IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR THE PRIMARY CARDHOLDER

- You as the primary cardholder are responsible for the use of the additional card and must pay for all transactions made by the additional cardholder, including any charges as set out in the Conditions of Use that apply to your card.
- You can cancel the additional card by cutting it into several pieces and either returning them to us, or informing us by telephone that you have destroyed the card. You must then write to us to confirm cancellation of the card.
- You should be careful in cases where you cannot destroy the additional card, because, although it may have been stopped, it may still be used in some circumstances (please refer to clause 3.2(b) of your Conditions of Use).

AUTHORITY TO PROVIDE INFORMATION TO ADDITIONAL CARDHOLDER

You authorise the Bank to disclose to the holder of an additional card on your account, information relating to:

- account balance;
- amount of available credit;
- minimum payment due;
- transactions on the account; and
- any use of the additional card.

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Personal information

We collect personal information from you to process your application, provide you with your product or service, and manage your product or service. We may also use your information to comply with legislative or regulatory requirements in any jurisdiction, prevent fraud, crime or other activity that may cause harm in relation to our products or services and help us run our business. We may also use your information to tell you about products or services we think may interest you.

If you do not provide all the information we request, we may need to reject your application or we may no longer be able to provide a product or service to you.

We may disclose your personal information to other members of the Westpac Group, anyone we engage to do something on our behalf ("service providers"), rewards program administrators and other organisations that assist us with our business.

We may disclose your personal information to an entity which is located outside Australia. Details of the countries where the overseas recipients are likely to be located are in our privacy policy.

As a provider of financial services, we have obligations to disclose some personal information to government agencies and regulators in Australia, and in some cases offshore. We are not able to ensure that foreign government agencies or regulators will comply with Australian privacy laws, although they may have their own privacy laws. By using our products or services, you consent to these disclosures.

We are required or authorised to collect personal information from you by certain laws. Details of these laws are in our privacy policy.

Our privacy policy is available at westpac.com.au or by calling 132 032. It covers:

- how you can access the personal information we hold about you and ask for it to be corrected;
- how you may complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles or a registered privacy code and how we will deal with your complaint;
- how we collect, hold, use and disclose your personal information in more detail.

We will update our privacy policy from time to time.

Credit information

We may:

- obtain credit information about you from a credit reporting body to enable us to assess your creditworthiness;
- exchange personal information and credit information about you with other credit providers to assess your application and creditworthiness and to notify them of any defaults by you;
- give or obtain a banker's opinion about you.

Our privacy policy includes important information about credit reporting, including details of the credit reporting bodies to which we are likely to disclose your credit information. You can access our privacy policy from westpac.com.au or by calling 132 032.
