Privacy Statement (for individuals whose personal information may be collected – in this clause referred to as “you”)

All personal information and credit-related information (if applicable) we collect about you is collected, used and disclosed by us in accordance with our Privacy Statement which is available at westpac.com.au/privacy/privacy-statement or by calling us through your relationship manager or Westpac representative. Our Privacy Statement also provides information about how you can access and correct your personal information, and make a complaint. You do not have to provide us with any personal information or credit information (if applicable) but, if you don't, we may not be able to process an application or a request for a product or service.

Where individuals engage with us in relation to products and services for our business, corporate or institutional customers (for example, as representative, administrator, director, corporate officer, signatory, beneficiary or shareholder of one of our customers) our Privacy Statement will be relevant to those individuals where we collect and handle their personal information. For example, where we collect their personal information to verify their identity or collect their signature as a signatory on a corporate account.

Details of Persons Authorised

The Persons Authorised, by signing this form, confirm and agree that:

- they must be fully identified by Westpac (and not by a Verifying Officer) for the purposes of this authority before acting under the authorisation and that Westpac may decide to accept or decline an authorisation for reasons associated with its obligations under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (the AML law) without being required to give reasons; and
- they are aware that it is an offence under the AML law to knowingly provide false or misleading information or knowingly produce a false or misleading document and that penalties for that offence can include imprisonment for up to 10 years.

(insert official designation of the Customer's person(s)) of the Customer that this authority has been cancelled.

This authority cancels any previous authority the Customer has given to you regarding the persons authorised to act on the account except in relation to:

- instruments dated before the date of this authority and presented for payment after you receive this authority, and
- any act done under a previous authority.

The Customer undertakes to provide the Bank, upon request from the Bank, with copies of its establishing legislation, instrument of delegation or other document empowering the opening of the account and authorising the signatory/ies to act.

In this authority:

- 'Customer' refers to the ACT Territory Authority named above as the Customer.
- 'you' and 'your' means the Bank.
- 'instruments' means cheques, drafts, bills of exchange, promissory notes and other instruments.

Joint/Several Authorisation

If more than one person has been authorised, they will act in the following manner (select ✓ one option):

- ☐ Any two jointly
- ☐ Joint authorisation (all persons authorised must act and sign together)
- ☐ Severally (each person authorised acts or signs alone)

Endorsement

Under the same authorisation, authority was given to any one of the persons whose name and specimen signature appears in the section Details of Persons Authorised to endorse cheques and other instruments payable to or to the order of the Customer and lodged for the credit of the account.

Authority Execution
