Social Enterprise Gift Guide

Every time you purchase a gift, consider buying from a social enterprise or community organisation to give the extra gift of social impact.

Products from Westpac Foundation's community partners are not only unique and environmentally mindful, they also help create jobs and training opportunities for people overcoming barriers to work.

So, join conscious consumers across Australia and gift #forgood.

 Foundation

Studio A artist Emily Crockford stands next to her public art commission titled, Oysters Eating Rainbows. Studio A is a supported art studio that tackles the barriers artists with intellectual disability face in accessing conventional education, professional development pathways and opportunities needed to be successful and renowned visual artists. Providing artists with a working studio space equipped with specialist materials and support-staff, the enterprise helps artists achieve their artistic and economic aspirations. Shop online to support their artists. Photo credit: Document Photography.

What is a social enterprise?

Social enterprises are an innovative type of business that exist to create a fairer and more sustainable world.

They operate in all sectors of the community from retail to catering and hospitality, and what makes them unique is that they exist to create impact through trade.
