

Guidance on Certifying Identification Documents

(For Australian registered/resident customers only)

If you are not able to present original identification documents to the Bank in person, the Bank can instruct you to provide certified copies of the identification documents. A certified copy means an identification document that has been certified as a true and correct copy of an original document by an approved certifier (refer below for approved certifiers).

The approved certifier must certify that the photocopy is a true and correct copy of the original by writing on and signing the photocopy as follows:

I, [full name of approved certifier], a/an [select appropriate from list of approved persons below], certify that this [name of document] is a true and correct copy of the original. [Signature and date]
