Additional Card Request.

Important information for the primary cardholder

- You as the primary cardholder are responsible for the use of the additional card and must pay for all transactions made by the additional cardholder, including any charges as set out in the Conditions of Use that apply to your card.
- You can cancel the additional card by cutting it into several pieces and either returning them to us, or informing us by telephone that you have destroyed the card. You must then write to us to confirm cancellation of the card.
- You should be careful in cases where you cannot destroy the additional card, because, although it may have been stopped, it may still be used in some circumstances (please refer to clause 3.2(b) of your Conditions of Use).
- Please note: If you have recently requested to change your credit card to another credit card type, please activate your new card before you request to add an additional cardholder to your account. If you haven't activated the card for your new credit card account, the additional cardholder will only be added to your old credit card account and you will have to make a separate request to add an additional cardholder to the new account.

Authority to provide information to additional cardholder

You authorise the Bank to disclose to the holder of an additional card on your account, information relating to:

- account balance;
- amount of available credit;
- minimum payment due;
- transactions on the account; and
- any use of the additional card.

Privacy statement

Personal information.

We collect personal information from you to process your application, provide you with your product or service, and manage your product or service. We may also use your information to comply with legislative or regulatory requirements in any jurisdiction, prevent fraud, crime or other activity that may cause harm in relation to our products or services and help us run our business. We may also use your information to tell you about products or services we think may interest you.

If you do not provide all the information we request, we may need to reject your application or we may no longer be able to provide a product or service to you.

We may disclose your personal information to other members of the Westpac Group, anyone we engage to do something on our behalf ("service providers"), rewards program administrators and other organisations that assist us with our business.

We may disclose your personal information to an entity which is located outside Australia. Details of the countries where the overseas recipients are likely to be located are in our privacy policy.

As a provider of financial services, we have obligations to disclose some personal information to government agencies and regulators in Australia, and in some cases offshore. We are not able to ensure that foreign government agencies or regulators will comply with Australian privacy laws, although they may have their own privacy laws. By using our products or services, you consent to these disclosures.

We are required or authorised to collect personal information from you by certain laws. Details of these laws are in our privacy policy.

Our privacy policy is available at westpac.com.au or by calling 132 032. It covers:

- how you can access the personal information we hold about you and ask for it to be corrected;
- how you may complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles or a registered privacy code and how we will deal with your complaint;
- how we collect, hold, use and disclose your personal information in more detail.

We will update our privacy policy from time to time.

Credit information.

We may:

- obtain consumer credit information about you from a credit reporting body to enable us to assess your creditworthiness;
- exchange personal information and credit information about you with other credit providers to assess your application and creditworthiness and to notify them of any defaults by you;
- give or obtain a banker's opinion about you.

To ensure we are meeting our requirements and to allow the most up-to-date information to be considered as part of the application process, we may be required to do any or all of these things on one or more occasions.

The privacy page of our website westpac.com.au includes a "Statement of Notifiable Matters". These are matters you should be aware of in relation to the use and disclosure of your credit information. This statement includes:

- details of the credit reporting bodies to which we are likely to disclose your credit information, the types of credit information we may give them and how this information will be used;
- your rights over your credit information, including how you can access and correct your information and make complaints;
- your rights to direct a credit reporting body to limit the use of your information for direct marketing purposes and what protections are available if you believe you are a victim of fraud; and
- information about our Credit Reporting Policy.

You can call us on 132 032 or visit us in branch for a hard copy of the Statement of Notifiable Matters.
