Periodical Payments – Terms and Conditions for using the service – Effective 27 October 2023.

The Periodical Payments service is provided to you by:

Westpac Banking Corporation ABN 33 007 457 141 AFSL and Australian credit licence 233714.

We encourage you to read this document carefully and keep it handy so you can refer to it. If you have any questions, simply contact us:

- call Telephone Banking on 132 032;
- write to us at GPO Box 3433, Sydney NSW 2001;
- send an email to online@westpac.com.au;
- visit any of our branches.

The Banking Code of Practice.

The Australian Banking Association's banking code of practice as updated, and adopted by us, from time to time (Banking Code) sets out the standards of practice and service in the Australian banking industry for individuals and small business customers, and their guarantors who are individuals.

The relevant provisions of the Banking Code apply to the banking services referred to in this document. This means that we will comply with the Banking Code, where it applies to the banking services provided to you.

You can view a copy of the Banking Code on our website or ask us for a hard copy in branch or over the phone.

Feedback and Complaints.

Delivering on our service promise.

We're constantly striving to provide the best possible service, and we'll do our best to resolve any concern you have efficiently and fairly.

Our commitment to you.

If you're ever unhappy about something we've done – or perhaps not done – please give us the opportunity to put things right.

Our aim is to resolve your complaint within 5 business days, and where possible we will resolve your complaint on the spot. If we need additional time to get back to you, we will let you know. Should we be unable to resolve your concern at your first point of contact, we will then refer the complaint to our dedicated Customer Managers in our Customer Solutions team.

Our Customer Solutions Customer Managers are here to find a solution for you and will ensure that you're regularly updated about the progress we are making to resolve your complaint.

Factors that may influence our advice.

Staff are paid a combination of salary and superannuation but may also become entitled to other benefits as a result of customers acquiring products through them. These other benefits may include cash incentive programs where staff may be eligible for a cash bonus based on the performance of their team and their own performance for achieving or exceeding a sales target.

The performance requirements include a variety of key behaviours and objectives, such as the quality of their customer service and may include the level of product sales made by them and by other areas of the business as a result of their referrals.

The amount of the bonus will be based on the extent to which they have exceeded their objectives, their general behaviour, the performance of their business unit and their job classification.

Staff may also be entitled to receive other benefits from incentive and promotional programs. These vary from small non-monetary rewards such as movie tickets, hampers and dinners, to more valuable benefits such as flight and accommodation packages.

Periodical Payments – Terms and Conditions for using the service – Effective 27 October 2023. (continued)Description.

Periodical Payments allow you to authorise the Bank to make payments, for a fixed amount at regular intervals, on your behalf. Payments can be made between selected Westpac accounts, to accounts held with other banks, approved building societies and credit unions, by Bank cheque or to payees in other countries. In each case, your account is debited for the amount of the payment, together with any fee that may apply.

Type of Periodical Payments	Fee (each payment)
From a Westpac branded account to any other account	Nil
From an eligible Westpac branded account to an account at an overseas financial institution via Overseas Telegraphic Transfer	Please refer to the relevant section in your account terms and conditions for the applicable fees for international periodic payments.
By Bank cheque	Please refer to the relevant section in your account terms and conditions for the applicable fees for periodical payments made via bank cheque.
Periodical Payment not made fee (for lack of funds in your account)	Nil
Overdrawn Fee (where the payment is made, despite there being insufficient cleared funds available in the account to be debited)	$15.00 per item. Nil for Westpac Choice account holders who notify us that they are holders of an Australian Pensioner Concession Card, Commonwealth Seniors Health Card or Health Care Card and whose benefit is paid into the account (if receiving benefits).

Cleared funds.

Sufficient cleared funds must be in the account to be debited on the business day before the payment is due and on the due date.

If there are insufficient cleared funds available as required, and no other arrangement exists at that time to allow that account to be overdrawn, the Bank:

- may choose not to make the payment; or
- may make the payment and charge an Overdrawn Fee.

Time of payment.

Payments will be sent to the payee or payee's financial institution on the due date. When the due date falls on a weekend or public holiday, the payment may be made on the next business day.

Non-payment/late payment.

The Bank will not be liable if it fails to make any payment, or any payment is late, for any reason other than as a result of the Bank's own negligence, system failures, error or factors that are directly within the Bank's control.

Changes to payments.

You may modify, or temporarily stop your Periodical Payment other than on the business day before the payment is due and on the due date, by giving us a new Periodical Payment Authority.

Stopping payments.

A Periodical Payment arrangement will terminate on your instruction to cancel the authority, when the authority expires or if the remitting or payee account is closed.

In order to stop a Periodical Payment, you will need to provide the Bank with full details; including the payment amount, when the payment is due, the payee and the account the payment normally comes from.

The Bank may discontinue the payments without giving you notice if:

- it reasonably suspects fraud in relation to the Periodical Payment;
- the payee or the payee's financial institution refuses to accept the payments; or
- it does so to comply with a legal or regulatory requirement.

Aside from the above, the Bank may, acting reasonably, cancel a Periodical Payment arrangement and discontinue payments on providing 30 day's written notice to you.

Periodical Payments – Terms and Conditions for using the service – Effective 27 October 2023. (continued)

Changes to terms and conditions.

We will notify you in writing, electronically or through a media advertisement of changes to the terms and conditions as set out in the following table. Advance notice may not be given where a change has to be made to manage a material and immediate risk to you or us including to restore or maintain the security of our systems or of individual accounts.

Type of change	Time frame
New fee or increase to a fee in relation to the processing of Periodical Payments	30 days in advance.
Government charges	In advance of the change, or reasonably promptly after the government, a government agency or representative body notifies us, unless the change has been publicised by a government agency, government or representative body.
Any other term or condition	As soon as reasonably possible (which may be before or after the change is made) or, if we believe the change is unfavourable to you, at least 30 days before the change takes effect.

By 'electronically', we mean by:

- electronic communication to your nominated electronic address (i.e. email address); or
- making the changes available at our website and sending to your nominated electronic address a notification that the changes can be retrieved from westpac.com.au

Fees and charges.

The Bank may debit your account for any Bank fees or government charges that apply to Periodical Payments from time to time. Up to date information on current standard fees and charges is available on request.

Payments in another currency.

Payments made in another currency, by draft or telegraphic transfer, will be converted to the other currency using the Bank's published selling rate for the requested currency at the date and time of the transaction. In the case of telegraphic transfers, under normal circumstances funds should arrive at the overseas destination within one or two business days.

Other acknowledgements and consents.

We may confirm the details of the information provided in this application.

Definitions.

'We', 'our', 'us', 'Westpac' means Westpac Banking Corporation ABN 33 007 457 141.

Privacy Statement and Consent Request.

Privacy Statement.

All personal information and credit-related information we collect about you is collected, used and disclosed by us in accordance with our Privacy Statement which is available at westpac.com.au/privacy/privacy-statement or by calling us on 132 032. Our Privacy Statement also provides information about how you can access and correct your personal information, and make a complaint. You do not have to provide us with any personal information or credit information but, if you don't, we may not be able to process your application or request.

Marketing Communications.

We will use your personal information to send you offers for products and services we believe may be of interest and value to you (including by email, SMS or other means) unless you have previously told us that you do not want to receive marketing offers from us. The products and services offered may be provided by us or one of our third-party partners. If you do not want to receive direct marketing offers from us, you can manage your marketing preferences in your online banking profile, let us know using the contact details in our Privacy Statement or follow the opt-out instructions in the message.
