Authorisation to the Bank

The person(s) whose name(s) and specimen signature(s) appear in the Section Details of Persons Authorised are authorised to act on behalf of the organisation, pursuant to the:

(insert name of organisation's enabling legislation, delegation details or other document from where the power to open account(s) and delegate authority is derived):

1. To draw cheques and other instruments on the account, if permitted by you.
2. To overdraw the account to the extent permitted by you.
3. To instruct you to transfer the account between branches.
4. To instruct you to close the account.
5. Unless this authority relates to a term or other deposit, to authorise you to make periodical payments or direct debits to the account and debit the account with any charges or costs relating to such payments.
6. If this authority relates to a term or other deposit:
 - to place money on deposit;
 - to receive payment of deposit moneys and interest;
 - to give you instructions in relation to the deposit, including instructions on the payment (whether at maturity or otherwise) or renewal of that deposit;
7. To make enquiries, to give instructions and generally to request and receive information in relation to the account.

Privacy Statement (for individuals whose personal information may be collected – in this clause referred to as “you”)

All personal information and credit-related information (if applicable) we collect about you is collected, used and disclosed by us in accordance with our Privacy Statement which is available at westpac.com.au/privacy/privacy-statement or by calling us through your relationship manager or Westpac representative. Our Privacy Statement also provides information about how you can access and correct your personal information, and make a complaint. You do not have to provide us with any personal information or credit information (if applicable) but, if you don't, we may not be able to process an application or a request for a product or service.

Where individuals engage with us in relation to products and services for our business, corporate or institutional customers (for example, as representative, administrator, director, corporate officer, signatory, beneficiary or shareholder of one of our customers) our Privacy Statement will be relevant to those individuals where we collect and handle their personal information. For example, where we collect their personal information to verify their identity or collect their signature as a signatory on a corporate account.

Details of Persons Authorised

Provide the following details of persons authorised to act under the authorisation.

The Persons Authorised, by signing this form, confirm and agree that:

- they must be fully identified by Westpac (and not by a Verifying Officer) for the purposes of this authority before acting under the authorisation and that Westpac may decide to accept or decline an authorisation for reasons associated with its obligations under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (the AML law) without being required to give reasons; and
- they are aware that it is an offence under the AML law to knowingly provide false or misleading information or knowingly produce a false or misleading document and that penalties for that offence can include imprisonment for up to 10 years.
