Direct Debit Request Service Agreement – Terms and Conditions

This Direct Debit Request ('DDR') Service Agreement is issued by the Bank to help you understand your rights and responsibilities when making automatic credit card repayments by direct debit.

Our commitment to you.

- We may:
 - change our procedures in this agreement;
 - change the terms of your Direct Debit Request; or
 - cancel your Direct Debit Request.
- We will notify you in writing of any changes to the terms of the drawing arrangements at least 30 days before the change takes effect. We will send the notice to the preferred email or address you have given us in the Direct Debit Request.
- We will keep all information relating to your nominated financial institution account confidential, except where required for the purpose of conducting direct debits with your financial institution.
- If you have made a payment onto your Card Account that places your Card Account into credit or results in a zero balance at the Autopay due date, no transaction from Autopay will take place. If, however, you make an additional payment into your Card Account, that still leaves a debit balance on your Card Account at the Autopay due date, your Autopay arrangements for the month may change, so that your account does not go into credit.

Your commitment to us.

- Please ensure that your nominated account can accept direct debits.
- Please ensure that there are sufficient cleared funds available in the nominated account, on the due date, to cover the direct debit.
- You need to let us know as soon as possible if the nominated account is transferred or closed, or your account details change.
- If your direct debit arrangements are cancelled for any reason, you need to arrange an alternative method of making the repayment.
- Please ensure that the Card Autopay (Direct Debit Request) in this section is signed in accordance with the signing authority for the account to be debited.

Can you change the direct debit repayment arrangements?

- Any changes that you would like to make are subject to the Conditions of Use of your account.
- You need to give us seven (7) days notice before the opening date that will appear on your next statement (i.e. the date in the box below 'Statement From') for altering the repayment amount or repayment cycle.
- You need to give us seven (7) days notice before the Autopay due date to change the account details from which the funds are being drawn from.
- You need to give us two (2) business days notice before the Autopay due date for either of the following:
 - Stopping an individual repayment;
 - Cancelling the repayments completely.
- If you consider that a direct debit repayment has been initiated incorrectly, or if you do not understand any aspect of the direct debit procedure, you should contact us on 1300 651 089.

Other Information.

- If your due date for your credit card repayment falls on a weekend or a National Public Holiday, we will automatically direct debit the repayment on the next business day after the weekend or National Public Holiday.
- If your financial Institution cannot withdraw the nominated amount from your account (for example there is not enough money in your account) it may dishonour the withdrawal. Please check the Terms and Conditions of your account to see whether dishonour fees apply.

Direct Debit Request Service Agreement – Terms and Conditions (continued)

Section 6 – Privacy Statement and Consent Request

All personal information and credit-related information we collect about you is collected, used and disclosed by us in accordance with our Privacy Statement which is available at westpac.com.au/privacy/privacy-statement. You do not have to provide us with any personal information or credit information but, if you don't, we may not be able to process your application or request.

Section 10 of our Privacy Statement contains important information you should be aware of in relation to the use and disclosure of your credit-related information including:

- details of the credit reporting bodies to which we are likely to disclose your credit information, the types of credit information we may give them and how this information will be used;
- your rights to direct a credit reporting body to limit the use of your information for direct marketing purposes and not to use or share your credit-related information for a period if you believe you are a victim of fraud; and
- where to find more information about our management of credit-related information and how to obtain the policies of credit reporting bodies about their management of credit-related information.

Our Privacy Statement also explains how you can access and correct your personal information (including credit-related information) or make a complaint. You can call us on 132 032 or visit us in branch to request a hard copy of our Privacy Statement.

Your Consent.

You consent to us:

- Obtaining credit information about you from a credit reporting body so we can assess your creditworthiness;
- Exchanging personal information and credit information about you with other credit providers in order for us or them to: assess your applications for credit and your creditworthiness (including exchanging information about any defaults by you); and manage credit borrowed by you.
- Disclosing your personal information (including information we already hold about you) to other co-applicants.

Marketing communications.

We will use your personal information to send you offers for products and services we believe may be of interest and value to you (including by email, SMS or other means) unless you have previously told us that you do not want to receive marketing offers from us. The products and services offered may be provided by us or one of our third-party partners. If you do not want to receive direct marketing offers from us, you can manage your marketing preferences in your online banking profile, let us know using the contact details in our Privacy Statement or follow the opt-out instructions in the message.
