

Terms and Conditions of Website

Westpac Banking Corporation (ABN 33 007 457 141, AFSL 233714) ("Westpac") has announced the offer ("Offer") of Westpac Capital Notes 4 ("Notes"). A copy of the original prospectus was lodged with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission ("ASIC") and ASX Limited ("ASX") on 17 May 2016 ("Original Prospectus"). A replacement prospectus (replacing the Original Prospectus) was lodged with ASIC and ASX on 26 May 2016 ("Replacement Prospectus", and together with the Original Prospectus, the "Prospectus"). The Prospectus will expire on the date which is 13 months after the date of the Original Prospectus. Neither ASIC nor ASX take any responsibility for the contents of the Prospectus nor for the merits of the investment to which the Prospectus relates.

Unless otherwise defined, capitalised terms used on this website have the meanings given in the Prospectus.

The Offer is now open and is made under the Prospectus. The Replacement Prospectus is available on this website. Eligible Westpac TPS Holders and Eligible Securityholders must complete the relevant Application Form, or apply online. Eligible Securityholders may register online or call the Westpac Capital Notes 4 Information Line (Monday to Friday, 8.30am to 5.30pm, Sydney time) on 1300 363 136 to request for a printed copy of the Prospectus with a personalised hard copy Securityholder Application Form to be mailed to them. The Notes will only be issued if Westpac has received an Application Form which accompanied the Prospectus (including an online Application which may only be submitted if accessed together with an electronic copy of the Prospectus).

If you give another person access to the online Application, you must give them access to the complete and unaltered electronic version of the Prospectus at the same time.

The Notes are being offered to Eligible Securityholders, Eligible Westpac TPS Holders, Australian resident retail clients of Syndicate Brokers, and certain Institutional Investors. The Prospectus does not constitute, and should not be construed as, an offer by Westpac to any other person to apply for the Notes. Westpac makes no recommendation to any person in relation to the Offer.

The Offer is being made in Australia only. The distribution of the Prospectus (including an electronic copy) in jurisdictions outside Australia may be restricted by law (for details on the restrictions in certain foreign jurisdictions, see Section 7.13 of the Prospectus). If you come into possession of the Prospectus in jurisdictions outside Australia, you should seek advice on, and observe, any such restrictions. Failure to comply with such restrictions may constitute a violation of applicable securities laws.

The Offer is not being made in, and the Prospectus does not constitute an offer in, any jurisdiction in which, or to any person to whom, it would not be lawful to make such an offer. No action has been taken to register or qualify Notes or the Offer or to otherwise permit a public offering of Notes in any jurisdiction outside Australia.

In particular, the Notes have not been, and will not be, registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended ("US Securities Act") or the securities laws of any state of the United States and may not be offered, sold, delivered or transferred in the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, any US Person

(as defined in Regulation S under the US Securities Act). Neither the Prospectus nor any Application Form or other materials relating to the Offer may be distributed in the United States.

Nothing contained on this website or in the Prospectus constitutes investment advice and this website and the information in the Prospectus have been prepared without taking into account your investment objectives, financial situation and particular needs (including financial and taxation considerations) as an investor. You should consider the appropriateness of the Notes having regard to these factors before deciding to apply for the Notes. It is important that you read the entire Prospectus (including the investment risks described in Sections 1.5 and 5) and seek professional investment advice from your financial adviser or other professional adviser before deciding whether to apply for the Notes. To the extent permitted by law, Westpac is not liable for any loss you may incur by accessing this website or accessing or downloading the Prospectus from this website, including, but not limited to, data corruption on download. Any calculations or examples set out on this website are for illustrative purposes only and do not indicate actual rates or payments. The calculations and examples are not a guarantee or forecast of payments that may be obtained. Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future performance.

Westpac Capital Notes 4 are fully-paid, non-cumulative, convertible, transferable, redeemable, subordinated, perpetual, unsecured notes issued by Westpac, through its Designated Branch. There are risks associated with investing in the Notes and in Westpac, including loss of some or all of your investment. Neither Westpac nor any member of the Westpac Group guarantees the performance of the Notes.

The Notes are:

- not deposit liabilities or protected accounts of Westpac for the purposes of the Banking Act 1959 (Cth) or the Financial Claims Scheme;
- not subject to the depositor protection provisions of Australian banking legislation (including the Australian Government guarantee of certain bank deposits); and
- not guaranteed or insured by any Australian government, government agency or compensation scheme of Australia or any other jurisdiction.
