

Inflation Linked Deposit with the Institutional Bank

Product Disclosure Statement

Issued by Westpac Banking Corporation
Australian Financial Services Licence No. 233714
ABN 33 007 457 141
Dated: 12 November 2016

Glossary

ABS means the Australian Bureau of Statistics.

Application Form means the form at the end of this PDS, or such other form of application as Westpac determines in its absolute discretion from time to time is acceptable.

APRA means the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority.

Base CPI means the CPI at the Commencement Date of your Inflation Linked Deposit as notified by Westpac.

Base Rate means the fixed interest rate applying to your Principal Amount during the Term.

Business Day means a day we are open for business and does not include a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday.

Commencement Date means the date on which the Principal Amount of your Inflation Linked Deposit is to be deposited with Westpac (usually by drawing from your nominated account), as indicated in your Confirmation.

Confirmation means the document issued to you by Westpac following receipt (and subject to acceptance) of your Application Form.

Consumer Price Index (CPI) means the non-revised Index of consumer prices for the weighted average of eight capital cities: 'All-Groups Index before Seasonal Adjustment' or relevant Successor Index selected by Westpac acting in a commercially reasonable manner, measuring the rate of inflation in Australia, expressed as an index and published by the ABS. The first publication or announcement of a level of the CPI for a coupon period shall be final and later revisions of the CPI for such coupon period will not be used in any calculations.

Current CPI means the CPI level at the start of each coupon period.

Early Withdrawal means a full or partial withdrawal from your Inflation Linked Deposit before the end of the Term (other than a Principal Payment), which may result in a Reduced Rate.

Financial Institution has the meaning given in APRA Prudential Standard APS 001.

Inflation is a positive change (increase) in the price of a basket of goods and services that is representative of the general level of prices of goods and services in the economy as a whole. When inflation is negative, it is referred to as deflation. Inflation is measured by the changes in the CPI, which is published by the ABS.

Maturity Date means the date on which your Inflation Linked Deposit expires, as indicated in your Confirmation.

Notice Period means the 31 day period beginning when a full or partial withdrawal request is received.

Payment Date refers to each date on which a coupon payment will be made by us in respect of your Principal Amount. Payment Dates will be on a quarterly basis, unless we agree otherwise. The specific Payment Dates applying to your investment will be specified in your Confirmation. If a Payment Date does not fall on a Business Day, the payment will be processed on the following Business Day.

PDS means Product Disclosure Statement.

Principal Amount means the cash amount invested by you on the Commencement Date.

Principal Balance means, on any day during the Term, the Principal Amount less the sum of Principal Payments (if any) made prior to that date.

Principal Payments means, where applicable, the payments representing a portion of the Principal Amount that you receive on each Payment Date during the Term. These payments are not required to be equal for each coupon period.

Reduced Rate means the interest rate that we will likely apply if we agree to a request for Early Withdrawal or variation of your Inflation Linked Deposit.

Term means the period between the Commencement Date and the Maturity Date.

Transaction Date means the date on which you enter into a legally binding agreement with us on the terms that will apply to your Inflation Linked Deposit.

Westpac means Westpac Banking Corporation ABN 33 007 457 141 Australian Financial Services Licence No. 233714, and includes references to 'we', 'our' and 'us'.

Important information

A Product Disclosure Statement ('PDS') is an information document. The purpose of a PDS is to provide you with enough information to allow you to make an informed decision about a product's suitability for your needs. A PDS is also a tool for comparing the features of other products you may be considering. If you have any questions about this product, please contact us on the details provided on page 3 of this PDS.

You should read and consider this PDS, in its entirety, carefully and seek independent expert advice before making a decision about whether or not this product is suitable for you.

If you decide to enter into an Inflation Linked Deposit, you should keep a copy of this PDS and any associated documentation. You should also promptly tell us if at any time you experience financial difficulties.

This PDS is issued by Westpac Banking Corporation and is current as at 12 November 2016. The information in it is subject to change. Westpac will provide updated information by issuing a supplementary or replacement PDS (if this were required, such as if the change were materially adverse to investors) or by posting the information on our website. You can get a paper copy of any updated information without charge by calling us.

Nothing in this PDS is, or may be relied upon as, a representation as to the future performance of Inflation Linked Deposits.

The offer of Inflation Linked Deposits is being made to persons located in Australia only. No action has been or will be taken to register or qualify Inflation Linked Deposits or otherwise permit a public offering of Inflation Linked Deposits under the US Securities Act of 1933. Receipt of this PDS in jurisdictions outside of Australia may be restricted by local law and applications from outside Australia will not be accepted.

The information set out in this document is general in nature. It has been prepared without taking into account your objectives, financial situation or needs. Because of this you should, before acting on this information, consider its appropriateness, having regard to your objectives, financial situation and needs. By providing this PDS, Westpac does not intend to provide financial advice or any financial recommendations.

Offer at a glance

Issuer	Westpac Banking Corporation ('Westpac', 'we' or 'us').
Purpose	Inflation Linked Deposits are tailored term deposits from which investors receive interest payments (known as coupon payments) that vary with inflation. This may help protect the purchasing power of future coupon payments received from an Inflation Linked Deposit. Inflation Linked Deposits may be attractive to investors such as retirees who want to receive regular coupon payments from their term deposit and are concerned that inflation may erode the purchasing power of their future coupon payments. See the section titled 'How do Inflation Linked Deposits work?' on page 9 for more information.
Fees and Charges	There are no establishment fees, transaction fees or monthly service fees payable on an Inflation Linked Deposit. See the section titled 'Fees and charges' on page 7 for more information.
Key benefits	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Inflation adjusted coupon payments – You will receive a fixed interest rate (known as the 'Base Rate') that is adjusted for inflation. This may help to protect the purchasing power of future coupon payments received from your Inflation Linked Deposit. • Certainty – Your fixed interest rate is adjusted for Inflation. This means that you are protected against decreases in market interest rates below the level of this Inflation-adjusted Base Rate. • Flexibility – You can select the Principal Amount and Term of your Inflation Linked Deposit in line with your view on interest rates and inflation. You can also choose a Commencement Date up to 12 months from the Transaction Date, subject to satisfying applicable credit approval or security requirements. • Principal Payments – You can choose to receive Principal Payments during the Term to tailor the cash flows to your individual requirements. See the sections titled 'Key benefits' on page 7 and 'How is the Base Rate determined?' on page 9 for more information.
Key risks	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Market risk – If market interest rates rise above the level of the Base Rate, you will not be able to benefit from this increase in rates. In periods when Inflation is negative (deflation), the coupon will fall. • Counterparty and operational risk – Westpac has performance obligations under an Inflation Linked Deposit. You need to form a judgment on our ability to meet those obligations. • Early Withdrawal / Variation – You can request to vary your Inflation Linked Deposit or make a full or partial withdrawal ('Early Withdrawal') before the Maturity Date. If we, in our discretion, accept your request for variation or Early Withdrawal, this may result in a Reduced Rate. Any Early Withdrawals will be subject to a Notice Period, unless hardship applies. See the sections titled 'Early Withdrawal / Variation' on page 8 and 'Notice Period' on page 11 for more information. • No cooling off period – There is no cooling-off period in respect of an investment in an Inflation Linked Deposit. You cannot cancel or revoke your application for an Inflation Linked Deposit. However, Early Withdrawal may be possible. See the sections titled 'Key risks' on page 8 for more information.
Suitability	An Inflation Linked Deposit may be suitable if you have a good understanding of interest rate markets and would like to invest in a tailored term deposit based on your interest rate view, Inflation expectations and income requirements. If you are not confident about your understanding of these things, this product may not be suitable for you and we strongly suggest you seek independent advice before making a decision about this product.
Term	One year to ten years.
Minimum transaction size	The minimum deposit size is AUD500,000.
How to apply	See the section titled 'How to apply for an Inflation Linked Deposit' on page 11 for more information.

Fees and Charges

Fees of an Inflation Linked Deposit

When we determine the relevant Base Rate, we have already taken into consideration all costs associated with your Inflation Linked Deposit.

An Inflation Linked Deposit has no fees or charges. The Base Rate is locked in at the start of your investment and will not be subject to any fees.

Adviser service fees

Financial advisers and other persons who distribute Inflation Linked Deposits may seek to be remunerated for the service they provide to you in relation to this investment. These service fees are negotiated and agreed between you and your financial adviser. Service fees are only payable by us on your behalf where you request that we pay them to your financial adviser.

Where you agree to pay your financial adviser an upfront service fee when you invest in a product under advice from your financial adviser, the dollar value of this upfront service fee will be communicated to you when you receive a quote. The Principal Amount of your Inflation Linked Deposit will be net of any upfront adviser service fees you elect to pay.

In completing your Application Form you will need to indicate the amount of any upfront service that we are to pay your financial adviser in the relevant section. The upfront service fee will also be shown on your Confirmation.

Key benefits

Inflation adjusted coupon payments

By locking in the deposit for the full Term, Westpac can offer you a tailored fixed interest rate in the form of a Base Rate that is adjusted for Inflation. This may help protect the purchasing power of future coupon payments received from your Inflation Linked Deposit.

See the sections titled 'How is the Base Rate determined?' on page 9 for more information.

Certainty

During the Term of the deposit, your fixed interest rate is adjusted for Inflation. This certainty would be of particular advantage if market interest rates fell below the Inflation-adjusted Base Rate or during periods of high Inflation.

Flexibility

You can tailor your Inflation Linked Deposit to your situation and view on interest rates and Inflation by choosing:

- the Principal Amount of your deposit (subject to a minimum of AUD500,000);
- the Term of your deposit;
- to receive the full Principal Amount at the end of the Term or to receive Principal Payments during the Term ; and
- the Commencement Date, which can be up to 12 months from the Transaction Date, subject to satisfying applicable credit approval or security requirements.

This flexibility gives you the ability to align your deposit arrangements with your view of the market and your income requirements.

Key risks

Market risk

It may be the case that interest rates and Inflation do not move in line with your view. In this situation, you may receive a less advantageous interest rate than available otherwise. For example, you will not be able to benefit if market interest rates rise during the Term.

If Inflation is negative (deflation), the coupon may be lower than the Base Rate. See 'How much will your coupon payments be?' on page 10 for more information.

Early Withdrawal / Variation

The Inflation Linked Deposit is an investment which is designed to be held to maturity. You may request a full or partial withdrawal from your Inflation Linked Deposit before the end of the Term ('Early Withdrawal'). If we, in our discretion, accept your request for Early Withdrawal before the end of the Term, we may reduce the interest rate on the amount withdrawn for the whole period from the commencement of the Term (as applicable) to the day prior to the date of withdrawal ('Reduced Rate'). You will also have to wait until the end of the Notice Period for the disbursement of your funds.

Applying a Reduced Rate may significantly reduce the amount of interest earned on your Inflation Linked Deposit. Please contact us if you have any questions on early withdrawal.

You may also request a variation to the terms of your Inflation Linked Deposit before the end of the Term. If we, in our discretion, accept your request for variation, we may also apply a Reduced Rate to your Inflation Linked Deposit.

See the sections titled 'Can I make withdrawals from my Inflation Linked Deposit before the Maturity Date?' on page 10, 'Notice Period', 'Can I vary the terms of my Inflation Linked Deposit?' and 'Will my return be impacted if I withdraw or vary the terms before the Maturity Date?' on page 10 for more information. With these risks in mind, please consider your circumstances carefully when selecting the terms of your Inflation Linked Deposit.

Counterparty and operational risk

As is the case with most financial products we offer, Westpac has performance obligations under an Inflation Linked Deposit.

Our ability to fulfil our obligations is linked to our financial wellbeing and to the effectiveness of our internal systems, processes and procedures. The first type of risk (our financial wellbeing) is commonly referred to as credit or counterparty risk. The second type of risk (the effectiveness of our internal systems, processes and procedures) is commonly referred to as operational risk.

You must make your own assessment of our ability to meet our obligations. However, as a regulated Australian bank we are subject to prudential regulation which is intended to reduce the risk of us failing to perform our obligations. Further information about Westpac, including copies of our recent financial statements, is available on our website at www.westpac.com.au.

No cooling-off period

There is no cooling-off period in respect of an investment in an Inflation Linked Deposit. You cannot cancel or revoke your application for an Inflation Linked Deposit once it has been verbally accepted by Westpac. However, Early Withdrawal may be possible. See the section titled 'Early Withdrawal/Variation' on page 8 for more information.

How do Inflation Linked Deposits work?

What is Inflation?

Inflation is a positive change (increase) in the price of a basket of goods and services that is representative of the general level of prices of goods and services in the economy as a whole. When Inflation is negative, it is referred to as deflation.

For the purpose of the Inflation Linked Deposit, Inflation is measured by the changes in the Consumer Price Index (CPI), which is published by the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS).

The CPI measures quarterly changes in the price of a 'basket' of 11 groups of goods and services.

The CPI is measured quarterly every March, June, September and December, and published in the following month.

The CPI commenced at a base of 100 in 1989-1990 and again has been rebased to a base of 100 in 2012.

For more information visit the ABS website at www.abs.gov.au (under 'National Statistics/Consumer Price Index').

How are Inflation Linked Deposits designed?

You decide:

- how much you want to deposit (subject to a minimum of AUD500,000);
- the Term of your Inflation Linked Deposit;
- if you want to receive the full Principal Amount at the end of the Term or receive Principal Payments during the Term; and
- the Commencement Date of your Inflation Linked Deposit. You may choose a Commencement Date up to 12 months from the Transaction Date. If your chosen Commencement Date is more than 3 Business Days after the Transaction Date, you must either comply with our credit approval process or provide us with security acceptable to us.

Westpac then determines the Base Rate.

How is the Base Rate determined?

The Base Rate is a fixed interest rate which takes into account a variety of factors, including; the Term, prevailing market interest rates, prevailing market Inflation expectations, market volatility and Westpac's profit margins. The Base Rate is set when you accept the firm quote from Westpac.

See the section titled 'How to apply for an Inflation Linked Deposit' on page 12 for more information.

How is the Base Rate linked to Inflation?

On each interest Payment Date the Base Rate is adjusted for changes in the CPI:

- at the Commencement Date, the most recent CPI is set as the Base CPI for the Term;
- at the start of each coupon period, the most recent CPI is set as the Current CPI; and
- at each Payment Date, the Base Rate is adjusted as follows:
Base Rate x Current CPI / Base CPI.

Is your Principal Amount adjusted for Inflation?

No. Your coupon payment will not be compounded and cannot be reinvested in your Inflation Linked Deposit.

What happens on the Commencement Date?

Westpac will debit the Principal Amount of your deposit from your nominated bank account on the Commencement Date. Also on the Commencement Date, the most recent CPI will be set as the Base CPI for the Term.

What happens on the Maturity Date?

If you choose not to receive Principal Payments during the Term, Westpac will return the Principal Amount to your nominated bank account on the Maturity Date, together with your coupon payment for that coupon period. However, if you choose to receive Principal Payments during the Term, Westpac will return the remaining Principal Balance to your nominated bank account on the Maturity Date, together with your coupon payment for that coupon period.

When do you receive coupon payments?

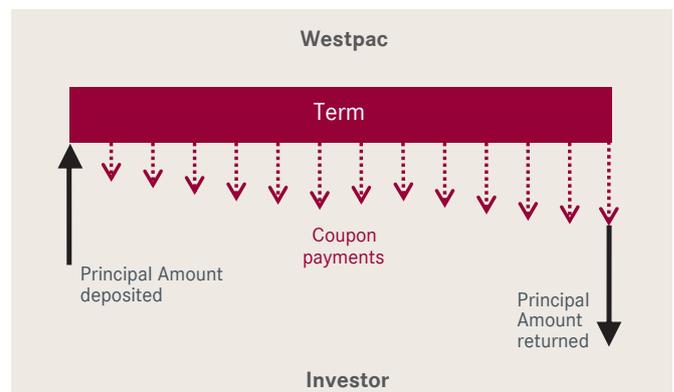

You will receive a coupon payment (also known as an interest payment) on each Payment Date during the Term of your Inflation Linked Deposit. You will receive quarterly coupon payments unless we agree otherwise. The particular Payment Dates for your Inflation Linked Deposit will be set out in your Confirmation.

When do you receive Principal Payments?

If you choose not to receive Principal Payments during the Term, Westpac will return the Principal Amount to your nominated bank account on the Maturity Date, along with your coupon payment for that coupon period. If you choose to receive Principal Payments during the Term of your Inflation Linked Deposit, you will receive these payments on each Payment Date together with your coupon payments (unless agreed otherwise). At maturity, Westpac will return the remaining Principal Balance to your nominated bank account, along with your coupon payment for that coupon period.

Payment flow diagram

This diagram shows an example of the payment flows that occur during the Term of your Inflation Linked Deposit.

The diagram above is for illustrative purposes only and represents the timing and nature of the payments relating to a hypothetical Inflation Linked Deposit. The diagram is not intended to represent the amount of, or variation in, the payment flows.

How much will your coupon payments be?

During the Term, your coupon payments will be paid in arrears for the period since the previous Payment Date (or the Commencement Date, as the case may be).

Your coupon payments are likely to change each Payment Date. This is because the Base Rate is adjusted for changes in the CPI (which is determined on each Payment Date for the period until the next Payment Date) and the number of days in each coupon period may vary.

In each case, your coupon payment is calculated using the following formula:

$$A = B \times C \times D / E \times (F/365)$$

Where

- A = your coupon payment;
- B = the Principal Balance at the beginning of that coupon period;
- C = the Base Rate expressed as a percentage;
- D = the Current CPI expressed as a number;
- E = the Base CPI expressed as a number;
- F = the number of days since (but not including) the previous Payment Date, or in the case of the first Payment Date, the number of days since (but not including) the Commencement Date.

Confirmations

Shortly after entering into an Inflation Linked Deposit, Westpac will send you a Confirmation outlining the commercial terms of the transaction, including:

- the Principal Amount of your Inflation Linked Deposit;
- the Commencement Date and Maturity Date (i.e. the Term) of your Inflation Linked Deposit;
- the Base Rate;
- the Base CPI (if able to be determined);
- the Payment Dates;
- the amount of Principal Payments (if any); and
- any upfront service fee that you agree to pay your financial adviser.

If Westpac is unable to determine the Base CPI when you enter into your Inflation Linked Deposit, we will notify you of the Base CPI following the Commencement Date.

It is important you check the Confirmation to make sure that it matches your expectations. In the case of a discrepancy, you will need to raise the matter with your Westpac representative as a matter of urgency.

As the Confirmation sets out the commercial terms of your Inflation Linked Deposit, Westpac will not provide you with regular statements of account. You can request a statement of account at any time by contacting us on the details provided on page 3 of this PDS.

Can I make withdrawals from my Inflation Linked Deposit before the Maturity Date?

Your Inflation Linked Deposit is designed to be held to maturity. If you need to make a full or partial withdrawal from your Inflation Linked Deposit before the Maturity Date (in addition to any Principal Payment you are entitled to receive during the Term), we will consider your request for Early Withdrawal. Requests for Early Withdrawal from Financial Institutions will not be approved under any circumstances.

If, in our discretion, we agree to your request, then we will provide you with an indicative quote, which will incorporate any Reduced Rate we decide to apply. If you accept the indicative quote, we will repay the portion of the Principal Balance that you have withdrawn (subject to any adjustment for a Reduced Rate being applied to your Inflation Linked Deposit – see the section titled ‘Will my return be impacted if I withdraw or vary the terms before the Maturity Date?’ on page 10 for more information). If you have requested a full withdrawal of the Principal Balance, we will cancel your Inflation Linked Deposit

Can I vary the terms of my Inflation Linked Deposit?

You may ask us to vary the terms of your Inflation Linked Deposit at any time before the Maturity Date. Westpac will then provide you with an indicative variation quote. This quote will incorporate the same factors as if you had requested an Early Withdrawal. If you accept the variation quote, Westpac will send you a revised Confirmation. Please note, you may earn less interest if you elect to vary the terms of your Inflation Linked Deposit during its Term- see the section titled ‘Will my return be impacted if I withdraw or vary the terms before the Maturity Date?’ on this page for more information.

Notice Period

A Notice Period will apply to all Inflation Linked Deposits. You must give us at least 31 days’ notice to make a withdrawal from your Inflation Linked Deposit prior to the Maturity Date, unless hardship applies. If you have less than 31 days remaining in your Term, the earliest you can access your Inflation Linked Deposit funds is the Maturity Date, unless hardship applies.

The 31 day Notice Period starts on the day (Sydney time) that we receive your withdrawal request. We will make payment to you on the next Sydney Business Day after the Notice Period ends.

The 31 day Notice Period applies to your Inflation Linked Deposit unless you can show that you need access to the funds earlier due to hardship. If you need earlier access to funds before the Maturity Date because of a hardship situation, you will need to provide details to the banking staff that can assess whether your case qualifies for an earlier disbursement under our hardship policy.

Will my return be impacted if I withdraw or vary the terms before the Maturity Date?

If you request Early Withdrawal of your Inflation Linked Deposit or you seek a variation to its terms, we may in our discretion apply a Reduced Rate to the amount withdrawn (in the case of Early Withdrawal) or for the remainder of the Term (in the case of variation).

In determining the Reduced Rate, the factors that we may take into account are:

- a. the rate that would have applied for the period closest to the Commencement Date and the date of withdrawal or variation (including any applicable Notice Period);
- b. the actual market transaction costs, market interest rates and expectations about Inflation;
- c. the time remaining until maturity;
- d. the Principal Balance;
- e. any costs or charges we incur as a result of the Early Withdrawal or variation; and
- f. any interim interest payments you may have received.

If there is an Early Withdrawal, we may need to recover interim interest we have already paid to you, in which case we will deduct the relevant amount first from accrued interest and then from your Principal Balance before we release your funds.

Applying a Reduced Rate may significantly reduce the amount of interest earned on your Inflation Linked Deposit. Please contact us if you have any questions on early withdrawal.

No Reduced Rate will be applied if your Inflation Linked Deposit is repaid prior to the Maturity Date due to your death or in the case of hardship.

Scenario

On 4 February 2015, you establish a 2 year Inflation Linked Deposit for $750,000, with a Base Rate of 4.50% per annum, paid quarterly.

On 4 January 2016, you request a partial withdrawal of $50,000 from your Inflation Linked Deposit, which we subsequently approve.

When would my funds be repaid?

A Notice Period of 31 days applies to your partial withdrawal, so your withdrawn funds will be made available on 5 February 2016 (the next Sydney Business Day after the Notice Period ends).

How would the interest I receive be impacted?

We will calculate a Reduced Rate based on an Inflation Linked Deposit held for a 12 month period ending on 4 February 2016.

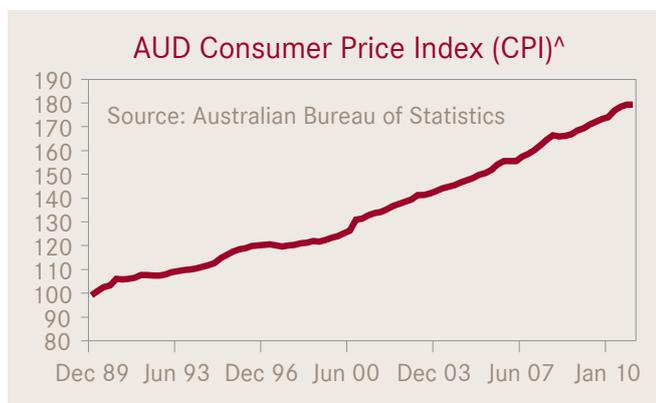

If the Base Rate applicable to an Inflation Linked Deposit of $50,000 for 12 months when you opened your Inflation Linked Deposit was, say, 3.50% per annum, the interest accrued on the $50,000 between 4 February 2015 and 4 February 2016 would be reduced by 1.00% per annum.

If the Base Rate applicable to an Inflation Linked Deposit of $50,000 for a 1 year Term when you opened your Inflation Linked Deposit was, say, 5.50% per annum, the interest accrued on the $50,000 from 4 February 2015 to 4 February 2016 would remain at 4.50% per annum.

Historical Inflation

The CPI has historically shown a progressive increase over time and since its publication in 1948 there have only been 10 quarters of a negative change in Inflation. The CPI has grown 69.5% since 1989-1990 – or an annual rate of 2.7% – when the index was set at 100 and 35% over the 10 years prior to 2010; an historical graph is shown below.

This shows a benefit of linking the change in Inflation to your deposit, since any Base Rate established 10 years ago would also have increased by 35% if held until the end of 2009.

[^] please note: past performance is not necessarily an indication of future performance

What happens if the CPI ceases to exist or is changed?

The CPI is calculated and published by the ABS. If the ABS ceases to publish the CPI, Westpac may terminate your Inflation Linked Deposit.

However, if the ABS ceases to publish the CPI and the Australian Government or Treasurer announces that it will use a replacement index (whether or not published by the ABS) for the CPI for the purposes of the Treasury Indexed Bonds or similar Commonwealth instruments ('Replacement Index'), Westpac may:

- determine in its sole discretion to use the Replacement Index for your Inflation Linked Deposit instead of the CPI; or
- terminate your Inflation Linked Deposit.

If Westpac terminates your Inflation Linked Deposit in the circumstances described above, no early termination payment will apply and your return up until the date of termination will not be impacted.

How to apply for an Inflation Linked Deposit

Please follow the following steps to apply for your Inflation Linked Deposit:

- ensure you have read and understood this PDS;
- talk to your Westpac representative to confirm your eligibility for an Inflation Linked Deposit;
- determine the Principal Amount, the Commencement Date, the Term of your Inflation Linked Deposit and if you want to receive Principal Payments during the Term;
- when you receive a quote from your Westpac representative and you are satisfied with this quote, confirm your acceptance of the quote with your Westpac representative;
- following acceptance of this quote you must, as soon as possible, return a properly completed Application Form (located at the back of this PDS) which is acceptable to Westpac;
- a copy of your Application Form should be sent to your Westpac representative by email or fax, with a signed original posted to the address shown on the Application Form; and
- if Westpac accepts your Application Form, Westpac will send you a Confirmation outlining the commercial terms of the transaction. Westpac has the right, in its absolute discretion, to not accept your Application Form for any reason. See the section titled 'Confirmations' on page 10 for more information.

Example

The example below is illustrative only and uses rates and figures that we have selected to demonstrate how the product works. In order to assess the merits of any particular Inflation Linked Deposit, you would need to use the actual rates and figures quoted to you at the time. Note that the calculations below include rounding of decimal places.

You are an investor with AUD750,000 to invest for a period of five years. You would like to invest in a product that provides you with a stable income stream. You do not need to receive Principal Payments during the Term.

You are concerned about rising Inflation possibly eroding the purchasing power of your future coupon payments, so you would like to protect your investment and lock in a fixed interest rate for the Term.

As an investor, you are therefore interested in receiving a deposit rate that is linked to Inflation. This ensures that you receive progressively higher coupons provided Inflation is above zero. You accept the risk that deflation will reduce the coupon you receive but recognise that in that scenario your cost of living is also likely to be falling.

In these circumstances, you consider a five-year investment in an Inflation Linked Deposit. Your Westpac representative provides the following indicative quote for a deposit on these terms:

5-year Inflation Linked Deposit
Principal Amount	AUD750,000
Term	5 years
Coupon Payment frequency	Quarterly
Base Rate	5.25% per annum
Base CPI	179.4

The rates in this example are for illustrative purposes only and have been rounded to two decimal places.

In addition, for the purposes of this example, assume that there are 90 days in each quarterly coupon period.

- Using the formula set out on page 10 and assuming a Base CPI level of 179.4 and a Current CPI level of 182.0 for a coupon period starting 3 months after the Commencement Date, the Inflation-adjusted Base Rate for this particular coupon period will equal 5.33%, being $(5.25\% \times 182/179.4)$. The interest payment for this particular coupon period will equal AUD9,849.61 (being $AUD750,000 \times 0.0525 \times 182/179.4 \times 90/365$).
- Using the formula set out on page 10 and assuming a Base CPI level of 179.4 and a Current CPI level of 190.0 for a coupon period starting 2 years after the Commencement Date, the Inflation-adjusted Base Rate for this particular coupon period will equal 5.56%, being $(5.25\% \times 190.0/179.4)$. The interest payment for this particular coupon period will equal AUD10,282.56 (being $AUD750,000 \times 0.0525 \times 190.0/179.4 \times 90/365$).
- On the Maturity Date, using the formula set out on page 10 and assuming a Base CPI level of 179.4 and a Current CPI level of 200.0 for the final coupon period, the Inflation-adjusted Base Rate for this particular coupon period will equal 5.85%, being $(5.25\% \times 200.0/179.4)$. The interest payment for this particular coupon period will equal AUD10,823.75 (being $AUD750,000 \times 0.0525 \times 200.0/179.4 \times 90/365$). You will also receive your original Principal Amount of AUD750,000 back.

General information

Code of Banking Practice

The Code of Banking Practice is a self-regulatory Code adopted by us and other banks. Its purpose is to set standards of good banking practice for banks to follow when dealing with individual and small business customers and their guarantors. If you are an individual or small business customer, each relevant provision of the Code applies to the Inflation Linked Deposit described in this PDS.

The general descriptive information referred to in the Code (other than information in relation to bank cheques) is set out in this PDS. This includes information about:

- account opening procedures;
- our obligations regarding the confidentiality of your information;
- complaint handling procedures; and
- the advisability of you reading the terms and conditions applying to an Inflation Linked Deposit as set out in this PDS.

Entering into your Inflation Linked Deposit

To open any new Inflation Linked Deposit we'll need some important details from you. Depending on the legal nature of your business (company, partnership etc.) you will be required to provide certain documents and information to us.

Under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (the 'Act') it is a requirement that you and all signatories to the Inflation Linked Deposit must be identified. You and any signatory will need to be identified if you are not existing customers of Westpac. The identification requirements can be met by completing the Westpac Customer Identification Procedure (which involves providing identity documentation to Westpac). For information on documents required under Westpac's Customer Identification Standards please contact your Westpac representative or refer to our website – www.westpac.com.au/aml.

If you or any of the signatories to the Inflation Linked Deposit are not identified in terms of the Act, the Inflation Linked Deposit will be blocked for all withdrawals, until they are identified.

If you are an existing customer, a signatory (or any other cardholder) of Westpac, identification requirements may have previously been satisfied so you don't need to provide identity documentation unless we request it.

Financial crimes monitoring

Please be advised that in order for Westpac to meet its regulatory and compliance obligations, we perform certain control and monitoring activities. By completing the Application Form, you agree that:

- you will not initiate, engage in or effect a transaction that may be in breach of Australian law or sanctions (or the law or sanctions of any other country);
- your use of the Inflation Linked Deposit does not breach any Australian law or sanctions (or the law or sanctions of any other country);
- you will indemnify Westpac against any potential losses arising if you breach any Australian law or sanctions (or the law or sanctions of any other country) through a transaction that you have initiated, engaged in or effected or the use of your Inflation Linked Deposit;

- transactions may be delayed, blocked, frozen or refused where we have reasonable grounds to believe that they breach Australian law or sanctions (or the law or sanctions of any other country);
- where transactions are delayed, blocked, frozen or refused, Westpac and its correspondents are not liable for any loss you suffer (including consequential loss) in connection with an Inflation Linked Deposit;
- we may from time to time require additional information from you to assist us in the above compliance process and we may obtain information about you or any beneficial owner of an interest in an Inflation Linked Deposit from you or from third parties if we believe this is necessary to comply with anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing laws;
- where legally obliged to do so, we will disclose the information gathered to regulatory and/or law enforcement agencies; and
- we may also disclose the information gathered to other banks, other members of the Westpac Group, service providers or to other third parties.

Telephone conversations

Although you are required to complete an Application Form, the terms of an Inflation Linked Deposit are usually discussed over the telephone. Conversations with our dealing room and settlement departments are recorded. This is standard market practice. Recorded conversations are retained for a limited period and are usually used where there is a dispute and for staff monitoring purposes. You will need to advise our dealer if you do not wish to be recorded.

Email or facsimile authority and indemnity

If you would like to provide us with email or facsimile instructions in relation to your Inflation Linked Deposit, we may require you to complete an email or facsimile authority and indemnity. The purpose of the email or facsimile authority and indemnity is to protect us against the consequences of acting upon instructions which may not represent your genuine wishes, but which appear to us to be genuine.

Labour standards or environmental, social and ethical considerations

Westpac does not take into account labour standards or environmental, social or ethical considerations in providing this investment. To learn more about Westpac's commitment to sustainability (including our latest Stakeholder Impact Report) go to www.westpac.com.au.

Dispute resolution

Sometimes you may want to talk about problems you are having with us. Fixing these problems is very important to us. We've put in place ways of dealing with your issues quickly and fairly.

Please talk to us first

We aim to resolve your complaint at your first point of contact with us. You can contact us on the details provided on page 3 of this PDS.

What to do if you are still unhappy

If we still haven't been able to deal with your issues to your satisfaction, there are a number of other bodies you can go to. Our external dispute resolution provider is the Financial Ombudsman Service, our membership number is 10999 and the contact details are:

Availability

We will only accept your application if you are located in Australia as at the date of your Application Form.

Privacy and confidentiality

By completing the Application Form, you consent to Westpac and any other person who is at any time a member of the Westpac Group ('Westpac Company') collecting, using, disclosing and handling your personal information in the manner set out in this section.

Westpac and other Westpac Companies may use your information:

- to establish and administer the financial products and services any Westpac Company provides to you;
- for product development, research and analysis; and
- to provide additional services to you, such as market updates and information on products and services.

The Westpac Companies may collect your information from many places including your Application Form, correspondence with you or your legal, financial or tax adviser, the Westpac Company telephone calls with you or you using a Westpac Companies website or emailing a Westpac Company. The Westpac Companies may also collect your information from each other or from a service provider engaged to do something for any Westpac Company. Service providers typically engaged by Westpac Companies include registries, custodians, investment administrators, information technology advisers, mail houses, auditors, legal advisers and consultants.

Sometimes, a Westpac Company, a service provider or your adviser may be located outside Australia. By signing the Application Form, you consent to your information being transferred to a person such as this who is outside Australia.

Each Westpac Company may disclose your personal information:

- to each other, our service provider, or a person who acts on your behalf in relation to your investment (such as your adviser);
- as required or permitted by law; or
- with your consent.

You can request access to your personal information, or ask for any corrections to be made, by visiting any of our branches or contacting us by phone on 132 032. Westpac tries to give each customer access to their information on request, but we will tell you if this is not possible. We will use your personal information to contact you or send you information about other products and services offered by the Westpac Group or its preferred suppliers. Please call us on 132 032 or visit any of our branches if you do not wish to receive marketing communications from us.

A copy of our privacy policy is available at www.westpac.com.au.

Providing Westpac with your Tax File Number ('TFN')

Westpac is required to report details of income earned, withholding tax deducted and TFNs quoted on an account, to the Australian Taxation Office ('ATO') annually. The collection of TFNs and their use and disclosure are strictly regulated by the Privacy Act (1988) and the Tax Administration Act 1953.

When you invest in an Inflation Linked Deposit, if you are a resident of Australia for taxation purposes, you are not required to provide your TFN or your Australian Business Number ('ABN'). However, if you do not the interest earned on your account will be subject to the Pay-As-You-Go ('PAYG') withholding rules.

- If the investment is made in the course of an enterprise (that is, business activities), you may provide an ABN as an alternative to your TFN.
- For joint accounts, the ATO requires a minimum of two TFNs or ABNs (one each) from the account holders.
- If a formal trust is established and a trustee makes the investment, the trustee may quote the TFN of the trust.

Provision of a TFN or ABN is not compulsory. You may be eligible to claim an exemption from quoting your TFN so that withholding tax will not be deducted. You will need to tell us the type of exemption you are claiming. Those eligible include:

- most pensioners;
- companies or unincorporated associations that are exempt from lodging tax returns and do not have TFNs (for example, charitable, social and non-profit organisations); and
- children under 18 where the investment income is less than $416 per annum.

If you do not provide a TFN or ABN and you do not quote an exemption code, we will deduct withholding tax.

Non-resident Withholding Tax

If you are not a resident of Australia for tax purposes, Westpac will be obliged to deduct withholding tax from your gross interest unless you provide evidence of an entitlement to any benefits under a double tax agreement with Australia.

Our reporting obligations

We are required to identify certain US persons in order to meet account information reporting requirements under local and international laws.

If you or (where you are an entity) any office bearer(1) of the entity and/or any individual who holds an interest in the entity of more than 25% (a 'Controlling Person') are a US citizen or US tax resident, you must telephone 1300 658 194 at the time you submit an application. When you contact us you will be asked to provide additional information about your US tax status and/or the US tax status of any Controlling Person which will constitute certification of US tax status for the purposes of your application.

Unless you notify us that you and/or any Controlling Person are a US citizen or US tax resident as specified above, submitting an application constitutes certification that you and/or any Controlling Person are not a US citizen or US tax resident.

If at any time after acquiring your Inflation Linked Deposit, information in our possession suggests that you and/or any Controlling Person may be a US citizen or US tax resident, you may be contacted to provide further information on your US tax status and/or the US tax status of any Controlling Person. Failure to respond may lead to certain reporting requirements applying to your Inflation Linked Deposit.

Taxation

Taxation law is complex and its application will depend on a person's individual circumstances. When determining whether or not this product is suitable for you, you should consider the impact it will have on your own taxation position and seek professional advice on the tax implications it may have for you.

Financial Claims Scheme

You may be entitled to payment under the Australian Government's Financial Claims Scheme in the event that Westpac becomes insolvent. Payments under the Financial Claims Scheme are subject to a limit for each depositor for eligible deposits held in Westpac, which include deposits branded in the name of its divisions, BT Financial Group, St. George Bank, Bank of Melbourne, Bank SA and RAMS. Information about the Financial Claims Scheme can be obtained from www.fcs.gov.au.

Assignment

You may not at any time assign any right, title or interest in your Inflation Linked Deposit without Westpac's prior consent.

- Following your acceptance of the quote from your Westpac representative you must, as soon as possible, return a properly completed Application Form to Westpac.
- You will be bound by the terms of your Inflation Linked Deposit as explained in the PDS ('Conditions') upon Westpac's receipt and acceptance of your Application Form.
- Westpac has the right, in its absolute discretion, to not accept your Application Form for any reason.
- Applications will only be accepted in Australian dollars. Any payments made by Westpac will only be paid in Australian dollars.
- If Westpac accepts your Application Form, Westpac will send you a Confirmation outlining the commercial terms of the transaction, including the Principal Amount, the Commencement Date and Maturity Date (i.e. the Term), the Base Rate, the Base CPI (if able to be determined), the Payment Dates, the amount of Principal Payments (if any) and any upfront service fee that you agree to pay your financial adviser. If Westpac is unable to determine the Base CPI when you enter into your Inflation Linked Deposit, we will notify you of the Base CPI following the Commencement Date. These commercial terms will match (as closely as reasonably possible) the preferences set out in Section A below. In the case of a discrepancy, you will need to raise the matter with your Westpac representative as a matter of urgency.
