks and introduced new standards for the management of liquidity risk. The BCBS continues to refine this framework, while, in July 2017, APRA took steps to implement the next wave of capital requirements for banks by clarifying its expectations for banks to hold "unquestionably strong" levels of capital. In other cases, authorities in the various jurisdictions in which Westpac operates or obtains funding may propose regulatory change for financial institutions. Examples of proposed regulatory change that could impact Westpac include changes to accounting and reporting standards, derivatives reform and changes to tax legislation (including dividend imputation).

Further changes may occur driven by policy, prudential or political factors. Westpac is currently operating in an environment where there is increased political scrutiny of the Australian financial services sector. This environment has served to increase the pace and scope of regulatory change. For example, as part of the Federal Government's 2017 Budget, a series of reforms impacting the banking sector were announced, including the introduction of the Bank Executive Accountability Regime (BEAR) and a new levy on ADIs with liabilities of at least A$100 billion.

Legislation introduced in one jurisdiction may lead to other governments seeking to introduce similar legislation in their jurisdiction. This was demonstrated by the South Australian Government's proposal to introduce a levy on the banks that are subject to the Federal Government's Bank Levy. While the South Australian Government has announced that it will not proceed with the proposed South Australian levy, it is possible that other governments may attempt to introduce their own version of the Bank Levy or similar legislation in the future.

As part of the heightened political scrutiny on the financial services sector, the Australian Government, other regulators and parliamentary bodies are increasingly initiating reviews and inquiries (such as the recently announced Royal Commission into the alleged misconduct of Australia's banks and other financial services entities, the Financial System Inquiry, the House of Representatives Standing Committee on Economics' ongoing 'Review of Australia's Four Major Banks' and the Senate Economics References Committee's inquiry into consumer protection in the banking, insurance and financial sector, the Productivity Commission Inquiry into Competition in the Australian Financial System and the ACCC inquiry into residential mortgage pricing). These reviews and commissions of inquiry could lead to substantial regulatory change or investigations, which could have a material impact on Westpac's business, prospects, financial performance or financial condition.

It is also possible that governments or regulators in jurisdictions in which Westpac operates or obtains funding might revise their application of existing regulatory policies that apply to, or impact, Westpac's business (including by instituting macro-prudential limits on lending). Regulators or governments may take this action for a variety of reasons, including for reasons relating to national interest and/or systemic stability.

Regulatory changes and the timing of their introduction continue to evolve and Westpac manages its businesses in the context of regulatory uncertainty and complexity. The nature and impact of future changes are not predictable and are beyond Westpac's control. Regulatory compliance and the management of regulatory change are an important part of Westpac's planning processes. Westpac expects that it will be required to continue to invest significantly in compliance and the management and implementation of regulatory change and, at the same time, significant management attention and resources will be required to update existing, or implement new, processes to comply with new regulations. Furthermore, the challenge in managing regulatory change may be heightened by multiple jurisdictions seeking to adopt a coordinated approach to the introduction of new regulations. Where these jurisdictions elect not to adopt regulation in a uniform manner across each jurisdiction, this may result in conflicts between the specific requirements of the different jurisdictions in which Westpac operates.

5.2.2 Westpac's businesses are highly regulated and Westpac could be adversely affected by failing to comply with laws, regulations or regulatory policy

Westpac is responsible for ensuring that it complies with all applicable legal and regulatory requirements (including accounting standards) and industry codes of practice in the jurisdictions in which it operates or obtains funding, as well as meeting its ethical standards.

The Westpac Group is subject to compliance risk, which is the risk of legal or regulatory sanction or financial or reputational loss, arising from Westpac's failure to abide by the compliance obligations required of Westpac. This risk is exacerbated by the increasing complexity and volume of global regulation. Compliance risk can also arise where Westpac interprets its regulatory obligations, compliance requirements and rights (including tax incentives) differently to Westpac's regulators or a court.

The Westpac Group's failure, or suspected failure, to comply with a compliance obligation could lead to a regulator commencing an investigation into the Westpac Group or taking other administrative or enforcement action against Westpac. In addition, the failure or alleged failure of Westpac's competitors to comply with their compliance obligations could lead to increased regulatory scrutiny across the financial services sector.

In many cases, Westpac's regulators have broad administrative and enforcement powers. For example, under the Banking Act, APRA can, in certain circumstances, investigate Westpac's affairs and/or issue a direction to Westpac (such as a direction to comply with a prudential requirement, to conduct an audit, to remove a Director, executive officer or employee or not to undertake transactions). Other regulators also have the power to investigate, including looking into past conduct.

The powers exercisable by Westpac's regulators may also be expanded in the future. For example, the Australian Government has consulted on a proposal to provide ASIC with a product intervention power and has also consulted on expanding ASIC's powers to ban individuals working in the financial services sector.

Changes may also occur in the oversight approach of regulators which could result in a regulator exercising its enforcement powers rather than adopting a more consultative approach.

In recent years, there have been significant increases in the nature and scale of regulatory investigations, enforcement actions and the quantum of fines issued by global regulators. The nature of regulatory activity can be wide-ranging and may result in litigation, fines, penalties, reputational damage, revocation, suspension or variation of conditions of relevant regulatory licences (including potentially requiring Westpac to change or adjust its business model) or other enforcement or administrative action or agreements (such as enforceable undertakings).

For example:

- In April 2016, ASIC commenced civil proceedings against Westpac in the Federal Court of Australia, alleging certain misconduct in relation to the setting of the BBSW in the period April 2010 to June 2012, including market manipulation and unconscionable conduct. Westpac is defending the proceedings;
- On 1 March 2017, ASIC commenced civil proceedings against Westpac in the Federal Court of Australia in relation to certain home loan responsible lending practices (including interest only lending). Westpac is defending the proceedings; and
- On 15 March 2017, Westpac entered into an enforceable undertaking with ASIC following ASIC's industry-wide investigation into wholesale Spot Foreign Exchange (FX) trading activity between January 2008 and June 2013. As part of the enforceable undertaking, Westpac undertook, amongst other things, to continue to progress its program of strengthening its policies and processes in its Spot FX trading business, with input from an independent expert.

Furthermore, regulatory activity may result in Westpac being exposed to the risk of litigation brought by third parties (including through class action proceedings). The outcome of such litigation (including class action proceedings) may be payment of compensation to third parties and/or further remediation activities. In addition, action taken in one jurisdiction may prompt similar action to be taken in another jurisdiction.

During the year ended 30 September 2017, Westpac has responded to requirements, compulsory notices and requests for information from its regulators as part of both industry-wide and Westpac-specific reviews, including in relation to matters involving sales practices, responsible lending, reverse mortgages, interest only loans, the provision of financial advice and ongoing advice service fees.

Regulatory investigations, litigation, fines, penalties, revocation, suspension or variation of conditions of relevant regulatory licences or other enforcement or administrative action or agreements (such as enforceable undertakings) could, either individually or in aggregate with other regulatory action, adversely affect Westpac's business, reputation, prospects, financial performance or financial condition.

5.2.3 The failure to comply with financial crime obligations could have an adverse effect on Westpac's business and reputation

The Westpac Group is subject to anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing laws, anti-bribery and corruption laws and economic and trade sanctions laws in the jurisdictions in which it operates. These laws can be complex, and are undergoing change in a number of jurisdictions. Furthermore, in recent years there has been increased focus on compliance with these obligations, with regulators around the globe commencing large-scale investigations and taking enforcement action where they have identified non-compliance (often seeking significant monetary penalties).

While the Westpac Group has systems, policies, processes and controls in place that are designed to manage its financial crime obligations, these may not always be effective. If Westpac fails to comply with these obligations, it could face regulatory action such as litigation, fines, penalties and the revocation, suspension or variation of licence conditions. Non-compliance could also lead to litigation commenced by third parties (including class action proceedings) and cause reputational damage. These actions could, either individually or in aggregate, adversely affect Westpac's business, reputation, prospects, financial performance or financial condition.

5.2.4 Reputational damage could harm Westpac's business and prospects

Westpac's ability to attract and retain customers and its prospects could be adversely affected if Westpac's reputation is damaged.

Reputation risk is the risk of loss of reputation, stakeholder confidence or public trust and standing. It arises where there are differences between stakeholders' current and emerging perceptions, beliefs and expectations and Westpac's current and planned activities, processes, performance and behaviours.

During the full year ended 30 September 2017, Westpac commenced a broader program to reduce complexity and resolve prior issues that have the potential to impact customers and reputation. As part of these reviews, Westpac is strengthening its processes and controls in certain businesses and it has identified some prior instances where it is now taking action to put things right so that Westpac's customers are not at a disadvantage from certain past practices.

There are various potential sources of reputational damage, including failure to effectively manage risks in accordance with Westpac's risk management frameworks, potential conflicts of interest, failure to comply with legal and regulatory requirements, failure to meet Westpac's market disclosure obligations, regulatory investigations into past conduct, adverse findings from regulatory reviews (including Westpac-specific and industry-wide reviews), making inaccurate public statements, environmental, social and ethical issues, engagement and conduct of external suppliers, failure to comply with anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing laws, anti-bribery and corruption laws, economic and trade sanctions legislation or privacy laws, litigation, failure of information security systems, improper sales and trading practices, failure to comply with personnel and supplier policies, improper conduct of companies in which Westpac holds strategic investments, technology failures and security breaches and inadequate record keeping which may prevent Westpac from demonstrating that a past decision was appropriate at the time it was made.

Westpac may incur reputational damage where one of its practices fails to meet evolving community expectations. As these expectations may exceed the standard required in order to comply with the law, Westpac may incur reputational damage even where it has met its legal obligations. A divergence between community expectations and Westpac's practices could arise in a number of ways, including in relation to Westpac's product and services disclosure practices, the features and benefits available under Westpac's products, pricing policies and use of data. Westpac's reputation could also be adversely affected by the actions of the financial services industry in general or from the actions of its competitors, customers, suppliers and other counterparties. Furthermore, the risk of reputational damage may be heightened by the increasing use of social media.

Failure, or perceived failure, to appropriately address issues that could or do give rise to reputational risk could also impact the regulatory change agenda, give rise to additional legal risk, subject Westpac to regulatory investigations, regulatory enforcement actions, fines and penalties or litigation brought by third parties (including class actions), require Westpac to remediate and compensate customers and incur remediation costs or harm Westpac's reputation among customers, investors and the marketplace. This could lead to loss of business which could adversely affect Westpac's business, prospects, financial performance or financial condition.

5.2.5 Westpac could suffer information security risks, including cyberattacks

The proliferation of new technologies, the increasing use of the internet and telecommunications to conduct financial transactions and the growing sophistication and activities of attackers (including organised crime and state-sponsored actors) have resulted in increased information security risks for major financial institutions such as Westpac and Westpac's external service providers.

While Westpac has systems in place to protect against, detect and respond to cyberattacks, these systems may not always be effective and there can be no assurance that Westpac will not suffer losses from cyberattacks or other information security breaches in the future.

Westpac's operations rely on the secure processing, storage and transmission of information on its computer systems and networks, and the systems and networks of external suppliers. Although Westpac implements measures to protect the security, integrity and confidentiality of its information, there is a risk that the computer systems, software and networks on which Westpac relies may be subject to security breaches, unauthorised access, malicious software, external attacks or internal breaches that could have an adverse impact on Westpac's confidential information or that of its customers and counterparties.

Major banks in other jurisdictions have suffered security breaches from sophisticated cyberattacks. Westpac's external service providers or other parties that facilitate its business activities (such as vendors, exchanges, clearing houses, central depositories and financial intermediaries) are also subject to the risk of cyberattacks. Any such security breach could result in the loss of customers and business opportunities, significant disruption to Westpac's operations, misappropriation of Westpac's confidential information and/or that of Westpac's customers and damage to Westpac's computers or systems and/or those of Westpac's customers. Such a security breach could also result in reputational damage, claims for compensation and regulatory investigations and penalties, which could adversely affect Westpac's business, prospects, financial performance, or financial condition.

Westpac's risk and exposure to such threats remains heightened because of the evolving nature of technology, Westpac's prominence within the financial services industry, the prominence of Westpac customers (including government, mining and health) and Westpac's plans to continue to improve and expand its internet and mobile banking infrastructure.

5.2.6 Westpac could suffer losses due to technology failures

The reliability, integrity and security of Westpac's information and technology is crucial in supporting its customers' banking requirements and meeting compliance obligations and Westpac's regulators' expectations.

While the Westpac Group has a number of processes in place to provide for and monitor the availability and recovery of Westpac systems, there is a risk that Westpac's information and technology systems might fail to operate properly or become disabled as a result of events that are wholly or partially beyond Westpac's control. If Westpac incurs a technology failure Westpac may fail to meet a compliance obligation, which could result in a regulator commencing an investigation and/or taking administrative or enforcement action against Westpac.

Further, in order to continue to deliver new products and services to customers and comply with Westpac's regulatory obligations, Westpac needs to regularly renew and enhance its technology. Westpac is constantly managing technology projects including projects to consolidate technology platforms, simplify and enhance its technology and operations environment, improve productivity and provide for a better customer experience. Failure to implement these projects or manage associated change effectively could result in cost overruns, unrealised productivity, operational instability or reputational damage. In turn, this could place Westpac at a competitive disadvantage and adversely affect Westpac's financial performance.

5.2.7 Adverse credit and capital market conditions or depositor preferences may significantly affect Westpac's ability to meet funding and liquidity needs and may increase its cost of funding

Westpac relies on deposits, and credit and capital markets, to fund its business and as a source of liquidity. Westpac's liquidity and costs of obtaining funding are related to credit and capital market conditions.

Global credit and capital markets can experience periods of extreme volatility, disruption and decreased liquidity as was demonstrated during the Global Financial Crisis. While there have now been extended periods of stability in these markets, the environment remains unpredictable. The main risks Westpac faces are damage to market confidence, changes to the access and cost of funding and a slowing in global activity or other impacts on entities with whom Westpac does business.

As of 30 September 2017, approximately 30% of Westpac's total funding originated from domestic and international wholesale markets. Of this, around 62% was sourced outside Australia and New Zealand. Customer deposits provide around 62% of total funding. Customer deposits held by Westpac are comprised of both term deposits which can be withdrawn after a certain period of time and at call deposits which can be withdrawn at any time.

A shift in investment preferences could result in deposit withdrawals by customers which could increase Westpac's need for funding from other, potentially less stable, or more expensive, forms of funding.

If market conditions deteriorate due to economic, financial, political or other reasons, there may also be a loss of confidence in bank deposits and Westpac could experience unexpected deposit withdrawals. In this situation Westpac's funding costs may be adversely affected and its liquidity and its funding and lending activities may be constrained.

If Westpac's current sources of funding prove to be insufficient, Westpac may be forced to seek alternative financing. The availability of such alternative financing, and the terms on which it may be available, will depend on a variety of factors, including prevailing market conditions, the availability of credit, Westpac's credit ratings and credit market capacity. Even if available, these alternatives may be more expensive or on unfavourable terms, which could adversely affect Westpac's financial performance, liquidity, capital resources or financial condition. There is no assurance that Westpac will be able to obtain adequate funding and do so at acceptable prices, nor that Westpac will be able to recover any additional costs.

If Westpac is unable to source appropriate funding, it may also be forced to reduce Westpac's lending or begin selling liquid securities. Such actions may adversely impact Westpac's business, prospects, liquidity, capital resources, financial performance or financial condition.

Westpac enters into collateralised derivative obligations, which may require Westpac to post additional collateral based on movements in market rates, which has the potential to adversely affect Westpac's liquidity or ability to use derivative obligations to hedge its interest rate, currency and other financial instrument risks.

5.2.8 Sovereign risk may destabilise financial markets adversely

Sovereign risk is the risk that foreign governments will default on their debt obligations, will be unable to refinance their debts as they fall due or will nationalise parts of their economy including assets of financial institutions such as Westpac. Sovereign defaults could negatively impact the value of Westpac's holdings of high quality liquid assets. There may also be a cascading effect to other markets and countries, the consequences of which, while difficult to predict, may be similar to or worse than those experienced during the Global Financial Crisis. Such an event could destabilise global financial markets adversely affecting Westpac's liquidity, financial performance or financial condition.

5.2.9 Failure to maintain credit ratings could adversely affect Westpac's cost of funds, liquidity, competitive position and access to capital markets

Credit ratings are independent opinions on Westpac's creditworthiness. Westpac's credit ratings can affect the cost and availability of its funding from capital markets and other funding sources and they may be important to customers or counterparties when evaluating its products and services. Therefore, maintaining high credit ratings is important.

The credit ratings assigned to Westpac by rating agencies are based on an evaluation of a number of factors, including Westpac's financial strength, the quality of Westpac's governance, structural considerations regarding the Australian financial system and the credit rating of the Australian Government. A credit rating downgrade could be driven by a downgrade of the Australian Government, the occurrence of one or more of the other risks identified in this section or by other events including changes to the methodologies used by the rating agencies to determine ratings.

A downgrade or series of downgrades to Westpac's credit ratings could have an adverse effect on Westpac's cost of funds and related margins, collateral requirements, liquidity, competitive position and Westpac's access to capital markets. The extent and nature of these impacts would depend on various factors, including the extent of any ratings change, whether Westpac's ratings differ among agencies (split ratings) and whether any ratings changes also impact Westpac's competitors or the sector.

5.2.10 A systemic shock in relation to the Australian, New Zealand or other financial systems could have adverse consequences for Westpac or its customers or counterparties that would be difficult to predict and respond to

There is a risk that a major systemic shock could occur that causes an adverse impact on the Australian, New Zealand or other financial systems.

As outlined above, during the past decade the financial services industry and capital markets have been, and may continue to be, adversely affected by market volatility, global economic conditions, geopolitical instability (such as threats of or actual conflict occurring around the world) and political developments (such as Brexit). A shock to one of the major global economies could again result in currency and interest rate fluctuations and operational disruptions that negatively impact the Westpac Group.

Any such market and economic disruptions could adversely affect financial institutions such as Westpac because consumer and business spending may decrease, unemployment may rise and demand for the products and services Westpac provides may decline, thereby reducing Westpac's earnings. These conditions may also affect the ability of Westpac's borrowers to repay their loans or Westpac's counterparties to meet their obligations, causing Westpac to incur higher credit losses and affect investors' willingness to invest in the Westpac Group. These events could also result in the undermining of confidence in the financial system, reducing liquidity, impairing Westpac's access to funding and impairing Westpac's customers and counterparties and their businesses. If this were to occur, Westpac's business, prospects, financial performance or financial condition could be adversely affected.

The nature and consequences of any such event are difficult to predict and there can be no certainty that Westpac could respond effectively to any such event.

5.2.11 Declines in asset markets could adversely affect Westpac's operations or profitability

Declines in Australian, New Zealand or other asset markets, including equity, residential and commercial property and other asset markets, could adversely affect Westpac's operations and profitability.

Declining asset prices also impact Westpac's wealth management business. Earnings in Westpac's wealth management business are, in part, dependent on asset values because Westpac typically receives fees based on the value of securities and/or assets held or managed. A decline in asset prices could negatively impact the earnings of this business.

Declining asset prices could also impact customers and counterparties and the value of security (including residential and commercial property) Westpac holds against loans and derivatives. This may impact Westpac's ability to recover amounts owing to it if customers or counterparties were to default. It may also affect Westpac's level of provisioning which in turn impacts Westpac's profitability and financial condition.

5.2.12 Westpac's business is substantially dependent on the Australian and New Zealand economies

Westpac's revenues and earnings are dependent on economic activity and the level of financial services Westpac's customers require. In particular, lending is dependent on various factors including economic growth, business investment, business and consumer sentiment, levels of employment, interest rates, asset prices and trade flows in the countries in which Westpac operates.

Westpac conducts the majority of its business in Australia and New Zealand and, consequently, its performance is influenced by the level and cyclical nature of lending in these countries. These factors are in turn impacted by both domestic and international economic conditions, natural disasters and political events. A significant decrease in Australian and New Zealand housing valuations could adversely impact Westpac's home lending activities because borrowers with loans in excess of their property value show a higher propensity to default. In the event of defaults Westpac's security may be eroded, causing Westpac to incur higher credit losses. The demand for Westpac's home lending products may also decline due to adverse changes in tax legislation (such as changes to tax rates, concessions or deductions), regulatory requirements or other buyer concerns about decreases in values.

Adverse changes to economic and business conditions in Australia and New Zealand and other countries such as China, India and Japan, could also adversely affect the Australian economy and Westpac's customers. In particular, due to the current economic relationship between Australia and China, particularly in the mining and resources sectors, a slowdown in China's economic growth could negatively impact the Australian economy. Changes in commodity prices, Chinese government policies and broader economic conditions could, in turn, result in reduced demand for Westpac's products and services and affect the ability of Westpac's borrowers to repay their loans. If this were to occur, it could negatively impact Westpac's business, prospects, financial performance or financial condition.

5.2.13 An increase in defaults in credit exposures could adversely affect Westpac's liquidity, capital resources, financial performance or financial condition

Credit risk is the risk of financial loss where a customer or counterparty fails to meet their financial obligations to Westpac. It is a significant risk and arises primarily from Westpac's lending activities.

Westpac establishes provisions for credit impairment based on current information. If economic conditions deteriorate, some customers and/or counterparties could experience higher levels of financial stress and Westpac may experience a significant increase in defaults and write-offs, and be required to increase Westpac's provisioning. Such events would diminish available capital and could adversely affect Westpac's liquidity, capital resources, financial performance or financial condition.

Credit risk also arises from certain derivative, clearing and settlement contracts Westpac enters into, and from Westpac's dealings with, and holdings of, debt securities issued by other banks, financial institutions, companies, clearing houses, governments and government bodies, the financial conditions of which may be affected to varying degrees by economic conditions in global financial markets.

5.2.14 Westpac faces intense competition in all aspects of its business

The financial services industry is highly competitive. Westpac competes, both domestically and internationally, with retail and commercial banks, asset managers, investment banking firms, brokerage firms, other financial service firms and businesses in other industries with emerging financial services aspirations. This includes specialist competitors that may not be subject to the same capital and regulatory requirements and therefore may be able to operate more efficiently. Digital technologies are changing consumer behaviour and the competitive environment. The use of digital channels by customers to conduct their banking continues to rise and emerging competitors are increasingly utilising new technologies and seeking to disrupt existing business models, including in relation to digital payment services. The Westpac Group faces competition from established providers of financial services as well as from banking businesses developed by non-financial services companies.

If Westpac is unable to compete effectively in its various businesses and markets, Westpac's market share may decline. Increased competition may also adversely affect Westpac by diverting business to Westpac's competitors or creating pressure to lower margins and fees.

Increased competition for deposits could also increase Westpac's cost of funding and lead Westpac to seek access to other types of funding or reduce lending. Westpac relies on bank deposits to fund a significant portion of its balance sheet and deposits have been a relatively stable source of funding. Westpac competes with banks and other financial services firms for such deposits. To the extent that Westpac is not able to successfully compete for deposits, Westpac would be forced to rely more heavily on other, potentially less stable or more expensive forms of funding, or reduce lending.

Westpac is also dependent on its ability to offer products and services that match evolving customer preferences. If Westpac is not successful in developing or introducing new products and services or responding or adapting to changes in customer preferences and habits, Westpac may lose customers to its competitors. This could adversely affect Westpac's business, prospects, financial performance or financial condition.

5.2.15 Westpac could suffer losses due to market volatility

Westpac is exposed to market risk as a consequence of Westpac's trading activities in financial markets, Westpac's defined benefit plan and through the asset and liability management of Westpac's financial position. This is the risk of an adverse impact on earnings resulting from changes in market factors, such as foreign exchange rates, commodity prices, equity prices and interest rates including the potential for negative interest rates. This includes interest rate risk in the banking book, such as the risk to interest income from a mismatch between the duration of assets and liabilities that arises in the normal course of business activities. If Westpac was to suffer substantial losses due to any market volatility it may adversely affect Westpac's business, prospects, liquidity, capital resources, financial performance or financial condition.

5.2.16 Westpac could suffer losses due to operational risks

Operational risk is the risk of loss resulting from inadequate or failed internal processes, people and systems or from external events. It also includes, among other things, technology risk, model risk and outsourcing risk, as well as the risk of business disruption due to external events such as natural disasters, environmental hazard, damage to critical utilities, and targeted activism and protest activity. While Westpac has policies, processes and controls in place to manage these risks, these may not always be effective.

If a process or control is ineffective, it could result in an adverse outcome for Westpac's customers. For example, a process breakdown could result in a customer not receiving a product on the terms and conditions, or at the pricing, they agreed to. In addition, inadequate record keeping may prevent Westpac from demonstrating that a past decision was appropriate at the time it was made. If this was to occur, Westpac may incur significant costs in paying refunds and compensation to customers, as well as remediating any underlying process breakdown. These types of failure may also result in increased regulatory scrutiny, with a regulator potentially commencing an investigation and/or taking other enforcement, administrative or supervisory action.

Westpac could incur losses from fraudulent applications for loans or from incorrect or fraudulent payments and settlements, particularly real-time payments. Fraudulent conduct can also emerge from external parties seeking to access the bank's systems and customers' accounts. If systems, procedures and protocols for managing fraud fail, or are ineffective, they could lead to losses which could adversely affect Westpac's business, prospects, reputation, financial performance or financial condition.

As a financial services organisation, Westpac is heavily reliant on the use of data and models in the conduct of its business (including in the calculation of risk-weighted assets). Westpac is therefore exposed to model risk, being the risk of loss arising because of errors or inadequacies in data or a model, or in the control and use of the model.

Westpac relies on a number of suppliers, both in Australia and overseas, to provide services to it and its customers. Failure by these suppliers to deliver services as required could disrupt services and adversely impact Westpac's operations, profitability or reputation.

Operational risks can directly impact Westpac's reputation and result in financial losses (including through decreased demand for Westpac's products and services) which would adversely affect Westpac's financial performance or financial condition.

The Westpac Group (and individual entities within the Westpac Group) may, from time to time, be involved in legal proceedings (including class action proceedings), regulatory actions or arbitration arising from the conduct of their business. These may, either individually or in aggregate, adversely affect the Westpac Group's business, operations, prospects or financial condition. Such matters are subject to many uncertainties (for example, the outcome may not be able to be predicted accurately) and the Westpac Group may be required to pay money such as damages, fines, penalties or legal costs. There is a risk that these contingent liabilities may be larger than anticipated or that additional litigation or other contingent liabilities may arise.

5.2.17 Westpac could suffer losses due to conduct risk

Conduct risk is the risk that Westpac's provision of services and products results in unsuitable or unfair outcomes for Westpac's stakeholders or undermines market integrity. This risk can manifest itself through the poor conduct of Westpac's employees, contractors and external service providers. In addition, conduct risk could occur through the provision of products and services to Westpac's customers that do not meet their needs or do not support market integrity. This could occur through a failure to meet professional obligations to specific clients (including fiduciary and suitability requirements), poor product design and implementation, selling products and services outside of customer target markets or a failure to adequately provide the products or services Westpac had agreed to provide a customer. While Westpac has policies and processes that are designed to manage poor conduct outcomes, these policies and processes may not always be effective. The failure of these policies and processes could result in financial losses and reputational damage and this could adversely affect Westpac's business, prospects, financial performance or financial condition.

5.2.18 Westpac could suffer losses due to failures in governance or risk management strategies

Westpac has implemented risk management strategies, frameworks and internal controls involving processes and procedures intended to identify, monitor and manage risks including liquidity risk, credit risk, equity risk, market risk (such as interest rate and foreign exchange risk), compliance risk, conduct risk, insurance risk, sustainability risk, related entity (contagion) risk and operational risk, all of which may impact the Westpac Group's reputation.

However, there are inherent limitations with any risk management framework as there may exist, or emerge in the future, risks that Westpac has not anticipated or identified. The effectiveness of risk management frameworks is also connected to the establishment and maintenance of a sound risk management culture.

If any of Westpac's governance or risk management processes and procedures prove ineffective or inadequate or are otherwise not appropriately implemented, Westpac could suffer unexpected losses and reputational damage which could adversely affect Westpac's business, prospects, financial performance or financial condition.

5.2.19 Climate change may have adverse effects on Westpac's business

Westpac and its customers may be adversely affected by the physical risks of climate change, including increases in temperatures, sea levels, and the frequency and severity of adverse climatic events including fires, storms, floods, and droughts. These changes may directly impact Westpac and its customers through reputational damage, environmental factors, insurance risk, and an increase in defaults in credit exposures.

Initiatives to mitigate or respond to adverse impacts of climate change may in turn impact market and asset prices, economic activity, and customer behaviour, particularly in geographic locations and industry sectors adversely affected by these changes. Failure to effectively manage these transition risks could adversely affect Westpac's reputation, business, prospects, financial performance or financial condition.

5.2.20 Westpac could suffer losses due to environmental factors

Westpac and its customers operate businesses and hold assets in a diverse range of geographic locations. Any significant environmental change or external event (including fire, storm, flood, earthquake, pandemic, civil unrest or terrorism events) in any of these locations has the potential to disrupt business activities, impact on Westpac's operations, damage property and otherwise affect the value of assets held in the affected locations and Westpac's ability to recover amounts owing to Westpac. In addition, such an event could have an adverse impact on economic activity, consumer and investor confidence, or the levels of volatility in financial markets, all of which could adversely affect Westpac's business, prospects, financial performance or financial condition.

5.2.21 Westpac could suffer losses due to insurance risk

Westpac has exposure to insurance risk in its life insurance, general insurance and lenders mortgage insurance businesses, which may adversely affect Westpac's business, operations or financial condition.

Insurance risk is the risk of mis-estimation of the expected cost of insured events, volatility in the number or severity of insured events, and mis-estimation of the cost of incurred claims.

In the life insurance business, risk arises primarily through mortality (death) and morbidity (illness and injury) risks, the costs of claims relating to those risks being greater than was anticipated when pricing those risks and policy lapses.

In the general insurance business, insurance risk arises mainly through environmental factors (including storms, floods and bushfires) and other calamities, such as earthquakes, tsunamis and volcanic activity, as well as general variability in home and contents insurance claim amounts. The frequency and severity of external events such as natural disasters is difficult to predict and it is possible that the amounts Westpac reserves for potential losses from existing events, such as those arising from natural disaster events, may not be adequate to cover actual claims that may arise.

In the lenders mortgage insurance business, insurance risk arises primarily from unexpected downturn in economic conditions leading to higher levels of mortgage defaults from unemployment or other economic factors.

If Westpac's reinsurance arrangements are not effective, this could also lead to greater risks, and more losses than anticipated.

5.2.22 Westpac could suffer losses due to impairment of capitalised software, goodwill and other intangible assets that may adversely affect its business, operations and financial condition

In certain circumstances Westpac may be exposed to a reduction in the value of intangible assets. As at 30 September 2017, Westpac carried goodwill principally related to its investments in Australia, other intangible assets principally relating to assets recognised on acquisition of subsidiaries and capitalised software balances.

Westpac is required to assess the recoverability of the goodwill and other intangible asset balances on at least an annual basis or wherever an indicator of impairment exists. For this purpose Westpac uses a discounted cash flow calculation. Changes in the methodology or assumptions upon which the calculation is based, together with expected changes in future cash flows, could materially impact this assessment, resulting in the potential write-off of part or all of the intangible assets.

Capitalised software and other intangible assets are assessed for indicators of impairment at least annually or on indication of impairment. In the event that an asset is no longer in use, or its value has been reduced or that its estimated useful life has declined, an impairment will be recorded, adversely impacting the Westpac Group's financial condition. The estimates and assumptions used in assessing the useful life of an asset can be affected by a range of factors including changes in strategy and the rate of external changes in technology and regulatory requirements.

5.2.23 Westpac could suffer losses if it fails to syndicate or sells down underwritten securities

As a financial intermediary, Westpac underwrites listed and unlisted debt and equity securities. Underwriting activities include the development of solutions for corporate and institutional customers who need capital and investor customers who have an appetite for certain investment products. Westpac may guarantee the pricing and placement of these facilities. Westpac could suffer losses if Westpac fails to syndicate or sells down Westpac's risk to other market participants. This risk is more pronounced in times of heightened market volatility.

5.2.24 Certain strategic decisions may have adverse effects on Westpac's business

Westpac, at times, evaluates and may implement strategic decisions and objectives including diversification, innovation, divestment or business expansion initiatives, including acquisitions of businesses. The expansion or integration of a new business, or entry into a new business, can be complex and costly and may require Westpac to comply with additional local or foreign regulatory requirements which may carry additional risks. In addition, Westpac may be unable to successfully divest businesses or assets. These activities may, for a variety of reasons, not deliver the anticipated positive business results and could have a negative impact on Westpac's business, prospects, engagement with regulators, financial performance or financial condition.

The summary of risks in this Section 5 is not exhaustive and you should read this Prospectus in its entirety and consult your financial adviser or other professional adviser before deciding whether to invest in Westpac Capital Notes 5.

This Section sets out:

6.1 Summary of the Australian tax consequences for Holders

6.2 Class Ruling

6.3 Distributions

6.4 Disposals of Westpac Capital Notes 5

6.5 Conversion of Westpac Capital Notes 5

6.6 Westpac CPS Reinvestment Offer

6.7 Provision of TFN and/or ABN

6.8 GST

6.9 Stamp Duty

WARNING - Westpac Capital Notes 5 are not deposit liabilities of Westpac, are riskier than bank deposits and may not be suitable for some investors. Their overall complexity may make them difficult to understand and the risks associated with the Notes could result in the loss of all of your investment. If you do not fully understand how they work or the risks associated with them, you should obtain professional advice.

6.1 Summary of the Australian tax consequences for Holders

The following is a summary of the Australian tax consequences for certain Australian resident and non-Australian resident Holders who subscribe for Westpac Capital Notes 5 under this Prospectus. This summary has been prepared by Allens, the Australian legal and tax adviser to the Offer on the assumption that all the transactions described in this Prospectus will be carried out in the manner described in this Prospectus.

Allens has consented to the inclusion of this summary in this Prospectus but this consent should not be taken as a statement about any other matter in this Prospectus or in relation to Westpac or the performance of any investment in Westpac.

The information contained in this summary does not constitute financial product advice for the purposes of the Corporations Act. Allens is not licenced, under the Corporations Act, to provide financial product advice and to the extent that this summary contains any information about a financial product within the meaning of the Corporations Act, taxation is only one of the matters that must be considered when making a decision about the relevant financial product. An investor or prospective investor should, before making any decision to invest in the Westpac Capital Notes 5, consider taking financial advice from a person who holds an AFSL under the Corporations Act.

This summary does not address all tax consequences of ownership of Westpac Capital Notes 5 and, in particular, does not address the positions of Holders who:

- acquire their Westpac Capital Notes 5 in the course of a business of trading or investing in securities, such as share traders, investment companies, banks or insurance companies, or who otherwise hold Westpac Capital Notes 5 on revenue account or as trading stock; and/or
- are subject to the “taxation of financial arrangements” rules in Division 230 of the Tax Act.

The actual tax consequences of your investment in Westpac Capital Notes 5 may differ depending upon your individual circumstances.

You should consult your own professional tax adviser regarding the consequences of acquiring, holding or disposing of Westpac Capital Notes 5 in light of your particular circumstances.

This summary is based on Australian tax laws and regulations and the current administrative practice of the Australian Taxation Office (“ATO”) as at the date of this Prospectus.

6.2 Class Ruling

Westpac has applied for a public Class Ruling requesting confirmation of the ATO’s views on the principal tax issues considered below. The Class Ruling may not be issued until after the issue of the Westpac Capital Notes 5. When it has been issued, it will be available on the ATO and Westpac websites.

6.3 Distributions

The Westpac Capital Notes 5 should be characterised as “non-share equity interests” for Australian income tax purposes and Distributions should be treated as “non-share dividends” which are frankable.

6.3.1 Australian resident Holders

Distributions

Australian resident Holders will be required to include the amounts of any Distributions in their assessable income.

Any franking credits attached to those Distributions should also be included in Holders’ assessable income and tax offsets should generally be available, equal to the amounts of the franking credits, subject to the requirements that the Westpac Capital Notes 5 be held “at risk” for the requisite periods (see below regarding the “holding period rule”) and that the Commissioner of Taxation does not make an adverse determination under certain anti-avoidance rules (see below).

Where Holders who are individuals or complying superannuation entities are entitled to tax offsets, those offsets will either reduce any tax payable by the Holders, or give rise to tax refunds to the extent that the tax offsets exceed the tax that is otherwise payable by the Holders.

To the extent that any Distributions are unfranked, those unfranked amounts will also be included in Holders’ assessable income, without any tax offsets.

Holders that are companies are not entitled to refunds of excess tax offsets, but will be entitled to a credit in their franking account equal to the amount of the franking credits attached to a Distribution, subject to the qualifications mentioned above and discussed further below.

“Holding period rule”

A Holder will not be entitled to tax offsets in respect of franking credits on a franked Distribution unless the Holder is a “qualified person” in relation to the Distribution.

To be a “qualified person” in relation to a Distribution, a Holder must have held the Westpac Capital Notes 5 “at risk” for a continuous period of at least 90 days (excluding the days of acquisition and disposal) during:

- the “primary qualification period”, which is the period beginning on the day after the day on which the Westpac Capital Notes 5 are acquired by a Holder and ending on the 90th day after the day that the Westpac Capital Notes 5 became ex-Distribution; or
- if a Holder, or an associate, is under an obligation to make “related payments” (which have the effect of passing on the benefit of the Distribution to other entities) in respect of the Distribution, the “secondary qualification period”, which is the period beginning on the 90th day before, and ending on the 90th day after, the day that the Westpac Capital Notes 5 became ex-Distribution.

To be held “at risk”, the Holder must effectively retain 30% or more of the risks and benefits associated with holding the Westpac Capital Notes 5. Whether or not the Westpac Capital Notes 5 are held “at risk” by a Holder during the relevant periods will depend upon whether the Holder has financial positions or undertakes risk management strategies (e.g. using limited recourse loans, options or forward sale contracts) in relation to the Westpac Capital Notes 5. On the basis that Holders will continue to hold the Westpac Capital Notes 5 for at least the “primary qualification period”, will not have any financial positions or enter into any relevant risk management strategies in relation to the Westpac Capital Notes 5, and will not be under an obligation to make “related payments” to other entities, Holders should be “qualified persons” in relation to Distributions on the Westpac Capital Notes 5.

Holders who are individuals and who will not claim tax offsets in any one year in excess of $5,000, will automatically be taken to be “qualified persons” in relation to all Distributions that they receive (provided that they are not under an obligation to make a “related payment” as described above).

The application of the franking rules to Holders will depend upon the particular circumstances of each Holder. Accordingly, each Holder should seek independent advice as to whether they will be treated as a “qualified person” in relation to Distributions received on the Westpac Capital Notes 5.

Anti-avoidance rule

Section 177EA of the Tax Act is an anti-avoidance provision which is designed to counter schemes where one of the purposes (other than an incidental purpose) of the scheme is to inappropriately divert franking credits and obtain an imputation benefit. There are a number of different objective factors that the Commissioner may take into account in forming a view as to whether a scheme has such a purpose. Where section 177EA applies, the Commissioner may make a written determination with the effect of either:

- imposing a franking debit on the distributing entity's franking account; or
- denying the imputation benefit on the Distribution that flowed directly or indirectly to the relevant taxpayer.

The Commissioner of Taxation has indicated that, in the usual case, he would not ordinarily assert that section 177EA applied to a convertible instrument which satisfied the requirements to be classified as Additional Tier 1 Capital for APRA regulatory reporting purposes. Based on that and current case-law, Westpac expects the Commissioner to make a favourable Class Ruling on this issue, which would be binding on the Commissioner in favour of Holders who subscribe for Westpac Capital Notes 5 under this Prospectus.

6.3.2 Non-Australian resident Holders

To the extent that Distributions paid to non-Australian resident Holders, who do not hold their Westpac Capital Notes 5 through a permanent establishment in Australia, are franked, those Distributions will not be subject to Australian withholding tax. Where such Distributions are not fully franked, the unfranked portion of any such Distribution will be subject to withholding tax at the rate of 30%. This rate may be reduced if the non-Australian resident is resident in a country that has a double taxation agreement with Australia.

6.4 Disposals of Westpac Capital Notes 5

6.4.1 Australian resident Holders

We expect the Commissioner of Taxation to take the view that the Westpac Capital Notes 5 are not “traditional securities” for the purposes of the Tax Act. On that basis, any gains or losses made by Holders on the disposal of their Westpac Capital Notes 5 will be taxed under the capital gains tax (“CGT”) provisions.

A disposal of a Westpac Capital Note 5, whether through an on-market disposal, Redemption, or pursuant to a Transfer Notice, will be a CGT event. Holders may make a capital gain or a capital loss, depending upon whether their capital proceeds from the disposal are more than the cost base of their Westpac Capital Notes 5, or whether the capital proceeds are less than the reduced cost base of their Westpac Capital Notes 5, respectively.

For Holders who acquire Westpac Capital Notes 5 pursuant to this Prospectus, the first element of the cost base of a Westpac Capital Note 5 will be the amount paid for the relevant Westpac Capital Note 5, which will be its Initial Face Value. Other amounts associated with the acquisition or disposal of the Westpac Capital Notes 5, such as broker fees, may be added to the cost base.

The capital proceeds from a Redemption or Transfer of a Westpac Capital Note 5 will be equal to the Initial Face Value of the Westpac Capital Note 5 (unless there has been a reduction in the Face Value of the Notes because there has been a Capital Trigger Event or a Non-Viability Trigger Event). Therefore, Holders who acquire their Westpac Capital Notes 5 under the Offer in this Prospectus should not make capital gains on the Redemption or Transfer of their Westpac Capital Notes 5. If, however, the Face Value of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 has been reduced because there has been a Capital Trigger Event or a Non-Viability Trigger Event, Holders may make a capital loss on the Redemption or Transfer of their Westpac Capital Notes 5. Holders should seek their own tax advice as to whether any such capital loss may be applied to offset capital gains in their particular circumstances.

The capital proceeds from an on-market disposal of a Westpac Capital Note 5 will be the sale price of the Westpac Capital Note 5. Holders who sell their Westpac Capital Notes 5 on-market may make capital gains or capital losses, depending upon the amount of capital proceeds that they receive.

Any capital gain or capital loss made by a Holder will be aggregated with other capital gains and capital losses of the Holder in the relevant income year to determine whether the Holder has a net capital gain or net capital loss. A net capital gain, if any, will be included in the Holder's assessable income and subject to income tax, although the “CGT Discount” may be available to reduce the taxable gain for the Holder, as described below. A net capital loss may not be deducted against other assessable income, but may be carried forward to be offset against net capital gains realised in later income years.

If a Holder is an individual, complying superannuation entity or a trust, and held their Westpac Capital Notes 5 for 12 months or more before the disposal, the Holder should be entitled to a “CGT Discount” for any capital gain made on the disposal of their Westpac Capital Notes 5.

The “CGT Discount” provisions may entitle Holders to reduce their capital gain on the disposal of a Westpac Capital Note 5 (after deducting available capital losses) by half, in the case of individuals and trusts, or by one-third, in the case of complying superannuation entities. Trustees should seek specific advice regarding the tax consequences of making distributions attributable to discounted capital gains.

The “CGT Discount” is not available to companies, nor can it apply to Westpac Capital Notes 5 disposed of by Holders under an agreement entered into within 12 months of the acquisition of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 by those Holders. Holders should seek independent advice to determine if their Westpac Capital Notes 5 have been held for the requisite period.

6.4.2 Non-Australian resident Holders

Any capital gain or capital loss made by a non-Australian resident Holder from the disposal of their Westpac Capital Notes 5 is likely to be disregarded on the basis that Westpac Capital Notes 5 are not likely to be “taxable Australian property” at the time of sale, unless the Westpac Capital Notes 5 were used by the non-resident in carrying on business through a permanent establishment in Australia.

Any non-Australian resident Holders who held their Westpac Capital Notes 5 in the course of carrying on a business should obtain specific advice in respect of the potential consequences of a disposal of their Westpac Capital Notes 5 in their particular circumstances.

6.5 Conversion of Westpac Capital Notes 5

When a Westpac Capital Note 5 is Converted, a Holder’s rights in relation to the Westpac Capital Note 5 will be terminated for an amount equal to the Face Value of the Westpac Capital Note 5 and Westpac will apply that amount for the Holder in subscribing for Ordinary Shares which are to be issued by Westpac at a discount. The Conversion of a Westpac Capital Note 5 into Ordinary Shares in this way should not give rise to a capital gain or a capital loss, nor an assessable revenue gain or a deductible revenue loss, for a Holder. The recognition of any gain or loss that might otherwise have arisen on the termination of a Westpac Capital Note 5 is effectively deferred until any subsequent sale of the Ordinary Shares acquired by the Holder from the Conversion. This applies to both Australian resident Holders and non-Australian resident Holders.

The first element of the cost base or reduced cost base of the Ordinary Shares acquired as a result of a Conversion will be the amount of the Holder’s cost base for each Converted Westpac Capital Note 5.

The Ordinary Shares that will be acquired as a result of a Conversion will be deemed to have been acquired by Holders at the time of Conversion for capital gains tax purposes, including for the purpose of calculating the 12 month ownership period required for the “CGT Discount” (see above).

6.6 Westpac CPS Reinvestment Offer

Under the Reinvestment Offer, Eligible Westpac CPS Holders may apply to reinvest some or all of their Westpac CPS in Notes. This will be effected by the transfer of Participating Westpac CPS to the Westpac CPS Nominated Party on 13 March 2018 for $100 per Participating Westpac CPS and the automatic reinvestment of the Transfer Proceeds in Notes ($100 per Note).

For Westpac CPS holders who do not participate in the Reinvestment Offer (or only participate in respect of some of their Westpac CPS), it is currently intended that their Non-Participating Westpac CPS will be transferred to the Westpac CPS Nominated Party on 3 April 2018¹ for $100 per Westpac CPS.

The following income tax consequences will generally apply to Eligible Westpac CPS Holders who participate in the Reinvestment Offer, and Non-Participating Westpac CPS Holders whose Westpac CPS are transferred to the Westpac CPS Nominated Party, who are Australian tax residents, hold their Westpac CPS as capital assets, are not in the business of dealing or trading in securities and do not otherwise hold their Westpac CPS on revenue account for tax purposes.

Westpac CPS holders may also wish to refer to the Tax Letter in the prospectus for Westpac CPS dated 24 February 2012 which contains a summary of the tax treatment of certain entities that invested in Westpac CPS under the prospectus and Class Ruling CR 2012/32 which contains the ATO’s binding views in respect of the tax treatment of certain entities that invested in Westpac CPS under the prospectus for Westpac CPS. A copy of the Class Ruling is available on Westpac’s website at www.westpac.com.au/about-westpac/investor-centre/other-westpac-securities/westpac-convertible-preference-shares/.

6.6.1 Dividends

An Eligible Westpac CPS Holder who elects to participate in the Reinvestment Offer will also be paid a Pro-Rata Westpac CPS Dividend on 13 March 2018, calculated in respect of the period from (but excluding) 30 September 2017 to (and including) 13 March 2018, on each Westpac CPS that they hold at 7.00pm (Sydney time) on 5 March 2018, being the record date for the Pro-Rata Westpac CPS Dividend, subject to the dividend payment test in the Westpac CPS Terms being met.

A Non-Participating Westpac CPS Holder will be paid the Pro-Rata Westpac CPS Dividend on 13 March 2018, on each Non-Participating Westpac CPS that they hold at 7.00pm (Sydney time) on 5 March 2018, being the record date for the Pro-Rata Westpac CPS Dividend, subject to the dividend payment test in the Westpac CPS Terms being met. If a Non-Participating Westpac CPS Holder continues to hold Westpac CPS on the Final Westpac CPS Dividend Record Date, they will be paid the Final Westpac CPS Dividend on 3 April 2018² for each Westpac CPS they hold on the Final Westpac CPS Dividend Record Date, in respect of the period from (but excluding) the Issue Date to (and including) 31 March 2018, subject to the dividend payment test in the Westpac CPS Terms being satisfied.

1. The first Westpac CPS Optional Conversion/Redemption Date of 31 March 2018 is not a business day for the purposes of the Westpac CPS Terms and accordingly the transfer of Non-Participating Westpac CPS will occur, and the Final Westpac CPS Dividend payment will be made, on the next business day (being 3 April 2018).
2. The Final Westpac CPS Dividend payment date is not a business day for the purposes of the Westpac CPS Terms and accordingly the Final Westpac CPS Dividend payment will be made on the next business day (being 3 April 2018).

Westpac expects these dividends to be fully franked. These dividends will be subject to the same taxation treatment as other dividends paid on Westpac CPS. In particular, Australian resident Westpac CPS holders should include the amount of each dividend in their assessable income. In addition, if they are not companies and they satisfy the qualified person (related payments and holding period) rules, they should also include an amount equal to the franking credits attached to the dividend in their assessable income, in which case they should qualify for a tax offset equal to the amount of those franking credits.

6.6.2 Transfer proceeds

Under the Reinvestment Offer, a Participating Westpac CPS Holder will elect to reinvest their Transfer Proceeds ($100 for each Westpac CPS) in Westpac Capital Notes 5.

A Non-Participating Westpac CPS Holder will also receive an amount of $100 for each Westpac CPS upon the transfer of their Westpac CPS to the Westpac CPS Nominated Party on 3 April 2018.

For both Participating Westpac CPS Holders and Non-Participating Westpac CPS Holders, no part of the transfer proceeds should be taken to be ordinary assessable income of the Westpac CPS holders.

6.6.3 CGT consequences of transfer of Westpac CPS

Australian residents

The transfer of Westpac CPS to the Westpac CPS Nominated Party, either by Participating Westpac CPS Holders pursuant to the Reinvestment Offer, or by Non-Participating Westpac CPS Holders on 3 April 2018, will be a CGT event for the Westpac CPS holders.

Westpac CPS holders may make a capital gain if their capital proceeds from the transfer are more than their "cost base" for their Westpac CPS, or may make a capital loss if their capital proceeds are less than their "reduced cost base" for their Westpac CPS:

- Cost base or reduced cost base: the first element of a Westpac CPS holder's cost base, or reduced cost base, for their Westpac CPS is the amount paid by the Westpac CPS holder for their Westpac CPS. Other amounts associated with the acquisition or disposal of Westpac CPS, such as broker fees, may be added to the cost base.
- Capital proceeds: the capital proceeds that will be received by a Westpac CPS holder from the transfer of their Westpac CPS to the Westpac CPS Nominated Party, either by a Participating Westpac CPS Holder pursuant to the Reinvestment Offer, or by a Non-Participating Westpac CPS Holder on 3 April 2018, will be $100 per Westpac CPS.

Any capital gain (or capital loss) made by a Westpac CPS holder will be aggregated with other capital gains and capital losses of the Westpac CPS holder in the relevant year of income to determine whether the Westpac CPS holder has a net capital gain or net capital loss. A net capital gain, if any, will be included in the Westpac CPS holder's assessable income and will be subject to income tax, however the "CGT Discount" may be available to reduce the taxable gain for a Westpac CPS holder who is an individual, complying superannuation entity or trust (as described below). A net capital loss may not be deducted against other assessable income, but may be carried forward to be offset against net capital gains realised in later income years.

If a Westpac CPS holder is an individual, complying superannuation entity or a trust, and held their Westpac CPS for 12 months or more before the disposal, the Westpac CPS holder may be entitled to a "CGT Discount" for any capital gain made on the disposal of their Westpac CPS. Westpac CPS holders should seek independent advice to determine if their Westpac CPS have been held for the requisite period.

The "CGT Discount" provisions may entitle Westpac CPS holders to reduce their capital gain on the disposal of a Westpac CPS (after deducting available capital losses) by half, in the case of individuals and trusts, or by one-third in the case of complying superannuation entities. However, trustees should seek specific advice regarding the tax consequences of making distributions attributable to discounted capital gains. The "CGT Discount" is not available to companies.

Non-Australian residents

Any capital gain or capital loss made by non-Australian resident Westpac CPS holders is likely to be disregarded on the basis that Westpac CPS are not likely to be 'taxable Australian property' at the time of sale, unless they were used by the non-resident in carrying on business through a permanent establishment in Australia. Any non-resident Westpac CPS holders who held their Westpac CPS in the course of a business should obtain specific advice in respect of the potential consequences of that disposal of Westpac CPS in their particular circumstances.

6.6.4 Cost base of Westpac Capital Notes 5 acquired pursuant to the Reinvestment Offer

Where Westpac Capital Notes 5 are acquired by Eligible Westpac CPS Holders pursuant to the Reinvestment Offer, the Transfer Proceeds that were applied to acquire those Notes will be included in the cost bases of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 for the purposes of determining any future gain or loss on the disposal, Conversion, Redemption or Transfer of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 (refer to Sections 6.4 and 6.5 above).

6.7 Provision of TFN and/or ABN

Westpac is required to deduct withholding tax from payments of Distributions in respect of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 that are not 100% franked, at the rate specified in the Taxation Administration Regulations 1976 (currently 47% of the unfranked amount), and remit such amounts to the ATO, unless a Tax File Number or an Australian Business Number has been quoted by a Holder, or a relevant exemption applies (and has been notified to Westpac).

6.8 GST

No GST should be payable by a Holder in respect of acquiring Westpac Capital Notes 5 or on a sale, Conversion, Redemption or Transfer of Westpac Capital Notes 5, other than in respect of brokerage or similar fees.

6.9 Stamp Duty

No stamp duty should be payable by a Holder on the issue, sale, Conversion, Redemption or Transfer of Westpac Capital Notes 5.

WARNING - Westpac Capital Notes 5 are not deposit liabilities of Westpac, are riskier than bank deposits and may not be suitable for some investors. Their overall complexity may make them difficult to understand and the risks associated with the Notes could result in the loss of all of your investment. If you do not fully understand how they work or the risks associated with them, you should obtain professional advice.

7.1 Restrictions on ownership for Westpac

The Financial Sector (Shareholdings) Act 1988 (Cth) restricts the aggregate voting power of a person and their associates in an Australian bank to 15%. A shareholder may apply to the Treasurer of the Commonwealth of Australia to extend its stake beyond 15%, however approval cannot be granted unless the Treasurer is satisfied that it is in the national interest to approve a holding of greater than 15%.

Acquisitions of interests in shares in Australian companies by foreign persons are subject to review and approval by the Treasurer of the Commonwealth of Australia under the Foreign Acquisitions and Takeovers Act 1975 (Cth) in certain circumstances. Potential investors should consult their professional advisers to determine whether the Foreign Acquisitions and Takeovers Act 1975 (Cth) may affect their holding or ownership of Notes or Ordinary Shares.

7.2 Information, disclosure and availability

7.2.1 Reporting and disclosure obligations

Westpac is a disclosing entity for the purposes of the Corporations Act and is subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations under the Corporations Act and the ASX Listing Rules. These obligations require that Westpac prepare both yearly and half-yearly financial statements and a report on the operations of Westpac during the relevant accounting period together with an audit or review report by its auditor. Copies of these documents and other documents lodged with ASIC by Westpac may be obtained from, or inspected at, an ASIC office.

Westpac also has an obligation under the ASX Listing Rules to notify ASX immediately of any information concerning Westpac of which it becomes aware and which a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of Westpac's securities unless exceptions from disclosure apply under ASX Listing Rules. ASX maintains records of company announcements for all companies listed on ASX. Westpac's announcements may be viewed on ASX's website (www.asx.com.au).

7.2.2 Accessing information about Westpac

Westpac will provide a copy of any of the following documents free of charge to any person who requests a copy during the Offer Period in relation to this Prospectus:

- the financial statements of Westpac for the year ended 30 September 2017 (being the most recent annual financial statements lodged with ASIC before the lodgement of this Prospectus);
- the interim financial report of Westpac for the half year ended 31 March 2017 (being the most recent interim financial statements lodged with ASIC before the lodgement of this Prospectus);
- any document or financial statement lodged by Westpac with ASIC or ASX under the continuous disclosure reporting requirements in the period after the lodgement of the annual financial statements and before the lodgement of this Prospectus; and

- Westpac's Constitution.

Copies of Westpac's financial statements are available at: www.westpac.com.au/about-westpac/investor-centre/financial-information/annual-reports.

Copies of Westpac's Constitution are available at: www.westpac.com.au/about-westpac/westpac-group/corporate-governance/constitution-board.

Written requests for copies of these documents should be addressed to:

7.3 Rights attaching to Westpac Capital Notes 5

The rights attaching to the Notes are contained in the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms, which are contained in Appendix B.

7.4 Rights attaching to Ordinary Shares

Ordinary Shares may be issued to Holders by Westpac on Conversion of Notes. These Ordinary Shares will be issued as fully paid and will rank equally with all other Ordinary Shares already on issue in all respects.

The rights attaching to Ordinary Shares are set out in Westpac's Constitution, the ASX Listing Rules and the Corporations Act. A summary of these rights is set out below.

7.4.1 Transfers

Transfers of Ordinary Shares are not effective until registered. Subject to the ASX Listing Rules, Westpac may refuse to register a transfer of Ordinary Shares without giving any reasons. However, the ASX Listing Rules substantially restrict when Westpac may refuse to register a transfer.

Unless otherwise required by law, Westpac is not required to recognise any interest in Ordinary Shares apart from that of registered holders of Ordinary Shares.

Where two or more persons are registered as joint holders of Ordinary Shares, they are taken to hold the Ordinary Shares as joint tenants with rights of survivorship.

Westpac is not required to register more than three persons as joint holders of an Ordinary Share or issue more than one share certificate or holding statement for Ordinary Shares jointly held.

Restrictions apply in respect of persons who become entitled to Ordinary Shares by reason of the death, bankruptcy or mental incapacity of a holder of Ordinary Shares.

7.4.2 Profits and Dividends

Holders of Ordinary Shares are entitled to receive such Dividends as may be determined by Westpac. Dividends determined by Westpac are payable to holders of Ordinary Shares in proportion to the amounts paid on the Ordinary Shares that they hold.

Dividends must only be paid in accordance with applicable laws and Westpac's Constitution. Westpac is restricted from paying Dividends unless:

- Westpac's assets exceed its liabilities immediately before the Dividend is determined and the excess is sufficient for the payment of the Dividend;
- the payment of the Dividend is fair and reasonable to Westpac's shareholders as a whole; and
- the payment of the Dividend does not materially prejudice Westpac's ability to pay its creditors.

Additionally, Dividends would not be payable if making such a payment would breach or cause a breach by Westpac of applicable capital adequacy or other supervisory requirements of APRA, or if Westpac was directed by APRA not to pay a Dividend under the Banking Act. APRA's requirements include that Westpac must obtain APRA's written approval prior to making a Dividend payment on Ordinary Shares if the aggregate amount of Dividend payments on Ordinary Shares in the 12 months covered by one or more sets of publicly available operating results preceding the date of the proposed Dividend payment exceeds Westpac's after-tax earnings after taking into account any payments on more senior capital instruments in the same 12 months.

There are restrictions on the amount of earnings that can be distributed through Tier 1 Capital Distributions should an ADI's Level 1 or Level 2 CET1 Ratios fall below the Distribution Restriction Trigger. Refer to Section 4.2.4 for further information.

Dividends that are paid, but not claimed, may be invested by the Westpac Directors for the benefit of Westpac until required to be dealt with under any law relating to unclaimed monies.

7.4.3 Winding Up of Westpac

Subject to the preferential entitlement (if any) of preference shareholders, holders of Ordinary Shares are entitled to share equally in any surplus assets if Westpac is wound up.

7.4.4 Meetings and voting rights

Holders of Ordinary Shares are entitled to receive notice of, attend and vote at general meetings of Westpac. Each holder of Ordinary Shares present at a general meeting (whether in person or by proxy or representative) is entitled to one vote on a show of hands or, on a poll, one vote for each Ordinary Share held.

7.4.5 Issue of further Ordinary Shares

The Westpac Directors control the issue of Ordinary Shares. Subject to the Corporations Act, the Westpac Directors may issue further Ordinary Shares, and grant options and pre-emptive rights over Ordinary Shares, on terms they think fit.

7.5 Rights attaching to Approved Successor Shares

If Westpac is replaced as the ultimate holding company of the Westpac Group by an Approved Successor, and the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms are amended to enable substitution of the Approved Successor as debtor of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 and the issuer of ordinary shares on Conversion, Holders will be issued with Approved Successor Shares on Conversion (rather than Ordinary Shares). In order to be classified as an Approved Successor, the shares of the proposed successor holding company must be listed on an internationally recognised stock exchange – see clause 16.2 of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms (definition of "Acquisition Event"). The Approved Successor will be obliged to use all reasonable endeavours to obtain quotation of the Approved Successor Shares issued under the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms on the stock exchanges on which the other Approved Successor Shares are quoted at the time of a Conversion – see clause 13.4 of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms.

7.6 Summary of the Offer Management Agreement

Westpac and the Joint Lead Managers entered into the Offer Management Agreement ("OMA") on 5 February 2018. Under the OMA, Westpac has appointed Westpac Institutional Bank, ANZ Securities Limited, Commonwealth Bank of Australia, J.P. Morgan Australia Limited, Morgans Financial Limited, National Australia Bank Limited, and UBS AG, Australia Branch as the Joint Lead Managers and joint bookrunners for the Offer.

Under the OMA, the Joint Lead Managers agreed to conduct the Bookbuild before the Opening Date. In this process, Syndicate Brokers and Institutional Investors were invited to lodge bids for a number of Notes at various margins within an indicative margin range. Using those bids, Westpac and the Joint Lead Managers set the Margin and determined the firm Allocations to Syndicate Brokers and Institutional Investors. The Bookbuild was conducted on the terms and conditions in the OMA.

The OMA contains various representations and warranties, and imposes various obligations on Westpac, including representations, warranties and obligations to ensure that this Prospectus complies with the Corporations Act and ASX Listing Rules, and to conduct the Offer under the agreed timetable, ASX Listing Rules, this Prospectus and all other applicable laws.

The OMA provides that Westpac will not, without the Joint Lead Managers' consent (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed), allot, agree to allot or indicate in any way that it may or will allot or agree to allot any hybrid debt or preference security with Tier 1 Capital or Tier 2 Capital status in the Australian retail market before the Issue Date, other than pursuant to the Offer and in certain other specified circumstances.

Westpac has agreed to indemnify the Joint Lead Managers (other than Westpac Institutional Bank) and parties affiliated with each Joint Lead Manager against damages, losses, costs, expenses and liabilities in connection with the Offer, other than where these result from any fraud, recklessness, wilful misconduct or negligence of the indemnified parties or certain other events.

7.6.1 Settlement support

Each Joint Lead Manager has agreed to provide settlement support for the number of Notes Allocated to Syndicate Brokers under the Bookbuild. Under the OMA, as part of that settlement support, each Joint Lead Manager will pay to Westpac, or procure payment to Westpac of, its JLM Broker Firm Amount under the Bookbuild by the settlement date (12 March 2018). Each Joint Lead Manager is only responsible for ensuring that payment is made for Notes Allocated to them or at their direction. Westpac Institutional Bank need only pay, or procure payment, to Westpac of the proportion of its JLM Broker Firm Amount, Other Broker Firm Amount, Institutional Amount and Co-Manager Amount that it actually receives from third party investors.

7.6.2 Fees

Under the OMA, Westpac will pay:

- each Joint Lead Manager, a selling fee of 0.75% of that Joint Lead Manager's JLM Broker Firm Amount;
- each Joint Lead Manager whose bid into the Bookbuild equals or exceeds a minimum threshold, a bookrunning fee of 0.50% of that Joint Lead Manager's JLM Broker Firm Amount;
- to Westpac Institutional Bank, a bookrunning fee of 0.50% of the Co-Manager Amount; and
- to Westpac Institutional Bank, a selling fee of 0.25% of the Institutional Amount.

Westpac Institutional Bank agrees to pay, on behalf of Westpac, a selling fee of 0.75% of the Co-Manager Amount to any Co-Managers, subject to receipt of this fee from Westpac. Westpac Institutional Bank also agrees to pay, on behalf of Westpac, a selling fee of 0.75% of the Other Broker Firm Amount to Third Party Brokers and certain other participating brokers, subject to Westpac Institutional Bank receiving the selling fee of 0.75% of its JLM Broker Firm Amount described above.

Westpac may pay to Westpac Institutional Bank, and Westpac Institutional Bank agrees to pay on Westpac's behalf to certain investors, a commitment fee of up to 0.75% of the Application Payment made by those investors. This is subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, including a minimum bid under the Bookbuild and a minimum holding period in respect of the Notes Allocated to those investors.

The Joint Lead Managers may pay fees on behalf of Westpac to Australian financial services licensees and their authorised representatives ("External Third Parties") in respect of Notes Allocated to them for allocation to their clients. Under the OMA, the amount of the fee payable to an External Third Party must not exceed 0.75% (or 1.25% if the External Third Party is an affiliate of the Joint Lead Manager or an External Third Party approved by Westpac) of the amount of valid Applications received from that External Third Party multiplied by the Initial Face Value. External Third Parties may in turn rebate fees (which may not exceed 0.75% of the amount of valid Applications received from that External Third Party multiplied by the Initial Face Value) to other External Third Parties for procuring Applications for any Notes by their clients, among other things.

7.6.3 Termination

Any/each Joint Lead Manager may terminate its obligations under the OMA on the occurrence of a number of customary termination events, including (among others):

- a downgrade of certain credit ratings assigned to Westpac;
- ASIC issues a stop order in relation to the Offer;
- a supplementary prospectus is required under section 719 of the Corporations Act;
- ASX refuses to quote the Notes on ASX;
- any person (other than a Joint Lead Manager or Co-Manager) withdraws their consent to be named in this Prospectus;
- certain breaches of the OMA;
- Westpac withdraws this Prospectus or the Offer;
- trading of certain ASX listed Capital Securities is suspended for a certain period of time, or certain ASX listed Capital Securities cease to be quoted on ASX;
- unauthorised alterations to the Notes Deed Poll or Westpac's Constitution; and
- an adverse change in the financial position or prospects of the Westpac Group.

Certain termination events will only give rise to a right to terminate if the Joint Lead Manager has reasonable and bona fide grounds to believe and does believe that the event has or is likely to have a material adverse effect on the Offer. If termination occurs, the Joint Lead Manager who terminates (or each Joint Lead Manager that terminates) will no longer be a lead manager or bookrunner and will not be obliged to provide settlement support for the Bookbuild.

Under the OMA, if one Joint Lead Manager terminates, each other Joint Lead Manager must give notice in writing to Westpac and each of the terminating Joint Lead Managers stating whether it will also terminate or whether it will assume the obligations of the terminating Joint Lead Manager(s).

7.7 Consents

Each Westpac Director has given, and not withdrawn, their consent to the lodgement of this Prospectus with ASIC.

Each of the parties (referred to as “Consenting Parties”), who are named below:

- has not made any statement in this Prospectus or any statement on which a statement made in this Prospectus is based other than as specified in point 4 below;
- to the maximum extent permitted by law, expressly disclaims and takes no responsibility for any statements or omissions from this Prospectus, other than the reference to its name and/or statement or report included in this Prospectus with the consent of that Consenting Party;
- has given and has not, before the lodgement of this Prospectus with ASIC, withdrawn its written consent to be named in this Prospectus in the form and context in which it is named; and
- in the case of Allens, has given and has not, before the lodgement of this Prospectus with ASIC withdrawn its written consent to the inclusion of Section 6 in the form and context in which it appears in this Prospectus.

7.8 Interests of advisers

Westpac Institutional Bank has acted as arranger and a Joint Lead Manager, in respect of which it will receive the fees set out in Section 7.6.2. The remaining Joint Lead Managers and Co-Managers will receive fees, as also set out in Section 7.6.2.

The Joint Lead Managers are full service securities firms and they, along with their respective affiliates, are engaged in various activities, including securities trading, investment management, financing and brokerage activities and financial planning and benefits counselling for both companies and individuals. In the ordinary course of these activities, the Joint Lead Managers and their respective affiliates may trade or provide advice in relation to the securities of Westpac and its related bodies corporate, and may receive customary fees or commissions for so doing.

Allens has acted as Australian legal and tax adviser to Westpac in relation to the Offer, including the Reinvestment Offer, and has performed work in relation to preparing the due diligence and verification program and performed due diligence required on legal and taxation matters. In respect of this work, Westpac estimates that it will pay to Allens approximately $450,000 (excluding disbursements and GST). Further amounts in relation to the Offer, including the Reinvestment Offer, may be paid to Allens under its normal time-based charges.

PricewaterhouseCoopers Securities Limited has acted as accounting adviser to Westpac. Westpac estimates that it will pay to PricewaterhouseCoopers Securities Limited approximately $116,000 (excluding disbursements and GST). Further amounts in relation to the Offer may be paid to PricewaterhouseCoopers Securities Limited under its normal time-based charges.

Other than as set out in this Prospectus:

- no person named in this Prospectus as performing a function in a professional, advisory or other capacity in connection with the preparation or distribution of this Prospectus; and
- no promoter or underwriter of the offer of the Notes or financial services licensee named in this Prospectus as a financial services licensee involved in the Offer, holds at the date of this Prospectus, or has held in the two years before that date, an interest in:

- the formation or promotion of Westpac;
- the Offer; or
- any property acquired or proposed to be acquired by Westpac in connection with its formation or promotion or with the Offer.

Other than as set out in this Prospectus, no such person has been paid or agreed to be paid any amount, nor has any benefit been given or agreed to be given to any such persons for services provided by them, in connection with the formation or promotion of Westpac or with the Offer.

7.9 Interests of Westpac Directors

The Westpac Directors and their associates may acquire Notes offered under this Prospectus subject to the ASX Listing Rules, including any waivers described in Section 7.11. Details of the Westpac Directors' holdings of Ordinary Shares and other securities of Westpac are disclosed to, and available from, the ASX at www.asx.com.au. Details of the remuneration paid by Westpac to Westpac Directors for financial year 2017 are set out in the Remuneration Report in Westpac's 2017 Annual Report. Westpac's 2017 Annual Report can be obtained free of charge as described in Section 7.2.2.

Peter Hawkins is a director of Crestone Holdings Limited, the ultimate parent company of Crestone Wealth Management Limited, a Co-Manager to the Offer.

Other than as set out above, no Westpac Director or proposed Westpac Director holds, at the date of this Prospectus, or has held in the two years before that date, an interest in:

- the formation or promotion of Westpac;
- the Offer; or
- any property acquired or proposed to be acquired by Westpac in connection with its formation or promotion or with the Offer.

Other than as set out above and in the Remuneration Report in the 2017 Annual Report, no Westpac Director or proposed Westpac Director has been paid or agreed to be paid any amount (whether in cash or in shares or otherwise), nor has any benefit been given or agreed to be given to any Westpac Director or proposed Westpac Director to induce them to become or qualify them as a Westpac Director, or for services provided by them in connection with the formation or promotion of Westpac or with the Offer.

7.10 Westpac legal proceedings

Contingent liabilities exist in respect of actual and potential claims and proceedings. An assessment of Westpac's likely loss has been made on a case-by-case basis for the purposes of Westpac's 2017 Annual Report and specific provisions have been made where appropriate. Refer to note 31 of Westpac's 2017 Annual Report for further details.

7.11 ASX waivers and approvals

Westpac has received the following ASX waivers or confirmations in relation to the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms and the Offer:

- ASX Listing Rule 10.11 has been waived to the extent necessary to permit the Westpac Directors and their associates to participate in the Offer and be issued Notes without shareholder approval on the following conditions:
 - the number of Notes which may be issued to Westpac Directors and their associates collectively is no more than 0.2% of the total number of Notes issued under the Offer, and the participation of the Westpac Directors and their associates in the Offer is on the same terms and conditions as applicable to other subscribers for Notes;

- Westpac releases the terms of the waiver to the market when the Offer is announced; and
- when the Notes are issued, Westpac announces to the market the total number of Notes issued to the Westpac Directors and their associates in aggregate;
- the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms are appropriate and equitable for the purposes of ASX Listing Rule 6.1;
- ASX Listing Rule 6.12 does not apply to the terms of issue of the Notes which provide for their Conversion, Redemption or Transfer;
- for the purposes of ASX Listing Rule 7.1, it is acceptable that the maximum number of Ordinary Shares into which the Notes can be Converted in accordance with ASX Listing Rule 7.1B.1 will be calculated based on the market price of Ordinary Shares at the close of trade on the trading day prior to the date of issue of this Prospectus; and
- a confirmation that the timetable for the Offer (including the Reinvestment Offer) is acceptable.

ASX has also agreed to allow Notes to trade on a deferred settlement basis for a short time following the issue of the Notes (subject to certain conditions).

Westpac has also received the following ASX confirmations in relation to Westpac CPS and the Reinvestment Offer:

- that the amendments to the terms of the Westpac CPS Terms as described in Section 3.1 are appropriate and equitable for the purposes of ASX Listing Rule 6.1;
- that the Pro-Rata Westpac CPS Dividend and the Final Westpac CPS Dividend are permitted under ASX Listing Rule 6.10; and
- that the timetable for the Reinvestment Offer is acceptable.

7.12 Foreign selling restrictions

7.12.1 Other foreign jurisdictions

The distribution of this Prospectus (including an electronic copy) in jurisdictions outside Australia may be restricted by law. If you come into possession of this Prospectus in jurisdictions outside Australia, then you should seek advice on, and observe, any such restrictions. If you fail to comply with such restrictions, that failure may constitute a violation of applicable securities laws. This Prospectus does not constitute an offer in any jurisdiction in which, or to any person to whom, it would not be lawful to make such an offer. No action has been taken to register or qualify Notes or the Offer or to otherwise permit a public offering of Notes in any jurisdiction outside Australia.

7.12.2 United States

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the US Securities Act or the securities laws of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States and may not be offered, sold, delivered or transferred in the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, any US Person. Neither this Prospectus nor any Application Form or other materials relating to the Offer may be distributed in the United States.

Each of the Joint Lead Managers has agreed that it will not offer, sell, deliver or transfer the Notes within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, US Persons (i) as part of their distribution at any time or (ii) otherwise until 40 days after the later of the commencement of the Offer and Issue Date (the “Distribution Compliance Period”), and it will have sent to each dealer, distributor or other relevant parties to which Notes are Allocated during the Distribution Compliance Period a confirmation or other notice setting forth the restrictions on offers, sales, deliveries and transfers of the Notes within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, US Persons.

In addition, until 40 days after the commencement of the Offer, an offer or sale of Notes within the United States by any dealer that is not participating in the Offer may violate the registration requirements of the US Securities Act.

Each of the Joint Lead Managers has agreed that (i) neither it, its affiliates nor any persons acting on its or their behalf have engaged or will engage in any directed selling efforts within the meaning of Rule 902 under the US Securities Act with respect to the Notes, and it and they have complied with and will comply with the offering restrictions requirement of Regulation S under the US Securities Act and (ii) it has not entered and will not enter into any contractual arrangement with any person with respect to the distribution of the Notes, unless such person has agreed in writing that all offers and sales of the Notes prior to the expiration of the Distribution Compliance Period shall be made only in accordance with the OMA and Regulation S under the US Securities Act.

7.12.3 New Zealand

This Prospectus has not been and will not be registered in New Zealand, and no advertisement or offering material relating to the Notes may be distributed in New Zealand. Notes may not be offered or sold directly or indirectly in New Zealand, other than to a “wholesale investor” as that term is defined in clause 3(2) of Schedule 1 to the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013 of New Zealand (“FCMA”), being:

- a person who is:
 - an “investment business”;
 - “large”; or
 - a “government agency”, in each case as defined in Schedule 1 to the FMCA; or
- a person who meets the “investment activity criteria” specified in clause 38 of Schedule 1 to the FMCA.

7.13 Acknowledgment and privacy statement

By completing and submitting an Application Form or making an online Application you acknowledge that you have read this Prospectus.

Westpac is required to collect certain information about Holders under company and tax law. Applicants will be asked to provide personal information to Westpac (directly or via its agents, including the Registrar). You acknowledge that the personal information submitted as part of and the Application Form or other forms and otherwise provided to Westpac (directly or via its agents, including the Registrar) will be collected, used and disclosed by Westpac (and its agents, including the Registrar) in order to process your Application, service your needs as a Holder (and following Conversion, if applicable, your holding of Ordinary Shares), provide facilities and services that you request, carry out appropriate administration, send you information about the products and services of members of the Westpac Group, including future offers of securities and as otherwise required or authorised by law (including, without limitation, any law relating to taxation, money laundering or counter-terrorism).

Such disclosure may include disclosure to third parties including other members of the Westpac Group and to Westpac’s agents, service providers, auditors and advisers. Such disclosure may also include disclosure to domestic and overseas regulators or other government agencies (including ASIC and the ATO), stock exchanges, and the public by way of public registers maintained by regulators or other bodies. Some of these recipients may be located outside Australia where your personal information may not receive the same level of protection as afforded under Australian law. You acknowledge that if you do not provide the personal information required by the Application Form or other forms, it might not be possible to process your Application, administer your securityholding and/or send you information about the products and services of members of the Westpac Group, including future offers of securities.

If you do not wish to receive information about the products and services of members of the Westpac Group, including future offers of securities, please contact the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Information Line (Monday to Friday, 8.30am to 5.30pm, Sydney time) on 1300 784 494 and request that Westpac does not send you marketing material.

Westpac’s privacy policy is available on Westpac’s website at www.westpac.com.au/privacy and contains information about how you may access and seek correction of the personal information that Westpac holds about you, how you may complain about a breach of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) by Westpac and how Westpac will deal with such a complaint.

7.14 Governing law

This Prospectus and the contracts that arise from the acceptance of Applications are governed by the laws applicable in New South Wales, Australia and each Applicant submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of New South Wales, Australia.

Section 8

Applying for Westpac Capital Notes 5

This Section sets out:

8.1 The Offer

8.2 Applying for Westpac Capital Notes 5

8.3 Allocation and Allotment

8.4 ASX quotation, trading and Holding Statements

8.5 Holding information

8.6 Enquiries

WARNING - Westpac Capital Notes 5 are not deposit liabilities of Westpac, are riskier than bank deposits and may not be suitable for some investors. Their overall complexity may make them difficult to understand and the risks associated with the Notes could result in the loss of all of your investment. If you do not fully understand how they work or the risks associated with them, you should obtain professional advice.

8.1 The Offer

The Offer is for the issue of Notes at the Issue Price of $100 each to raise approximately $1.45 billion, with the ability to raise more or less.

The Offer consists of:

- a Reinvestment Offer – to Eligible Westpac CPS Holders;
- a Securityholder Offer – to Eligible Securityholders;
- a Broker Firm Offer – to Australian resident clients of the Syndicate Brokers; and
- an Institutional Offer – to Institutional Investors invited by Westpac Institutional Bank to bid for any Notes in the Bookbuild.

Westpac will give priority to Applications received under the Reinvestment Offer (including Applications made through Syndicate Brokers) when Allocating the Notes. This priority does not apply to Applications for additional Notes by Eligible Westpac CPS Holders.

There is no general public offer of the Notes. However, Westpac reserves the right to accept Applications from other persons at its discretion.

Westpac and the Joint Lead Managers may, in their absolute discretion, close the Offer early or extend the Offer Period without notice. Westpac may also withdraw the Offer at any time before Notes are issued. Accordingly, if you wish to apply for any Notes, you are encouraged to do so as soon as possible after the Opening Date.

No action has been taken to register or qualify Notes or otherwise permit a public offer of the Notes in any jurisdiction outside Australia. See Section 7.12 which details selling restrictions applicable to the Offer.

Applications must be for a minimum of 50 Notes ($5,000). If your Application is for more than 50 Notes, then you must apply in multiples of 10 Notes ($1,000) thereafter. For further details about how this applies to the Reinvestment Offer, please see Section 8.2.1. Please also see Section 3 for further details about the Reinvestment Offer.

Reinvestment Application Forms or Securityholder Application Forms and Application Payments (if applicable) will not be accepted at any other address (including Westpac's registered office or any other Westpac office or branch).

8.2.5 Brokerage, stamp duty and other ongoing fees and costs

No brokerage or stamp duty is payable to Westpac on your Application. You may have to pay brokerage on any later sale of your Notes on ASX after Notes have been quoted on ASX.

You will not be required to pay any ongoing fees or other costs following the issue of the Notes. The costs of carrying out the Offer and maintaining an ASX listing for the Notes will be paid by Westpac.

8.2.6 Refunds and interest

All Application Payments received by the Registrar or through BPAY before the Notes are issued will be held by Westpac in a non-interest bearing bank account established solely for the purpose of depositing Application Payments received.

If you are not Allocated any Notes or you are Allocated fewer Notes than the number that you applied for as a result of a scaleback, all or some of your Application Payment (as applicable) will be returned to you (without interest) as soon as possible after the Issue Date.

If you are an Eligible Westpac CPS Holder and you have applied for additional Notes under the Reinvestment Offer and your Application for additional Notes is scaled back, you will have the applicable part of your Application Payment refunded to you (without interest) as soon as possible after the Issue Date.

In addition, if the Offer does not proceed for any reason, Applicants will have their Application Payments refunded to them (without interest).

If you have elected to apply to reinvest some or all of your Westpac CPS under the Reinvestment Offer and the Offer does not proceed, your Westpac CPS will remain on issue and be dealt with in accordance with the Westpac CPS Terms. You will be paid the Pro-Rata Westpac CPS Dividend on 13 March 2018 (to the extent it has not been paid and provided the dividend payment test in the Westpac CPS Terms is satisfied). In addition, your Westpac CPS are expected to be transferred to the Westpac CPS Nominated Party on 3 April 2018¹ (subject to the Westpac CPS Terms). On that date, you will be paid the transfer proceeds of $100 per Westpac CPS you still hold on 3 April 2018, and you will be paid the Final Westpac CPS Dividend for each Westpac CPS you hold on the Final Westpac CPS Dividend Record Date (provided the dividend payment test in the Westpac CPS Terms is satisfied).

Any Application Payment in respect of additional Notes will be refunded to you. No interest will be payable on any Application Payment in respect of additional Notes received from Eligible Westpac CPS Holders.

8.3 Allocation and Allotment

8.3.1 Allocation, scaleback and priority

The Allocation policy for any Notes applied for under the Reinvestment Offer, including any additional Notes, and any Application under the Securityholder Offer will be determined by Westpac in consultation with the Joint Lead Managers at the close of the Offer. This Allocation policy and any scaleback will be announced on ASX on or before the day the Notes commence trading on a deferred settlement basis, which is expected to be 14 March 2018.

There is no guaranteed Allocation under the Offer, but Westpac will give priority to Applications received under the Reinvestment Offer, including Applications from Eligible Westpac CPS Holders received through Syndicate Brokers under the Broker Firm Offer. This priority does not apply to Applications for additional Notes by Eligible Westpac CPS Holders.

Westpac reserves the right not to accept Applications from any Applicant and Westpac and the Joint Lead Managers reserve the right to Allocate any Eligible Westpac CPS Holder or Eligible Securityholder a lesser number of Notes than applied for, including less than the minimum Application of 50 Notes ($5,000). Westpac and the Joint Lead Managers also reserve the right to scale back Applications and to treat Applications in excess of $250,000 as part of the Institutional Offer.

If you are an Eligible Westpac CPS Holder and you apply for additional Notes, your Application for additional Notes may be scaled back if there is excess demand for the Offer.

The Allocation policy for Joint Lead Managers, Co-Managers and Institutional Investors was determined under the Bookbuild – see Sections 7.6 and 8.3. Westpac and the Joint Lead Managers have the right to nominate the persons to whom Notes were or will be Allocated, including in respect of firm Allocations to Syndicate Brokers and Institutional Investors under the Bookbuild.

Allocations to Broker Firm Applicants by a Syndicate Broker are at the discretion of that Syndicate Broker.

Westpac also reserves the right not to issue any Notes. In this instance no Applicants will receive an Allocation.

8.3.2 Allotment

Westpac intends to issue and Allot approximately 14,500,000 Notes at an Issue Price of $100 each, to raise approximately $1.45 billion with the ability to raise more or less.

Westpac will not Allot any Notes until it has been granted approval for the Notes to be quoted on ASX and all proceeds from accepted Applications have been received by Westpac. Subject to approval for quotation being granted, Westpac intends to Allot the Notes on 13 March 2018. Westpac and the Joint Lead Managers may, in their absolute discretion, close the Offer early or extend the Offer Period without notice. Westpac may also withdraw the Offer at any time before Notes are issued.

1. The first Westpac CPS Optional Conversion/Redemption Date of 31 March 2018 is not a business day for the purposes of the Westpac CPS Terms and accordingly the transfer of Non-Participating Westpac CPS will occur, and Final Westpac CPS Dividend payment will be made, on the next business day (being 3 April 2018).

8.4 ASX quotation, trading and Holding Statements

8.4.1 ASX quotation

Westpac has applied for the Notes to be quoted on ASX. Quotation is not guaranteed. If ASX does not grant permission for the Notes to be quoted, then the Notes will not be issued and Application Payments will be refunded (without interest) to Applicants as soon as possible.

It is expected that the Notes will be quoted under ASX code WBCPH.

8.4.2 Trading

It is expected that the Notes will begin trading on ASX on a deferred settlement basis on 14 March 2018. Trading of the Notes on a deferred settlement basis is expected to continue until the dispatch of Holding Statements is completed, which is expected to occur on or by 20 March 2018. It is expected that trading of the Notes will begin on a normal settlement basis on 21 March 2018.

You are responsible for confirming your Allocation before trading Notes to avoid the risk of selling Notes you do not own. If you sell your Notes before you receive confirmation of your Allocation, you do so at your own risk. To assist you in determining your Allocation prior to receipt of your Holding Statement, Westpac will announce the basis of Allocation by placing advertisements in two major national newspapers in Australia on or before 14 March 2018.

If you are a Broker Firm Applicant (including an Eligible Westpac CPS Holder reinvesting in Notes through a Syndicate Broker) you should contact your Syndicate Broker to find out your Allocation prior to receiving your Holding Statement. If you have applied under the Reinvestment Offer or the Securityholder Offer, you should call the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Information Line (Monday to Friday, 8.30am to 5.30pm, Sydney time) on 1300 784 494.

8.4.3 Holding Statements

Westpac expects Holding Statements will be dispatched to successful Applicants on or by 20 March 2018. Westpac has applied for the Notes to participate in CHESS. Westpac does not intend to quote the Notes on any securities exchange apart from ASX. No certificates will be issued for the Notes.

8.5 Holding information

Applicants issued with Notes under the Offer will be sent a new investor pack shortly after the Issue Date. In addition to a Holding Statement, this pack will contain important information relating to your holding of Westpac Capital Notes 5.

8.5.1 Provision of bank account details for Distributions and other payments

Westpac will direct credit payment of Distributions, repayment of Face Value and other amounts relating to the Notes into an Australian dollar account of a financial institution nominated by you. Westpac will not pay Distributions on the Notes or other payments by cheque.

As part of the new investor pack for the Notes, you will have the opportunity to provide or update your bank account details. Please provide these account details to the Registrar as soon as possible.

If your Notes are issued under an existing holding number with Westpac, your current elections, including bank account details, will apply to the Notes unless you advise the Registrar otherwise.

If the payment of any money to your account does not complete for any reason, Westpac will send a notice to the postal address or email address most recently notified by you advising of the uncompleted payment. In that case, the amount of the uncompleted payment will be held as a deposit in a non-interest bearing account until one of the following occurs:

- you nominate a suitable Australian dollar account maintained in Australia with a financial institution to which the payment may be credited; or
- Westpac is entitled or obliged to deal with the amount in accordance with the law relating to unclaimed moneys.

No interest is payable in respect of any delay in payment.

8.5.2 Provision of Tax File Number or Australian Business Number

The Registrar will invite Holders to quote or update their TFN, ABN or both. A Holder may, but is not required to, quote their TFN or ABN. If a Holder does not quote a TFN (or in certain circumstances an ABN) or proof of exemption, Westpac may be required to withhold Australian taxation at the maximum marginal tax rate including the Medicare Levy (currently 47% of the unfranked amount) from any Distribution payable on Notes which is not fully franked and remit the amount withheld to the ATO. You should also read the information about Australian tax consequences for Holders in Section 6.

If your Notes are issued under an existing holding number with Westpac, your current elections, including TFN or ABN details, will apply to the Notes unless you advise the Registrar otherwise.

8.6 Enquiries

If you have any questions on how to apply for Notes, you should contact the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Information Line (Monday to Friday, 8.30am to 5.30pm, Sydney time) on 1300 784 494.

If you are unclear in relation to any matter or are uncertain if the Notes are a suitable investment for you, you should consult your financial adviser or other professional adviser.

If you are a Broker Firm Applicant and you are in any doubt about what action you should take, you should contact your Syndicate Broker.

Westpac Capital Notes 5 Terms

WARNING - Westpac Capital Notes 5 are not deposit liabilities of Westpac, are riskier than bank deposits and may not be suitable for some investors. Their overall complexity may make them difficult to understand and the risks associated with the Notes could result in the loss of all of your investment. If you do not fully understand how they work or the risks associated with them, you should obtain professional advice.

1 Form and Initial Face Value of Westpac Capital Notes 5

1.1 Form

Westpac Capital Notes 5:

- (a) are non-cumulative, convertible, transferable, redeemable, subordinated, perpetual, unsecured notes of Westpac;
- (b) are designated as being of a particular series as set out in the Prospectus;
- (c) are constituted under and issued on the terms set out in the Deed Poll and these Terms; and
- (d) take the form of entries in the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Register.

1.2 Initial Face Value

Each Westpac Capital Note 5 is issued fully paid at an issue price of $100.

2 Ranking on Winding Up

- (a) Holders do not have any right to prove in a Winding Up in respect of Westpac Capital Notes 5, except as permitted under clause 2(b).
- (b) Westpac Capital Notes 5 will rank for payment of the Liquidation Sum in a Winding Up:
 - (i) senior to Ordinary Shares;
 - (ii) equally among themselves and with all other Equal Ranking Capital Securities; and
 - (iii) junior to, and are conditional on the prior payment in full of, the claims of all Senior Creditors (including in respect of any entitlement to interest under section 563B of the Corporations Act).
- (c) Holders may not exercise voting rights as a creditor in respect of Westpac Capital Notes 5 in a Winding Up to defeat the subordination in this clause.
- (d) Westpac Capital Notes 5 are perpetual and these Terms do not include events of default or any other provisions entitling the Holders to require that Westpac Capital Notes 5 be Redeemed. Holders do not have any right to apply for a Winding Up on the ground of Westpac's failure to pay Distributions or for any other reason.
- (e) For the avoidance of doubt, but subject to clause 5.8, if a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event has occurred, Holders will rank for payment in a Winding Up as holders of the number of Ordinary Shares to which they became entitled under clauses 5.2 or 5.4.

3 Distributions

3.1 Distributions

Subject to these Terms, each Westpac Capital Note 5 entitles the Holder to receive on the relevant Distribution Payment Date interest on the Face Value of the Westpac Capital Note 5 ("Distribution"), calculated using the following formula:

$$\text{Distribution} = \frac{\text{Distribution Rate} \times \text{Face Value} \times \text{N}}{365}$$

where:

Distribution Rate (expressed as a percentage per annum) is calculated using the following formula:

$$\text{Distribution Rate} = \frac{\text{Bank Bill Rate} + \text{Margin}}{1 - \text{Tax Rate}}$$

where:

Bank Bill Rate (expressed as a percentage per annum) means, for each Distribution Period, the average rate for bills of a term of 90 days which average rate is displayed on Thomson Reuters page BBSW (or any page that replaces that page) at such time at which such rate customarily appears on that page on, in the case of the first Distribution Period, the Issue Date, and in the case of any other Distribution Period, the first Business Day of that Distribution Period, or if there is a manifest error in the calculation of that average rate or that average rate is not displayed by such time that is 15 minutes after the then prevailing time at which such rate customarily appears on that page on that date, the rate specified in good faith by Westpac at or around that time on that date having regard, to the extent possible, to:

- (a) the rates otherwise bid and offered for bills of a term of 90 days or for funds of that tenor displayed on Thomson Reuters page BBSW (or any page which replaces that page) at or around that time on that date; and
- (b) if bid and offer rates for bills of a term of 90 days are not otherwise available, the rates otherwise bid and offered for funds of that tenor at or around that time on that date;

Margin means 3.20% per annum;

Tax Rate (expressed as a decimal) means the Australian corporate tax rate applicable to the franking account of Westpac at the relevant Distribution Payment Date; and

N means, in respect of a Distribution Period, the number of days in that Distribution Period.

3.2 Adjustment to calculation of Distributions if not fully franked

If payment of any Distribution will not be franked to 100% under Part 3-6 of the Tax Act (or any provisions that revise or replace that Part), otherwise than because of any act by, or circumstances affecting, any particular Holder, the Distribution will be calculated using the following formula:

$$\text{Distribution} = \frac{\text{D}}{1 - [\text{Tax Rate} \times (1 - \text{Franking Rate})]}$$

where:

D means the Distribution entitlement on that Distribution Payment Date as calculated under clause 3.1;

Tax Rate (expressed as a decimal) means the Australian corporate tax rate applicable to the franking account of Westpac at the relevant Distribution Payment Date; and

Franking Rate (expressed as a decimal) means the percentage of Distribution that would carry franking credits

(within the meaning of Part 3-6 of the Tax Act or any provisions that revise or replace that Part), applicable to the relevant Distribution entitlement on that Distribution Payment Date.

3.3 Conditions to payment of Distributions

- (a) The payment of any Distribution on a Distribution Payment Date is subject to:
 - (i) Westpac's absolute discretion;
 - (ii) the payment of the Distribution not resulting in a breach of Westpac's capital requirements (on a Level 1 basis) or of the Westpac Group's capital requirements (on a Level 2 basis) under the then current Prudential Standards at the time of the payment;
 - (iii) the payment of the Distribution not resulting in Westpac becoming, or being likely to become, insolvent for the purposes of the Corporations Act; and
 - (iv) APRA not otherwise objecting to the payment of the Distribution.
- (b) Westpac must notify ASX as soon as reasonably practicable if payment of any Distribution will not be made because of this clause.

3.4 Distributions are discretionary, non-cumulative and only payable in cash

- (a) Payments of Distributions are within the absolute discretion of Westpac and are non-cumulative. If a Distribution is not paid because of the provisions of clause 3.3 or because of any other reason, Westpac has no liability to pay such Distribution to the Holder and the Holder has no:
 - (i) claim (including, without limitation, on a Winding Up); or
 - (ii) right to apply for a Winding Up, in respect of such non-payment.
- (b) Any payments of Distributions to Holders must be made in the form of cash.
- (c) Non-payment of a Distribution because of the provisions of clause 3.3, or because of any other reason, does not constitute an event of default.

3.5 Distribution Payment Date

Distributions in respect of Westpac Capital Notes 5 are payable:

- (a) quarterly in arrear on 22 March, 22 June, 22 September and 22 December of each year, commencing on 22 June 2018 until that Westpac Capital Note 5 has been Converted at its full Face Value (or terminated following a failure to Convert) or Redeemed, in each case in accordance with these Terms; and
- (b) on the Conversion Date (other than a Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date), Redemption Date or Transfer Date (as the case may be) on which such Westpac Capital Note 5 is Converted, Redeemed or Transferred, in each case in accordance with these Terms

(each a "Distribution Payment Date").

3.6 Record Dates

Distributions are only payable on a Distribution Payment Date to those persons registered as Holders on the Record Date for that Distribution Payment Date.

3.7 Restrictions in the case of non-payment of a Distribution

Subject to clause 3.8, if for any reason a Distribution has not been paid in full on the relevant Distribution Payment Date, Westpac must not:

- (a) determine or pay any Dividends; or
- (b) undertake any discretionary Buy Back or Capital Reduction, unless the amount of the unpaid Distribution is paid in full within 20 Business Days of that Distribution Payment Date or:

- (c) all Westpac Capital Notes 5 have been Converted at their full Face Value (or terminated following a failure to Convert) or Redeemed;
- (d) on a subsequent Distribution Payment Date, a Distribution for the subsequent Distribution Period is paid in full; or
- (e) a Special Resolution of the Holders has been passed approving such action, and, in respect of the actions contemplated by paragraphs (c), (d) and (e), APRA does not otherwise object.

3.8 Restrictions not to apply in certain circumstances

The restrictions in clause 3.7 do not apply in connection with:

- (a) any employment contract, benefit plan or other similar arrangement with or for the benefit of any one or more employees, officers, directors or consultants of Westpac or any member of the Westpac Group; or
- (b) Westpac or any of its controlled entities purchasing shares in Westpac in connection with transactions for the account of customers of Westpac or any of its controlled entities or in connection with the distribution or trading of shares in Westpac in the ordinary course of business (such distribution or trading of shares in the ordinary course of business is subject to the prior written approval of APRA); or
- (c) to the extent that at the time a Distribution has not been paid on the relevant Distribution Payment Date, Westpac is legally obliged to pay on or after that date a Dividend or complete on or after that date a Buy Back or Capital Reduction.

3.9 Notification

- (a) In relation to each Distribution Period, Westpac must notify the ASX of the Distribution Rate and the amount of Distribution payable on each Westpac Capital Note 5.
- (b) Westpac must give notice under this clause 3.9 as soon as practicable after it makes its calculations or determinations and, in any event, by no later than the fifth Business Day of the relevant Distribution Period.

- (c) Westpac may amend the calculation or determination of any amount, date, or rate (or make appropriate alternative arrangements by way of adjustment) including as a result of the extension or reduction of a Distribution Period without prior notice, but must notify ASX promptly after doing so.

3.10 Calculations and determinations final

The calculation or determination by Westpac of all rates and amounts payable by it in relation to Westpac Capital Notes 5 is, in the absence of manifest or proven error, final and binding on Westpac, the Registrar and each Holder.

4 Scheduled Conversion

4.1 Scheduled Conversion

Subject to clauses 5, 6, 7 and 8, Westpac must Convert all (but not some) Westpac Capital Notes 5 on issue on the date that is the earlier of:

- (a) 22 September 2027; and
- (b) the first Distribution Payment Date after 22 September 2027, on which the Scheduled Conversion Conditions are satisfied (each a "Scheduled Conversion Date").

4.2 Scheduled Conversion Conditions

- (a) The Scheduled Conversion Conditions for each Scheduled Conversion Date are:
 - (i) the VWAP on the 25th Business Day on which trading in Ordinary Shares took place immediately preceding (but not including) the Scheduled Conversion Date is greater than 56.12% of the Issue Date VWAP ("First Scheduled Conversion Condition"); and
 - (ii) the VWAP during the period of 20 Business Days on which trading in Ordinary Shares took place immediately preceding (but not including) the Scheduled Conversion Date is greater than 50.51% of the Issue Date VWAP (the "Second Scheduled Conversion Condition").
- (b) If the First Scheduled Conversion Condition is not satisfied, Westpac will announce to ASX not less than 21 Business Days before the Scheduled Conversion Date that Conversion will not proceed on the Scheduled Conversion Date.
- (c) If the Second Scheduled Conversion Condition is not satisfied, Westpac will notify Holders on or as soon as practicable after the Scheduled Conversion Date that Conversion did not occur.

5 Automatic Conversion

5.1 Capital Trigger Event

A Capital Trigger Event occurs when:

- (a) Westpac determines; or
- (b) APRA notifies Westpac in writing that it believes, that either or both the Westpac Level 1 Common Equity Tier 1 Capital Ratio or Westpac Level 2 Common Equity Tier 1 Capital Ratio is equal to or less than 5.125%.

5.2 Consequences of a Capital Trigger Event

- (a) Westpac must notify APRA immediately in writing if it determines that a Capital Trigger Event has occurred.
- (b) If a Capital Trigger Event occurs, Westpac must Convert such number of Westpac Capital Notes 5 (or, if it so determines, such percentage of the Face Value of each Westpac Capital Note 5) as is sufficient (following any conversion or write down of other Relevant Securities as referred to in paragraph 5.2(c)(i) below) to return either or both the Westpac Level 1 Common Equity Tier 1 Capital Ratio or Westpac Level 2 Common Equity Tier 1 Capital Ratio, as the case may be, to above 5.125%.
- (c) In determining the number of Westpac Capital Notes 5, or percentage of the Face Value of each Westpac Capital Note 5, which must be Converted in accordance with this clause, Westpac will:
 - (i) first, convert or write down such number or percentage of the face value of any other Relevant Securities whose terms require them to be converted or written down, before Conversion of Westpac Capital Notes 5; and
 - (ii) second, if conversion or write down of those Relevant Securities is not sufficient, Convert (in the case of Westpac Capital Notes 5) and convert or write down (in the case of any other Relevant Securities) on a pro-rata basis or in a manner that is otherwise, in the opinion of Westpac, fair and reasonable, the Face Value of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 and the face value of any Relevant Securities whose terms require or permit them to be converted or written down in that manner (subject to such adjustment as Westpac may determine to take into account the effect on marketable parcels and whole numbers of Ordinary Shares and any Westpac Capital Notes 5 or other Relevant Securities remaining on issue), but such determination will not impede the immediate Conversion of the relevant number of Westpac Capital Notes 5 or percentage of the Face Value of each Westpac Capital Note 5 (as the case may be) or, if applicable, the termination of the relevant Holder's rights and claims in accordance with clause 5.8.
- (d) If a Capital Trigger Event occurs:
 - (i) the relevant number of Westpac Capital Notes 5, or percentage of the Face Value of each Westpac Capital Note 5, must be Converted immediately upon occurrence of the Capital Trigger Event in accordance with clauses 5.7 and 9 and the Conversion will be irrevocable;
 - (ii) Westpac must give notice as soon as practicable that Conversion has occurred to ASX and the Holders;
 - (iii) the notice must specify the date on which the Capital Trigger Event occurred ("Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date"); and
 - (iv) the notice must specify the details of the Conversion process, including any details which were taken into account in relation to the effect on marketable parcels and whole numbers of Ordinary Shares, and the impact on any Westpac Capital Notes 5 remaining on issue.

- (e) Failure or delay in undertaking any of the steps in clauses 5.2(d)(ii) to (iv), or in quotation of the Ordinary Shares to be issued on Conversion, does not prevent, invalidate, delay or otherwise impede Conversion.

5.3 Non-Viability Trigger Event

A Non-Viability Trigger Event occurs when APRA notifies Westpac in writing that it believes:

- (a) Conversion of all or some Westpac Capital Notes 5, or conversion or write down of capital instruments of the Westpac Group, is necessary because, without it, Westpac would become non-viable; or
- (b) a public sector injection of capital, or equivalent support, is necessary because, without it, Westpac would become non-viable.

5.4 Consequences of a Non-Viability Trigger Event

- (a) If a Non-Viability Trigger Event occurs, Westpac must Convert such number of Westpac Capital Notes 5 (or, if it so determines, such percentage of the Face Value of each Westpac Capital Note 5) as is equal (following any conversion or write down of other Relevant Securities as referred to in paragraph 5.4(b)(ii)(A) below) to the aggregate face value of capital instruments which APRA has notified Westpac must be converted or written down (or, if APRA has not so notified Westpac, such number of Westpac Capital Notes 5 or, if Westpac so determines, such percentage of the Face Value of each Westpac Capital Note 5, as is necessary to satisfy APRA that Westpac will no longer be non-viable).
- (b) In determining the number of Westpac Capital Notes 5, or percentage of the Face Value of each Westpac Capital Note 5, which must be Converted in accordance with this clause, Westpac will:
- (i) where a Non-Viability Trigger Event occurs under clause 5.3(b), Convert at their full Face Value all of the Westpac Capital Notes 5; or
- (ii) in all other circumstances:
- (A) first, convert or write down such number or percentage of the face value of any other Relevant Securities whose terms require them to be converted or written down before Conversion of Westpac Capital Notes 5; and
- (B) second, if conversion or write down of those securities is not sufficient, Convert (in the case of Westpac Capital Notes 5) and convert or write down (in the case of any other Relevant Securities), on a pro-rata basis or in a manner that is otherwise, in the opinion of Westpac, fair and reasonable, the Face Value of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 and the face value of any Relevant Securities whose terms require or permit them to be converted or written down in that manner (subject to such adjustments as Westpac may determine to take into account the effect on marketable parcels and whole numbers of Ordinary Shares and any Westpac Capital Notes 5 or other Relevant Securities remaining on issue), but such determination will not impede the immediate Conversion of the relevant number of Westpac Capital Notes 5 or percentage of the Face Value of each Westpac Capital Note 5 (as the case may be) or, if applicable, the termination of the relevant Holder's rights and claims in accordance with clause 5.8.

- (c) If a Non-Viability Trigger Event occurs:
- (i) the relevant number of Westpac Capital Notes 5, or percentage of the Face Value of each Westpac Capital Note 5, must be Converted immediately upon occurrence of the Non-Viability Trigger Event in accordance with clauses 5.7 and 9 and the Conversion will be irrevocable;
- (ii) Westpac must give notice as soon as practicable that Conversion has occurred to ASX and the Holders;
- (iii) the notice must specify the date on which the Non-Viability Trigger Event occurred ("Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date"); and
- (iv) the notice must specify the details of the Conversion process, including any details which were taken into account in relation to the effect on marketable parcels and whole numbers of Ordinary Shares, and the impact on any Westpac Capital Notes 5 remaining on issue.
- (d) Failure to undertake any of the steps in clauses 5.4(c)(ii) to (iv) does not prevent, invalidate, delay or otherwise impede Conversion.

5.5 Scheduled Conversion Conditions not applicable

For the avoidance of doubt, the Scheduled Conversion Conditions do not apply to Conversion as a result of a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event.

5.6 Priority of early Conversion obligations

A Conversion required because of a Capital Trigger Event or a Non-Viability Trigger Event takes place on the date, and in the manner, required by clauses 5.2, 5.4, 5.7 and 5.8, notwithstanding any other provision for Conversion, Redemption or Transfer in these Terms.

5.7 Automatic Conversion upon the occurrence of a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event

If a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event has occurred and all or some Westpac Capital Notes 5 (or percentage of the Face Value of each Westpac Capital Note 5) are required to be Converted in accordance with clauses 5.2 or 5.4, then:

- (a) Conversion of the relevant Westpac Capital Notes 5 or percentage of the Face Value of each Westpac Capital Note 5 will be taken to have occurred in accordance with clause 9 immediately upon the Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date;
- (b) subject to clause 9.10, the entry of the corresponding Westpac Capital Notes 5 in each relevant Holder's holding in the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Register will constitute an entitlement of that Holder to the relevant number of Ordinary Shares (and, if applicable, also to any remaining balance of Westpac Capital Notes 5 or Westpac Capital Notes 5 with a Face Value equal to the aggregate of the remaining percentage of the Face Value of each Westpac Capital Note 5), and Westpac will recognise the Holder as having been issued the relevant Ordinary Shares for all purposes, in each case without the need for any further act or step by Westpac, the Holder or any other person (and Westpac will, as soon as possible thereafter and without delay on the part of Westpac, take any appropriate procedural steps to record such Conversion, including updating the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Register and the Ordinary Share register); and

- (c) subject to clause 9.10, upon Conversion a Holder has no further right or claim under these Terms in respect of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Converted, except in relation to the relevant number of Ordinary Shares and the Holder's entitlement, if any, to Westpac Capital Notes 5 representing the unconverted outstanding Face Value.

5.8 No further rights if Conversion does not occur for any reason

If, for any reason, Conversion of any Westpac Capital Notes 5 (or a percentage of the Face Value of any Westpac Capital Notes 5) required to be Converted under clauses 5.2 or 5.4 fails to take effect under clauses 5.7(a) and (b) or does not occur for any other reason and the Ordinary Shares are not issued for any reason in respect of such Conversion by 5.00pm on the fifth Business Day after the Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date, then:

- (a) such Westpac Capital Notes 5 or percentage of the Face Value of Westpac Capital Notes 5 will not be Converted in respect of such Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date (as the case may be) and will not be Converted, Redeemed or Transferred under these Terms on any subsequent date; and
- (b) the relevant Holders' rights (including to payment of Distributions and Face Value and any other payments) in relation to such Westpac Capital Notes 5 or percentage of the Face Value of Westpac Capital Notes 5 are immediately and irrevocably terminated and such termination will be taken to have occurred immediately upon the Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date, as the case may be.

5.9 Automatic Conversion upon the occurrence of an Acquisition Event

- (a) If an Acquisition Event occurs, then:
- (i) Westpac must Convert all (but not some) Westpac Capital Notes 5;
- (ii) Westpac must give notice as soon as practicable and in any event within 10 Business Days after becoming aware of that event occurring to ASX and the Holders;
- (iii) the notice must specify a date on which it is proposed Conversion will occur (proposed "Acquisition Event Conversion Date") being:
- (A) in the case of an Acquisition Event that is a takeover bid, no later than the Business Day prior to the then announced closing date of the relevant takeover bid; or

(B) in the case of an Acquisition Event that is a court approved scheme, a date no later than the record date for participation in the relevant scheme of arrangement; and

- (iv) the notice must specify the details of the Conversion process including any details to take into account the effect on marketable parcels and whole numbers of Ordinary Shares; and
- (v) on the proposed Acquisition Event Conversion Date, all Westpac Capital Notes 5 will Convert in accordance with clause 9.
- (b) The Second Scheduled Conversion Condition applies to a Conversion following an Acquisition Event as though the proposed Acquisition Event Conversion Date were a Scheduled Conversion Date for the purposes of clause 4 (except that in the case of an Acquisition Event, the Second Scheduled Conversion Condition will apply as if it referred to 20.20% of the Issue Date VWAP). If the Second Scheduled Conversion Condition is not satisfied, the Westpac Capital Notes 5 will not Convert.
- (c) If the Second Scheduled Conversion Condition is not satisfied on the proposed Acquisition Event Conversion Date, Westpac will notify Holders as soon as practicable after the proposed Acquisition Event Conversion Date that Conversion did not occur.

5.10 Issue of ordinary shares of Approved Successor

Where there is a replacement of Westpac as the ultimate holding company of the Westpac Group and the successor holding company is an Approved Successor, Conversion of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 may not occur as a consequence of the Replacement (as defined in clause 13.4(a)). Instead, these Terms may be amended in accordance with clause 13.4.

6 Optional Conversion

6.1 Conversion at the option of Westpac

- (a) Subject to the other provisions of this clause 6, Westpac may at its option Convert in accordance with clause 9:
- (i) all or some Westpac Capital Notes 5 on 22 September 2025; or
- (ii) all (but not some) of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 on an Optional Conversion Date following the occurrence of a Tax Event or Regulatory Event.
- (b) If only some (but not all) Westpac Capital Notes 5 are to be Converted under clause 6.1(a)(i), those Westpac Capital Notes 5 to be Converted will be specified in the Optional Conversion Notice and selected:
- (i) in a manner that is, in the opinion of Westpac, fair and reasonable; and
- (ii) in compliance with any applicable law, directive or requirement of ASX.

6.2 Restriction on election to Convert

Westpac may only elect to Convert the Westpac Capital Notes 5 under clause 6.1(a) if on the second Business Day before the date on which an Optional Conversion Notice is to be sent by Westpac (or, if trading in Ordinary Shares did not occur on that date, the last Business Day prior to that date on which trading in Ordinary Shares occurred) the VWAP on that date is:

- (a) in respect of a Conversion under clause 6.1(a)(i), greater than 56.12% of the Issue Date VWAP; and
- (b) in respect of a Conversion under clause 6.1(a)(ii), greater than 22.20% of the Issue Date VWAP,

6.3 Optional Conversion Notice

- (a) Subject to clause 6.2, Westpac may only Convert under clause 6.1(a)(i) if Westpac has given an Optional Conversion Notice of its election to do so at least 25 Business Days before the proposed Optional Conversion Date to ASX and the Holders.
- (b) The Optional Conversion Notice must specify:
 - (i) the date on which it is proposed the Optional Conversion will occur, which:
 - (A) in the case of clause 6.1(a)(i), will be 22 September 2025; and
 - (B) in the case of a Tax Event or Regulatory Event, is the Next Distribution Payment Date, unless Westpac determines an earlier date having regard to the best interests of Holders as a whole and the relevant event;
 - (ii) whether any Distribution will be paid in respect of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 to be Converted on the Optional Conversion Date; and
 - (iii) the details of the Conversion process including any details to take into account the effect on marketable parcels and whole numbers of Ordinary Shares.

6.4 Restriction on Conversion on the Optional Conversion Date

- (a) The Second Scheduled Conversion Condition applies to an Optional Conversion as though the proposed Optional Conversion Date were a Scheduled Conversion Date for the purposes of clause 4 (except that in the case of an Optional Conversion following a Tax Event or Regulatory Event, the Second Scheduled Conversion Condition will apply as if it referred to 20.20% of the Issue Date VWAP).
- (b) If the Second Scheduled Conversion Condition is not satisfied on the proposed Optional Conversion Date:
 - (i) the Westpac Capital Notes 5 will not Convert; and
 - (ii) Westpac will notify Holders as soon as practicable after the proposed Optional Conversion Date that Conversion did not occur.

6.5 Deferred Conversion

If Westpac has given an Optional Conversion Notice under clause 6.3 and the Second Scheduled Conversion Condition (as if it applied on the Optional Conversion Date) is not satisfied, then, notwithstanding any other provision of these Terms:

- (a) the Optional Conversion Date will be deferred until the first Distribution Payment Date (under clause 3.5(a)) on which the Scheduled Conversion Conditions are satisfied (except that in the case of a Tax Event or Regulatory Event, the Second Scheduled Conversion Condition will apply as if it referred to 20.20% of the Issue Date VWAP) as if that Distribution Payment Date were a Scheduled Conversion Date for the purposes of clause 4 (the "Deferred Conversion Date");

- (b) Westpac must convert the Westpac Capital Notes 5 on the Deferred Conversion Date unless the Westpac Capital Notes 5 are Converted earlier in accordance with these Terms; and
- (c) until the Deferred Conversion Date, all rights attaching to the Westpac Capital Notes 5 will continue as if the Optional Conversion Notice had not been given.

6.6 Final Distribution

For the avoidance of doubt, Optional Conversion may occur even if Westpac, in its absolute discretion, does not pay a Distribution for the final Distribution Period.

6.7 No Conversion at the option of the Holders

Holders do not have a right to request Conversion of their Westpac Capital Notes 5 at any time.

7 Optional Redemption

7.1 Redemption at the option of Westpac

- (a) Subject to the other provisions of this clause 7, Westpac may at its option Redeem:
 - (i) all or some Westpac Capital Notes 5 on 22 September 2025; or
 - (ii) all (but not some) of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 on a Redemption Date following the occurrence of a Tax Event or Regulatory Event, in each case for their Face Value.
- (b) If only some (but not all) Westpac Capital Notes 5 are to be Redeemed under clause 7.1(a)(i), those Westpac Capital Notes 5 to be Redeemed will be specified in the Redemption Notice and selected:
 - (i) in a manner that is, in the opinion of Westpac, fair and reasonable; and
 - (ii) in compliance with any applicable law, directive or requirement of ASX.

7.2 Optional Redemption Notice

- (a) Westpac may only Redeem under clause 7.1(a) if Westpac has given a Redemption Notice of its election to do so at least 21 Business Days before the proposed Redemption Date to ASX and the Holders.
- (b) The Redemption Notice must specify:
 - (i) the date on which it is proposed the Redemption will occur, which must be:
 - (A) in the case of clause 7.1(a)(i), 22 September 2025;
 - (B) in the case of a Tax Event or Regulatory Event, the Next Distribution Payment Date, unless Westpac determines an earlier date having regard to the best interests of Holders as a whole and the relevant event; and
 - (ii) whether any Distribution will be paid in respect of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 to be Redeemed on the Redemption Date.

7.3 APRA approval to Redeem

Westpac may only Redeem under this clause 7 if:

- (a) either
 - (i) before or concurrently with Redemption, Westpac replaces Westpac Capital Notes 5 with a capital instrument which is of the same or better quality (for the purposes of the Prudential Standards) than Westpac Capital Notes 5 and the replacement of Westpac Capital Notes 5 is done under conditions that are sustainable for the income capacity of Westpac (for the purposes of the Prudential Standards); or
 - (ii) Westpac obtains confirmation from APRA that APRA is satisfied, having regard to the capital position of Westpac and the Westpac Group, that Westpac does not have to replace Westpac Capital Notes 5; and
- (b) APRA has given its prior written approval to the Redemption. Approval is at the discretion of APRA and may or may not be given.

7.4 Final Distribution

For the avoidance of doubt, Redemption may occur even if Westpac, in its absolute discretion, does not pay a Distribution for the final Distribution Period.

7.5 No Redemption at the option of the Holders

7.6 Effect of Redemption Notice

Subject to any early Conversion required because of a Capital Trigger Event or a Non-Viability Trigger Event and any termination of rights under clause 5.8, any Redemption Notice given under this clause 7 is irrevocable and Westpac must (subject to clause 11.1) Redeem Westpac Capital Notes 5 on the Redemption Date specified in that Redemption Notice.

8 Optional Transfer

8.1 Transfer at the option of Westpac

- (a) Westpac may elect that Transfer occur in relation to:
 - (i) all or some Westpac Capital Notes 5 on 22 September 2025; or
 - (ii) all (but not some) of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 on a Transfer Date following the occurrence of a Tax Event or Regulatory Event.
- (b) If only some (but not all) Westpac Capital Notes 5 are to be Transferred under clause 8.1(a)(i), the number of Westpac Capital Notes 5 to be Transferred will be specified in the Transfer Notice and selected:
 - (i) in a manner that is, in the opinion of Westpac, fair and reasonable; and
 - (ii) in compliance with any applicable law, directive or requirement of ASX.

8.2 Optional Transfer Notice

- (a) Westpac may only elect to Transfer Westpac Capital Notes 5 under clause 8.1(a) if Westpac has given a Transfer Notice at least 21 Business Days before the proposed Transfer Date to ASX and the Holders.

- (b) The Transfer Notice must specify:
 - (i) the date on which it is proposed the Transfer will occur, which must be:
 - (A) in the case of clause 8.1(a)(i), 22 September 2025;
 - (B) in the case of a Tax Event or Regulatory Event, the Next Distribution Payment Date, unless Westpac determines an earlier date having regard to the best interests of Holders as a whole and the relevant event; and
 - (ii) whether any Distribution will be paid in respect of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 to be Transferred on the Transfer Date.

8.3 Final Distribution

For the avoidance of doubt, Transfer may occur even if Westpac, in its absolute discretion, does not pay a Distribution for the final Distribution Period.

8.4 No Transfer at the option of the Holders

Holders do not have a right to request Transfer of their Westpac Capital Notes 5 at any time.

8.5 Effect of Transfer Notice

- (a) Any Transfer Notice given under this clause 8 is irrevocable and Westpac must (subject to clause 11.1) Transfer Westpac Capital Notes 5 on the Transfer Date specified in that Transfer Notice.
- (b) If Westpac issues a Transfer Notice under this clause 8:
 - (i) each Holder is taken irrevocably to offer to sell the relevant number of their Westpac Capital Notes 5 to the Nominated Party on the Transfer Date for a cash amount per Westpac Capital Note 5 equal to the Face Value (and to have appointed Westpac as its agent and attorney to execute documents and do all things necessary which Westpac considers may be necessary or desirable in connection with that offer and any resulting sale);
 - (ii) subject to payment by the Nominated Party of the Face Value to Holders, all right, title and interest in the relevant number of Westpac Capital Notes 5 will be Transferred from the Holders to the Nominated Party on the Transfer Date; and
 - (iii) if the Nominated Party does not pay the Face Value to the relevant Holders on the Transfer Date, the relevant number of Westpac Capital Notes 5 will not be Transferred to the Nominated Party.
- (c) Clause 11 will apply to payments by the Nominated Party as if the Nominated Party were Westpac. If any payment to a particular Holder is not made or treated as made on the Transfer Date because of any error by or on behalf of the Nominated Party, the relevant Westpac Capital Notes 5 of that Holder will not be Transferred until payment is made but the Transfer of all other relevant Westpac Capital Notes 5 will not be affected by the failure.

9 General provisions applicable to Conversion

9.1 Conversion

On the Conversion Date, subject to clauses 5.6 and 9.10, the following will apply:

- (a) Westpac will allot and issue the Conversion Number of Ordinary Shares for each Westpac Capital Note 5 held by the Holder. The Conversion Number is calculated according to the following formula, and subject always to the Conversion Number being no greater than the Maximum Conversion Number:

$$\text{Conversion Number for each Westpac Capital Note 5} = \frac{\text{Face Value}}{0.99 \times \text{VWAP}}$$

where:

VWAP (expressed in dollars and cents) means the VWAP during the VWAP Period.

Maximum Conversion Number means a number calculated according to the following formula:

$$\text{Maximum Conversion Number} = \frac{\text{Face Value}}{\text{Relevant Percentage} \times \text{Issue Date VWAP}}$$

Relevant Percentage means:

- (i) if Conversion is occurring on a Scheduled Conversion Date or the Optional Conversion Date on 22 September 2025, 0.50; and
- (ii) if Conversion is occurring at any other time, 0.20.
- (b) Each Holder's rights (including to Distributions other than the Distribution, if any, payable on a date when Conversion is required that is not a Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or a Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date) in relation to each Westpac Capital Note 5 that is being Converted will be immediately and irrevocably terminated for an amount equal to the Face Value and Westpac will apply the Face Value of each Westpac Capital Note 5 by way of payment for the subscription for the Ordinary Shares to be allotted and issued under clause 9.1(a). Each Holder is taken to have irrevocably directed that any amount payable under this clause 9.1 is to be applied as provided for in this clause and Holders do not have any right to payment in any other way.
- (c) If the total number of Ordinary Shares to be allotted and issued in respect of a Holder's aggregate holding of Westpac Capital Notes 5 includes a fraction of an Ordinary Share, that fraction of an Ordinary Share will be disregarded.

9.2 Adjustments to VWAP generally

For the purposes of calculating VWAP under clause 9.1:

- (a) where, on some or all of the Business Days in the relevant VWAP Period, Ordinary Shares have been quoted on ASX as cum dividend or cum any other distribution or entitlement and Westpac Capital Notes 5 will be Converted into Ordinary Shares after that date and those Ordinary Shares will no longer carry that dividend or that other distribution or entitlement, then the VWAP on the Business Days on which those Ordinary Shares have been quoted cum dividend or cum any other distribution or entitlement will be reduced by an amount ("Cum Value") equal to:

- (i) in the case of a dividend or other distribution, the amount of that dividend or other distribution including, if the dividend or distribution is franked, the amount that would be included in the assessable income of a recipient of the dividend or distribution who is a natural person resident in Australia under the Tax Act;
- (ii) in the case of any other entitlement that is not a dividend or other distribution under clause 9.2(a)(i) which is traded on ASX on any of those Business Days, the volume weighted average price of all such entitlements sold on ASX during the VWAP Period on the Business Days on which those entitlements were traded (excluding trades of the kind that would be excluded in determining VWAP under the definition of that term); or
- (iii) in the case of any other entitlement which is not traded on ASX during the VWAP Period, the value of the entitlement as reasonably determined by Westpac;

- (b) where, on some or all of the Business Days in the VWAP Period, Ordinary Shares have been quoted as ex dividend or ex any other distribution or entitlement, and Westpac Capital Notes 5 will be Converted into Ordinary Shares which would be entitled to receive the relevant dividend, distribution or entitlement, the VWAP on the Business Days on which those Ordinary Shares have been quoted ex dividend or ex any other distribution or entitlement will be increased by the Cum Value; and
- (c) any adjustment made by Westpac in accordance with clause 9.2 will be effective and binding on Holders under these Terms and these Terms will be construed accordingly.

9.3 Adjustments to VWAP for capital reconstruction

- (a) Where during the relevant VWAP Period there is a change to the number of Ordinary Shares on issue because the Ordinary Shares are reconstructed, consolidated, divided or reclassified (in a manner not involving any cash payment (or the giving of any other form of consideration) to or by holders of Ordinary Shares) ("Reclassification") into a lesser or greater number, the daily VWAP for each day in the VWAP Period which falls before the date on which trading in Ordinary Shares is conducted on a post Reclassification basis will be adjusted by multiplying such daily VWAP by the following formula:

where:

A means the aggregate number of Ordinary Shares immediately before the Reclassification; and

B means the aggregate number of Ordinary Shares immediately after the Reclassification.

- (b) Any adjustment made by Westpac in accordance with clause 9.3(a) will be effective and binding on Holders under these Terms and these Terms will be construed accordingly.

- (c) Each Holder acknowledges that Westpac may consolidate, divide or reclassify securities so that there is a lesser or greater number of Ordinary Shares at any time in its absolute discretion without any such action requiring any consent or concurrence of any Holders.

9.4 Adjustments to Issue Date VWAP generally

For the purposes of determining the Issue Date VWAP under clause 9.1, adjustments will be made in accordance with clause 9.2 and clause 9.3 during the VWAP Period for the Issue Date VWAP. On and from the Issue Date, adjustments to the Issue Date VWAP:

- (a) may be made by Westpac in accordance with clauses 9.5 to 9.7 (inclusive);
- (b) if so made, will correspondingly affect the application of the Scheduled Conversion Conditions and the Optional Conversion Restriction and cause an adjustment to the Maximum Conversion Number; and
- (c) if so made, will be effective and binding on Holders under these Terms and these Terms will be construed accordingly.

9.5 Adjustments to Issue Date VWAP for bonus issues

- (a) Subject to clauses 9.5(b) and 9.5(c), if Westpac makes a pro-rata bonus issue of Ordinary Shares to holders of Ordinary Shares generally (in a manner not involving any cash payment (or the giving of any other form of consideration) to or by holders of Ordinary Shares), the Issue Date VWAP will be adjusted immediately in accordance with the following formula:

$$V = \frac{Vo \times RD}{(RD + RN)}$$

where:

V means the Issue Date VWAP applying immediately after the application of this formula;

Vo means the Issue Date VWAP applying immediately prior to the application of this formula;

RD means the number of Ordinary Shares on issue immediately prior to the allotment of new Ordinary Shares pursuant to the bonus issue; and RN means the number of Ordinary Shares issued pursuant to the bonus issue.

- (b) Clause 9.5(a) does not apply to Ordinary Shares issued as part of a bonus share plan, employee or executive share plan, executive option plan, share top up plan, share purchase plan or a dividend reinvestment plan.
- (c) For the purposes of this clause, an issue will be regarded as a bonus issue notwithstanding that Westpac does not make offers to some or all holders of Ordinary Shares with registered addresses outside Australia, provided that in so doing Westpac is not in contravention of the ASX Listing Rules.
- (d) No adjustments to the Issue Date VWAP will be made under this clause 9.5 for any offer of Ordinary Shares not covered by clause 9.5(a), including a rights issue or other essentially pro rata issue.

- (e) The fact that no adjustment is made for an issue of Ordinary Shares except as covered by clause 9.5(a) shall not in any way restrict Westpac from issuing Ordinary Shares at any time on such terms as it sees fit nor require any consent or concurrence of any Holders.

9.6 Adjustments to Issue Date VWAP for capital reconstruction

- (a) If at any time after the Issue Date there is a change to the number of Ordinary Shares on issue because of a Reclassification (in a manner not involving any cash payment (or the giving of any other form of consideration) to or by holders of Ordinary Shares) into a lesser or greater number, the Issue Date VWAP will be adjusted by multiplying the Issue Date VWAP applicable on the Business Day immediately before the date of any such Reclassification by the following formula:

where:

A means the aggregate number of Ordinary Shares on issue immediately before the Reclassification; and

B means the aggregate number of Ordinary Shares on issue immediately after the Reclassification.

- (b) Each Holder acknowledges that Westpac may consolidate, divide or reclassify securities so that there is a lesser or greater number of Ordinary Shares at any time in its absolute discretion without any such action requiring any consent or concurrence of any Holders.

9.7 No adjustment to Issue Date VWAP in certain circumstances

Despite the provisions of clauses 9.5 and 9.6, no adjustment will be made to the Issue Date VWAP where any such adjustment (rounded if applicable) would be less than one percent of the Issue Date VWAP then in effect.

9.8 Announcement of adjustments to Issue Date VWAP

Westpac will notify any adjustment to the Issue Date VWAP under this clause to ASX and the Holders within 10 Business Days of Westpac determining the adjustment and the adjustment will be final and binding.

9.9 Status and listing of Ordinary Shares

- (a) Ordinary Shares issued or arising from Conversion will rank equally with, and will have the same rights as, all other fully paid Ordinary Shares provided that the rights attaching to the Ordinary Shares issued or arising from Conversion do not take effect until 5.00pm (Sydney time) on the Conversion Date (or such other time required by APRA).
- (b) Westpac will use all reasonable endeavours to list the Ordinary Shares issued on Conversion of Westpac Capital Notes 5 on ASX.

9.10 Conversion where the Holder does not wish to receive Ordinary Shares or is an Ineligible Holder

- (a) If Westpac Capital Notes 5 of a Holder are required to be Converted and:

- (i) the Holder has notified Westpac that it does not wish to receive Ordinary Shares as a result of Conversion, which notice may be given at any time on or after the Issue Date and no less than 15 Business Days prior to the Conversion Date; or
- (ii) the Holder is an Ineligible Holder, then, on the Conversion Date, all of the Holder's rights in relation to each such Westpac Capital Note 5 being Converted are immediately and irrevocably terminated and Westpac will issue the Conversion Number of Ordinary Shares to the Sale Agent for no additional consideration to hold on trust for sale for the benefit of the relevant Holder. At the first opportunity to sell the Ordinary Shares, the Sale Agent will arrange for their sale at market value and pay the proceeds, less selling costs, brokerage, stamp duty and other taxes and charges, to the relevant Holder.

Westpac will be entitled to treat a Holder as not being an Ineligible Holder unless the Holder has otherwise notified it after the Issue Date and prior to the Conversion Date.

- (b) If Conversion under this clause 9.10 is occurring because of the occurrence of a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event and the Conversion fails to take effect under clauses 5.2 or 5.4 or does not occur for any other reason and the Ordinary Shares are not issued to the Sale Agent for any reason in respect of such Conversion by 5.00pm on the fifth Business Day after the Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date, then:
 - (i) such Westpac Capital Notes 5 or percentage of the Face Value of Westpac Capital Notes 5 will not be Converted in respect of such Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date (as the case may be) and will not be Converted, Redeemed or Transferred under these Terms on any subsequent date; and
 - (ii) the relevant Holders' rights (including to payment of Distributions and Face Value and any other payments) in relation to such Westpac Capital Notes 5 or percentage of the Face Value of Westpac Capital Notes 5 are immediately and irrevocably terminated and such termination will be taken to have occurred immediately upon the Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date, as the case may be.

9.11 Final Distribution

For the avoidance of doubt, Conversion may occur even if Westpac, in its absolute discretion, does not pay a Distribution for the final Distribution Period.

9.12 No Conversion after Winding Up commences

If before the Conversion Date a Winding Up commences, then Conversion will not occur and clause 2 will apply, except where Conversion is required for a Capital Trigger Event or Non-Viability Trigger Event (in which case such Conversion shall occur (subject to clause 5.8) in accordance with clauses 5.2 or 5.4 (as applicable) and clause 5.7).

9.13 Conversion of a percentage of Face Value

If under these Terms it is necessary to Convert a percentage of the Face Value, this clause 9 will apply to the Conversion as if references to the Face Value were references to the relevant percentage of the Face Value to be Converted multiplied by the Face Value and references to the Westpac Capital Note(s) 5 were references to the percentage of the Face Value of the Westpac Capital Note(s) 5 to be Converted.

9.14 Consent to receive Ordinary Shares and other acknowledgements

Subject to clause 5.8, each Holder irrevocably:

- (a) upon receipt of the Conversion Number of Ordinary Shares following Conversion of Westpac Capital Notes 5 in accordance with clauses 4, 5 or 6 consents to becoming a member of Westpac and agrees to be bound by the constitution of Westpac, in each case in respect of Ordinary Shares issued on Conversion;
- (b) acknowledges and agrees that, unless it has given notice in accordance with clause 9.10 that it does not wish to receive Ordinary Shares as a result of Conversion, it is obliged to accept Ordinary Shares of Westpac on Conversion notwithstanding anything that might otherwise affect a Conversion of Westpac Capital Notes 5 including:
 - (i) any change in the financial position of Westpac since the issue of the Westpac Capital Notes 5;
 - (ii) any disruption to the market or potential market for Ordinary Shares or capital markets generally; or
 - (iii) any breach by Westpac of any obligation in connection with the Westpac Capital Notes 5;
- (c) acknowledges and agrees that:
 - (i) Conversion is not subject to any conditions other than those expressly provided for in these Terms;
 - (ii) subject to any conditions, Conversion must occur immediately on the Conversion Date and that may result in disruption or failures in trading or dealings in the Westpac Capital Notes 5;
 - (iii) it will not have any rights to vote in respect of any Conversion; and
 - (iv) notwithstanding clause 9.9, Ordinary Shares issued on Conversion may not be quoted at the time of Conversion or at all;
- (d) acknowledges and agrees that where clause 5.8 applies, no other conditions or events will affect the operation of that clause and it will not have any rights to vote in respect of any termination under that clause;
- (e) acknowledges and agrees that it has no right to request that Westpac Convert Westpac Capital Notes 5; and
- (f) acknowledges and agrees that it has no remedies on account of the failure of Westpac to issue Ordinary Shares in accordance with clauses 5.2 or 5.4 other than, subject to clause 5.8, to seek specific performance of Westpac's obligation to issue Ordinary Shares.

10 Title and transfer of Westpac Capital Notes 5

10.1 CHESS

While a Westpac Capital Note 5 remains in CHESS:

- (a) the rights of a person holding an interest in the Westpac Capital Note 5; and
 - (b) all dealings (including transfers and payments) in relation to the Westpac Capital Note 5,
- will be governed by and subject to the rules and regulations of CHESS (but without affecting any of these Terms which affect the eligibility of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 as Additional Tier 1 Capital). To the extent of any inconsistency:
- (c) between these Terms (other than any of these Terms which affect the eligibility of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 as Additional Tier 1 Capital) and the rules and regulations of CHESS, the rules and regulations of CHESS prevail; and
 - (d) between any of these Terms which affect the eligibility of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 as Additional Tier 1 Capital and the rules and regulations of CHESS, these Terms prevail.

10.2 Effect of entries in Westpac Capital Notes 5 Register

Each entry in the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Register of a person as a Holder constitutes:

- (a) conclusive evidence of that person's:
 - (i) absolute ownership of those Westpac Capital Notes 5; and
 - (ii) entitlement to the other benefits given to Holders under these Terms in respect of Westpac Capital Notes 5; and
- (b) an undertaking by Westpac to pay a Distribution and any other amount in accordance with these Terms, subject to correction of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Register for fraud or error.

10.3 Non-recognition of interests

Except as required by law, Westpac and the Registrar must treat the person whose name is entered in the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Register as a Holder as the absolute owner of that Westpac Capital Notes 5. This clause applies despite any notice of ownership, trust or interest in that Westpac Capital Notes 5.

10.4 Joint Holders

Where two or more persons are entered in the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Register as joint Holders, they are taken to hold those Westpac Capital Notes 5 as joint tenants with rights of survivorship but the Registrar is not bound to register more than three persons as joint Holders of any Westpac Capital Notes 5.

10.5 Transfers

- (a) A Holder may transfer Westpac Capital Notes 5:

- (i) while Westpac Capital Notes 5 are registered with CHESS, in accordance with the rules and regulations of CHESS; or
- (ii) at any other time:
 - (A) by a proper transfer under any other applicable computerised or electronic system recognised by the Corporations Act; or
 - (B) by any proper or sufficient instrument of transfer of marketable securities under applicable law, provided such instrument is delivered to the Registrar with any evidence the Registrar reasonably requires to prove title to or the right to transfer Westpac Capital Notes 5.
- (b) Title to Westpac Capital Notes 5 passes when details of the transfer are entered in the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Register.
- (c) Westpac Capital Notes 5 may be transferred in whole but not in part.
- (d) Westpac must comply with all Applicable Regulations and any other relevant obligations imposed on it in relation to the transfer of Westpac Capital Notes 5.
- (e) Westpac must not charge any fee on the transfer of Westpac Capital Notes 5.
- (f) The Holder is responsible for any stamp duty or other similar taxes which are payable in any jurisdiction in connection with a transfer, assignment or other dealing with Westpac Capital Notes 5.
- (g) Upon registration and entry of the transferee in the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Register, the transferor ceases to be entitled to future benefits under these Terms in respect of the transferred Westpac Capital Notes 5.
- (h) Subject to Applicable Regulations, Westpac may determine that transfers of some or all Westpac Capital Notes 5 will not be registered during any period reasonably specified by it prior to the Conversion Date, Redemption Date or Transfer Date of such Westpac Capital Notes 5.

10.6 Refusal to register

Westpac may only refuse to register a transfer of Westpac Capital Notes 5 if permitted by, or if such registration would contravene or is forbidden by, Applicable Regulations or these Terms.

If Westpac refuses to register a transfer, Westpac must give the lodging party notice of the refusal and the reasons for it within five Business Days after the date on which the transfer was delivered to the Registrar.

10.7 Transmission

A person becoming entitled to Westpac Capital Notes 5 as a consequence of the death, bankruptcy, liquidation or a winding-up of a Holder or of a vesting order by a court or other body with power to make the order, or a person administering the estate of a Holder, may, upon providing evidence as to that entitlement or status, and if Westpac so requires an indemnity in relation to the correctness of such evidence, as Westpac considers sufficient, become registered as the Holder of those Westpac Capital Notes 5.

11 Payments

11.1 General

All payments in respect of Westpac Capital Notes 5:

- (a) must be made:
 - (i) in Australian dollars; and
 - (ii) free of any set off, deduction or counter claim except as required by law or any agreement with a governmental authority;
- (b) are subject to applicable fiscal and other laws and the administrative practices and procedures of fiscal and other authorities;
- (c) will be made in accordance with:
 - (i) the rules and regulations of CHES while Westpac Capital Notes 5 remain in CHES;
 - (ii) the particulars recorded in the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Register on the relevant Record Date; and
 - (iii) these Terms.

If the date scheduled for any payment under these Terms (other than a payment made under clause 9.1(b) in connection with the Conversion of Notes following a Capital Trigger Event or a Non-Viability Trigger Event) is not a Business Day, then the payment will be made on the next Business Day (and without any additional interest or other payment in respect of such delay).

All calculations of payments will be rounded to four decimal places. For the purposes of making any payment in respect of a Holder's aggregate holding of Westpac Capital Notes 5, any fraction of a cent will be rounded to the nearest one Australian cent (with one half of an Australian cent being rounded up to one Australian cent).

11.2 Payments to Holders

- (a) Each payment in respect of a Westpac Capital Note 5 will be made to the person that is recorded in the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Register as the Holder of that Westpac Capital Note 5 on the Record Date for that payment.
- (b) A payment to any one joint Holder of a Westpac Capital Note 5 will discharge Westpac's liability in respect of the payment.

11.3 Method of payments

- (a) Westpac may, in its absolute discretion, pay to a Holder or any other person entitled to any amount payable in respect of a Westpac Capital Note 5:
 - (i) by crediting an account nominated in writing by that Holder or person;
 - (ii) by cheque made payable to the Holder or person, sent to the address of that Holder or person as notified to Westpac by that Holder or person; or
 - (iii) in any other manner as Westpac determines (provided that Distributions must always be paid in cash).
- (b) Westpac may send a cheque referred to in clause 11.3(a)(ii), if relevant, to:
 - (i) the address in the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Register of the Holder;

- (ii) if that Westpac Capital Note 5 is jointly held, the address in the Westpac Capital Notes 5 Register of the Holder named first in the register in respect of the Westpac Capital Note 5; or

- (iii) any other address which that person directs in writing.

- (c) If Westpac decides to make a payment by electronic or other means determined under clause 11.3(a)(iii) and an account is not nominated by the Holder or joint Holder, Westpac may hold the amount payable in a separate account of Westpac until the Holder or joint Holder (as the case may be) nominates an account, without any obligation to pay interest, and the amount so held is to be treated as having been paid to the Holder or joint Holder at the time it is credited to that separate account of Westpac.
- (d) All amounts payable but unclaimed may be invested by Westpac as it thinks fit for the benefit of Westpac until claimed or until required to be dealt with in accordance with any law relating to unclaimed moneys.
- (e) Westpac (or any person through whom payments are made), in its absolute discretion, may withhold payment to a Holder where it is required to do so under any applicable fiscal or other law or any administrative practice or procedure of any fiscal or other authority (including any law prohibiting dealings with terrorist organisations or money laundering, or any other type of sanction and any withholding or deduction arising under or in connection with FATCA), or where it has reasonable grounds to suspect that the Holder may be subject to any such law, administrative practice or procedure or sanction or involved in acts of terrorism or money laundering, and may deal with such payment and the Holder's Westpac Capital Notes 5 in accordance with such applicable law, administrative practice or procedure or the requirements of any relevant government or regulatory authority.
- (f) Westpac shall not be liable for any costs or loss suffered by a Holder in exercising its discretion under clause 11.3(e), even where a Holder later demonstrates that they were not subject to such law, administrative practice or procedure or sanction.

12 Taxation

12.1 Deductions

Westpac or the Nominated Party, as applicable, may deduct or withhold any tax, duty, assessment, levy, governmental charge or other amount from any Distribution or amount payable upon Redemption or Transfer to the Nominated Party of any Westpac Capital Note 5 (or upon or with respect to the issuance of any Ordinary Shares upon any Conversion), as required by law or any agreement with a governmental authority. If any such deduction or withholding has been made and paid over to the relevant governmental authority and the balance of the Distribution or other amount payable has been paid (or, in the case of a Conversion, Ordinary Shares issued) to the relevant Holder, then the full amount payable (or, in the case of a Conversion, the Conversion Number of Ordinary Shares) to such Holder shall be deemed to have been duly paid and satisfied (or, in the case of a Conversion, issued) by Westpac or the Nominated Party, as applicable.

Westpac or the Nominated Party, as applicable, shall pay the full amount required to be deducted or withheld to the relevant governmental authority within the time allowed for such payment without incurring any penalty under applicable law and shall, if requested by any Holder, deliver to such Holder confirmation of such payment without delay after it is received by Westpac or the Nominated Party, as applicable.

12.2 FATCA

Without limiting clause 12.1, if any withholding or deduction arises under or in connection with FATCA, Westpac will not be required to pay any further amounts on account of such withholding or deduction or otherwise reimburse or compensate, or make any payment to, a Holder for or in respect of any such withholding or deduction.

12.3 Tax File Number withholdings

- (a) Westpac will, if required, withhold an amount from payment of Distributions on Westpac Capital Notes 5 at the highest marginal tax rate plus the highest Medicare levy if a Holder has not supplied an appropriate tax file number, Australian business number or exemption details.
- (b) If a Holder supplies exemption details and Westpac subsequently determines that the relevant exemption was not available, Westpac may recover the amount that should have been deducted from the relevant Holder and may deduct that amount from any subsequent payment due to that Holder in respect of Westpac Capital Notes 5.

13 Amendment of these Terms

13.1 Amendment generally

No amendment to these Terms is permitted without APRA's prior written approval if such amendment would impact, or potentially impact, the classification of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 as Additional Tier 1 Capital on a Level 1 or Level 2 basis.

13.2 Amendment without consent

Subject to clause 13.1, and complying with all applicable laws and with APRA's prior written approval (except in the case of paragraph (a)(iii) below), Westpac may, without the authority, assent or approval of Holders, amend these Terms:

- (a) if Westpac is of the opinion that the amendment is:
 - (i) of a formal, minor or technical nature;
 - (ii) made to cure any ambiguity;
 - (iii) made to correct any manifest error;
 - (iv) expedient for the purpose of enabling the Westpac Capital Notes 5 to be listed for quotation or to retain listing on any stock exchange or to be offered for, or subscription for, sale under the laws for the time being in force in any place and it is otherwise not considered by Westpac to be materially prejudicial to the interests of Holders as a whole; or

- (v) necessary to comply with the provisions of any statute, the requirements of any statutory authority, the ASX Listing Rules or the listing or quotation requirements of any stock exchange on which the Westpac Capital Notes 5 are quoted; or

- (b) generally, in any case where such amendment is considered by Westpac not to be materially prejudicial to the interests of Holders as a whole.

13.3 Amendment with consent

Without limiting clause 13.2 and subject to clause 13.1, Westpac may, with APRA's prior written approval, amend these Terms if the amendment has been approved by a Special Resolution.

13.4 Amendment for Approved Successor

- (a) Subject to clause 13.4(c), if:
 - (i) it is proposed that Westpac be replaced as the ultimate holding company of the Westpac Group by an Approved Successor ("Replacement"); and
 - (ii) the Approved Successor agrees to expressly assume Westpac's obligations under these Terms by entering into a deed poll for the benefit of Holders under which it agrees (among other things):
 - (A) to deliver Approved Successor Shares under all circumstances when Westpac would have otherwise been obliged to deliver Ordinary Shares on a Conversion, subject to the same terms and conditions of these Terms as amended by this clause 13.4;
 - (B) to comply with the restriction in clause 3.7 (with all appropriate modifications) of these Terms; and
 - (C) to use all reasonable endeavours and furnish all such documents, information and undertakings as may be reasonably necessary in order to procure quotation of the Approved Successor Shares issued under these Terms on the stock exchanges on which the other Approved Successor Shares are quoted at the time of a Conversion,

Westpac may, with APRA's prior written approval, but without the authority, assent or approval of Holders, give a notice (an "Approved Replacement Notice") to Holders (which, if given, must be given as soon as practicable before the Replacement and in any event no later than 10 Business Days before the Replacement occurs) specifying the amendments to these Terms which will be made in accordance with this clause 13.4 to effect the substitution of the Approved Successor as the debtor in respect of Westpac Capital Notes 5 and the issuer of ordinary shares on Conversion.

An Approved Replacement Notice, once given, is irrevocable.

- (b) If Westpac gives an Approved Replacement Notice to Holders in accordance with clause 13.4(a), then with effect on and from the date specified in the Approved Replacement Notice:
 - (i) the Approved Successor will assume all of the obligations of, and succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of,

Westpac under these Terms (as may be amended from time to time) with the same effect as if the Approved Successor had been named as Westpac in these Terms;

- (ii) Westpac (or any corporation which has previously assumed the obligations of Westpac) will be released from its liability under these Terms;
 - (iii) references to Westpac in these Terms will be taken to be references to the Approved Successor and references to Ordinary Shares in these Terms will be taken to be references to Approved Successor Shares;
 - (iv) such other amendments may be made to these Terms as in Westpac's reasonable opinion are necessary and appropriate to effect the substitution of an Approved Successor as debtor in respect of Westpac Capital Notes 5 and the issuer of the Approved Successor Shares on Conversion in the manner contemplated by these Terms (including such amendment as is necessary or expedient for the purposes of complying with the provisions of Chapter 2L of the Corporations Act where the Approved Successor is not an ADI).
- (c) Where an amendment under clause 13.4(b) results in Approved Successor Shares being issued to Holders, each Holder agrees to become a member of the Approved Successor immediately prior to the issue of the Approved Successor Shares and appoints Westpac as its attorney as contemplated under clause 14.10 to do all things necessary or desirable to give effect to this clause 13.4.
- (d) Westpac must not issue an Approved Replacement Notice unless:
- (i) the Approved Successor or another entity which is not a member of the Westpac Group and approved by APRA subscribes for Ordinary Shares or other capital instruments acceptable to APRA in such amount as may be necessary, or take other steps acceptable to APRA to ensure that the capital position of Westpac on a Level 1 and Level 2 basis as described in the Prudential Standards will not be adversely affected, including, if required by APRA or the Prudential Standards, undertaking any capital injection in relation to Westpac to replace the Westpac Capital Notes 5; and
 - (ii) any capital injection carried out pursuant to paragraph (i) is:
 - (A) unconditional;
 - (B) occurs simultaneously with the substitution of the Approved Successor; and
 - (C) of equal or better quality capital and at least the same amount as the Westpac Capital Notes 5, unless otherwise approved by APRA in writing.
- (e) Nothing in this clause 13.4 prevents Westpac from proposing, or limits, any scheme of arrangement or other similar proposal that may be put to Holders or other members of Westpac.

13.5 Meanings

In this clause "amend" includes modify, cancel, alter or add to, and "amendment" has a corresponding meaning.

14 General

14.1 Not deposit liabilities or protected accounts

- (a) Westpac Capital Notes 5 are not deposit liabilities of Westpac nor protected accounts for the purposes of the Banking Act or Financial Claims Scheme and are not subject to the depositor protection provisions of the Banking Act.
- (b) No member of the Westpac Group (other than Westpac) has any liability for Westpac Capital Notes 5 and neither Westpac nor any member of the Westpac Group guarantees Westpac Capital Notes 5.

14.2 Further issues

Westpac reserves the right to issue further Westpac Capital Notes 5 or other securities which rank senior to, equally with or behind existing Westpac Capital Notes 5, whether in respect to distributions, dividends, return of capital on a Winding Up or otherwise.

14.3 No set-off

Neither Westpac nor any Holder is entitled to set-off any amounts due in respect of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 against any amount of any nature owed by Westpac to the Holder or by the Holder to Westpac (as applicable).

14.4 Quotation

Westpac must use all reasonable endeavours and furnish all such documents, information and undertakings as may be reasonably necessary in order to procure quotation of Westpac Capital Notes 5 on the financial market operated by ASX.

14.5 Meetings

The Deed Poll contains provisions for convening meetings of the Holders. Any such meeting may consider any matters affecting the interests of Holders, including, without limitation, the amendment of these Terms and the granting of approvals, consents and waivers.

14.6 Notices

The Deed Poll contains provisions for the giving of notices.

14.7 No other rights

Before Conversion, Westpac Capital Notes 5 confer no rights on a Holder:

- (a) to vote at, or receive notices of, any meeting of shareholders of Westpac;
- (b) to subscribe for new securities or to participate in any bonus issues of securities of Westpac; or
- (c) to otherwise participate in the profits or property of Westpac, except as set out in these Terms.

14.8 Ability to trade, buy-back or purchase

- (a) Westpac or any member of the Westpac Group may, to the extent permitted by applicable laws and regulations and with APRA's prior written approval, at any time buy or sell Westpac Capital Notes 5 in the open market, by tender to all or some of the Holders, by private agreement or in any other manner, at any price.

- (b) Subject to APRA's prior written approval, Westpac may purchase on-market or otherwise conduct a buy-back in relation to Westpac Capital Notes 5 at any time and at any price.

14.9 Waiver of immunity

Westpac irrevocably and unconditionally waives any objection it may now or in the future have to the venue of any proceedings, and any claim it may now or in the future have that any proceedings have been brought in an inconvenient forum, if that venue falls within clause 15.

14.10 Power of attorney

Each Holder irrevocably appoints each of Westpac, its officers and any liquidator or administrator of Westpac (each an "Attorney") severally to be the attorney of the Holder with power in the name and on behalf of the Holder to sign all documents and transfers and do any other thing as may in the Attorney's opinion be necessary or desirable to be done in order for the Holder to observe or perform the Holder's obligations under these Terms.

The power of attorney given in this clause 14.10 is given for valuable consideration and to secure the performance by the Holder of the Holder's obligations under these Terms and is irrevocable.

15 Governing Law

These Terms are governed by the laws of New South Wales, Australia. Each party irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of New South Wales, and agrees that it will not object to the venue or claim that the relevant action or proceedings have been brought in an inconvenient forum.

16 Interpretation and definitions

16.1 Interpretation

The following rules of interpretation apply in these Terms unless the contrary intention appears or the context otherwise requires.

- (a) Definitions and interpretation under Westpac's constitution will also apply to these Terms unless the contrary intention is expressed.
- (b) Unless the context otherwise requires, if there is any inconsistency between the provisions of these Terms and Westpac's constitution then, to the maximum extent permitted by law, the provisions of these Terms will prevail.
- (c) Unless otherwise specified, the Westpac Directors may exercise all powers of Westpac under these Terms as are not, by the Corporations Act or by Westpac's constitution, required to be exercised by Westpac in general meeting.
- (d) Notices may be given by Westpac to a Holder in the manner prescribed by Westpac's constitution for the giving of notices to members of Westpac and the relevant provisions of Westpac's constitution apply with all necessary modification to notices to Holders.
- (e) Unless otherwise specified, a reference to a clause is a reference to a clause of these Terms.
- (f) If a calculation is required under these Terms, unless the contrary intention is expressed, the calculation will be rounded to four decimal places.
- (g) If a payment is required to be made under these Terms, unless the contrary intention is expressed, the payment will be made in Australian dollars only.
- (h) Any provisions which refer to the requirements of APRA or any other prudential regulatory requirements will apply to Westpac only if Westpac is an entity, or the holding company of an entity, subject to regulation and supervision by APRA at the relevant time.
- (i) Any provisions in these Terms requiring the prior written approval by APRA for a particular course of action to be taken by Westpac do not imply that APRA has given its consent or approval to the particular action as of the Issue Date.
- (j) The terms takeover bid, relevant interest, scheme of arrangement, buy-back and on-market buy-back when used in these Terms have the meaning given in the Corporations Act.
- (k) Headings and boldings are for convenience only and do not affect the interpretation of these Terms.
- (l) The singular includes the plural and vice versa.
- (m) A reference to a statute, ordinance, code or other law includes regulations and other instruments under it and consolidations, amendments, re-enactments or replacements of any of them.
- (n) Other than in relation to a Capital Trigger Event or a Non-Viability Trigger Event (including a Conversion of the Westpac Capital Notes 5 on a Capital Trigger Event Conversion Date or Non-Viability Trigger Event Conversion Date and any termination of rights under clause 5.8) and other than as otherwise specified in these Terms, if an event under these Terms must occur on a stipulated day which is not a Business Day, then the event will be done on the next Business Day.
- (o) A reference to $, dollars or cents is a reference to the lawful currency of Australia.
- (p) A reference to time in these Terms is a reference to Sydney, New South Wales, Australia time.
- (q) Calculations, elections and determinations made by Westpac under these Terms are binding on Holders in the absence of manifest error.
- (r) If any provision of these Terms is prohibited or unenforceable in its terms but would not be prohibited or unenforceable if it were read down, and is capable of being read down, that provision must be read down accordingly. If, despite this clause, a provision is still prohibited or unenforceable, if the provision would not be prohibited or unenforceable if a word or words were omitted, the relevant words must be severed and, in any other case, the whole provision must be severed. However, the remaining provisions of these Terms are of full force and effect.

16.2 Definitions

In these Terms, except where the contrary intention appears:

Acquisition Event means:

- (a) a takeover bid is made for Ordinary Shares and the offer is, or becomes, unconditional and the bidder has a relevant interest in more than 50% of the Ordinary Shares on issue; or
- (b) a court orders one or more meetings to be convened to approve a scheme of arrangement under Part 5.1 of the Corporations Act which scheme would result in a person having a relevant interest in more than 50% of the Ordinary Shares that will be on issue after the scheme is implemented and either:

Capitalised terms used in this Broker Firm Application Form have the meanings given to them in the Prospectus.

HOW TO COMPLETE THE BROKER FIRM APPLICATION FORM

- A Number of Notes applied for: Enter the number of Notes you wish to apply for. The Application must be for a minimum of 50 Notes (A$5,000) and in multiples of 10 Notes (A$1,000) thereafter.
- B Application Payment: Enter the amount of your Application Payment. To calculate the amount, multiply the number of Notes applied for by the Issue Price (A$100). Amounts should be in Australian dollars. Application Payments must be received by your Syndicate Broker in sufficient time for them to process your Application by the Closing Date.
- C Registrable name(s): Enter the full name you wish to appear on your Holding Statement. This must be either your own name or the name of a company. Up to three joint Applicants may register. You should refer to the table below for the correct forms of registrable names. Applications using the wrong form of names may be rejected or delayed. If you supply a CHESS HIN, ensure that name/address details correspond exactly with your CHESS registration.

- D Contact details: Enter your contact details in case we need to contact you in relation to your Application.
- E CHESS Participant: If you are a CHESS participant (or are sponsored by a CHESS participant) and you wish to hold Notes Allocated to you (under this Application) on the CHESS sub-register, enter your CHESS Holder Identification Number (HIN).
- Notes will only be issued under an existing CHESS HIN if your full name and address details on this Broker Firm Application Form are identical to your CHESS registration details. If your CHESS registration details are not identical, you will not be able to include any Notes Allocated to you on your existing CHESS HIN. Instead, you will be issued with an issuer-sponsored holding and allocated a unique Securityholder Reference Number (SRN) for any Notes Allocated to you. Once Notes have been Allotted, you may be able to combine your Notes holding with your existing CHESS sponsored holdings by contacting your broker.

ACCEPTANCE OF THE OFFER

By returning this Broker Firm Application Form and Application Payment to my/our Syndicate Broker in accordance with their instructions, I/we:
