Direct Debit Request Service Agreement - Terms and Conditions

This Direct Debit Request ('DDR') Service Agreement is issued by the Bank to help you understand your rights and responsibilities when making automatic credit card repayments by direct debit.

Our commitment to you.

- We may:
 - change our procedures in this agreement;
 - change the terms of your Direct Debit Request; or
 - cancel your Direct Debit Request
- We will notify you in writing of any changes to the terms of the drawing arrangements at least 14 days before the change takes effect unless we believe the change is unfavourable to you in which case we will give you at least 30 days' notice. We will send the notice to the preferred email or address you have given us in the Direct Debit Request.
- We will keep all information relating to your nominated financial institution account confidential, except where required for the purpose of conducting direct debits with your financial institution.
- If you have made a payment onto your Card Account that places your Card Account into credit or results in a zero balance at the Autopay due date, no transaction from Autopay will take place. If, however, you make an additional payment into your Card Account, that still leaves a debit balance on your Card Account at the Autopay due date, your Autopay arrangements for the month may change, so that your account does not go into credit.

Your commitment to us.

- Please ensure that your nominated account can accept direct debits.
- Please ensure that there are sufficient cleared funds available in the nominated account, on the due date, to cover the direct debit.
- You need to let us know as soon as possible if the nominated account is transferred or closed, or your account details change.
- If your direct debit arrangements are cancelled for any reason, you need to arrange an alternative method of making the repayment.
- Please ensure that the Card Autopay (Direct Debit Request) form is signed in accordance with the signing authority for the account to be debited.

Can you change the Direct Debit Repayment Arrangements?

- Any changes that you would like to make are subject to the Conditions of Use of your account.
- You need to give us seven (7) days notice before the opening date that will appear on your next statement (i.e. the date in the box below "Statement From") for altering the repayment amount or repayment cycle.
- You need to give us seven (7) days notice before the Autopay due date to change the account details from which the funds are being drawn from.
- You need to give us two (2) days notice before the Autopay due date for either of the following:
 - Stopping an individual repayment;
 - Cancelling the repayments completely.
- If you consider that a direct debit repayment has been initiated incorrectly, or if you do not understand any aspect of the direct debit procedure, you should contact us on 1300 651 089.

Other Information.

- If your due date for your credit card repayment falls on a weekend or a National Public Holiday, we will automatically direct debit the repayment on the next business day after the weekend or National Public Holiday.
- If your financial Institution cannot withdraw the nominated amount from your account (for example there is not enough money in your account) it may dishonour the withdrawal. Please check the Terms and Conditions of your account to see whether dishonour fees apply.

Please refer to your Direct Debit Request/Card Autopay Request Form to confirm your Direct Debit Card Autopay Instructions.
