Introduction

This booklet sets out the Terms and Conditions of the Westpac Debit MasterCard®. It governs the operation and use of the Westpac Debit MasterCard. It is important that you read and understand this document. Please contact Westpac if you do not understand, or are unsure about any aspect of the Terms and Conditions.

For terms and conditions relating to the linked Personal Deposit Account/s that you use in conjunction with your Westpac Debit MasterCard® please refer to the Deposit Accounts For Personal Customers Terms and Conditions available online at westpac.com.au, at any Westpac branch Australia wide or by calling Telephone Banking on 132 032.

Changes to terms and conditions

We may change the terms and conditions that apply to:

1. your account access channels (e.g. Debit MasterCard, Telephone Banking and Online Banking access etc.); or
2. any product or service outlined in this booklet.

We'll always let you know if, for any reason, the terms and conditions of your account change. However, advance notice may not be given where a change has to be made to immediately restore or maintain the security of our systems or of individual accounts or facilities.

We may notify you of changes as set out in the following table:

Type of change	Time frame	Method of notification
New fee or increase in fee for performing electronic transactions, or issuing or replacing a device used to conduct electronic transactions (such as a card)	30 days in advance	In writing or electronically
Other new fee or increase to an existing fee	30 days in advance	In writing, electronically or through media advertisement
Changes increasing your liability for electronic transactions	20 days in advance	In writing or electronically
Transaction limits on electronic transactions, a facility or electronic equipment	20 days in advance	In writing or electronically
Government charges	In advance of the change, or as soon as practicable afterwards, unless the change has been publicised by a government agency, government or representative body	In writing, electronically or through media advertisement
Any other change to a term or condition	In advance of the date of the change	In writing, electronically or through media advertisement

By “electronically”, we mean by:

- electronic communication to your nominated electronic address; or
- making particulars of the changes available at our website and sending to your nominated electronic address a notification that the changes can be retrieved from westpac.com.au

Definitions

The following definitions apply throughout this document, unless otherwise stated.

'Account holder' is the person(s) in whose name an account is conducted and who is responsible for all transactions on the account.

'account'/'deposit account' means any Westpac transaction or savings account which can be operated by a card, and which you have nominated for use in this way.

'ATM' means Automatic Teller Machine.

'available balance' means the total balance in your account less any unsettled transactions (i.e. cheques deposited that have not yet been cleared or Debit MasterCard transactions pending authorisation) plus any credit limit you may have on your account for accounts with overdraft arrangements.

'Bank'/'The Bank' means Westpac Banking Corporation.

'bank'/'other bank'/'another bank' means any bank or financial institution which is not part of the Westpac Group.

'Business day' means any weekday when the Bank is open for business in any State or Territory of Australia. If the Bank is closed in all States and Territories then that day will not be a business day. If the Bank's offices are closed in your State or Territory but open in other States or Territories then the Bank will still regard that day as a business day in every State and Territory. Saturday is not classified as a business day even though branches may be open for business.

'card' means the Westpac Debit MasterCard® issued to you by Westpac for use on your linked personal deposit account.

'Code' means a PIN, Telephone Banking access code, Online Banking password or any similar information which may be required in order to make electronic transactions to or from accounts, and which the user is required to keep secret.

'contactless terminal' means an electronic banking terminal which can be used to make a contactless transaction.

'current balance' means the total balance in your account which may include uncleared funds.

'contactless transaction' means a transaction made by holding your card (which is capable of making a contactless transaction) in front of a contactless terminal and without having to insert or swipe the card.

‘Device’ means an article we give to a user to perform electronic transactions.

‘Direct Debit’ means a regular drawing from your account that you have authorised a third party to make (this includes a person, company or merchant) by quoting your branch number (BSB) and account number.

‘electronic equipment’ means electronic banking terminals (e.g. ATMs, Point of Sale (POS) terminals, contactless terminals and terminals located at the counter in a branch), computers, televisions and telephones.

‘electronic transactions’ means payment, funds transfer and cash withdrawal transactions that are initiated on your account using electronic equipment and not intended to be authenticated by comparing a manual signature with a specimen signature.

‘identifier’ means information that a user knows and must provide to perform an electronic transaction but is not required to keep secret.

‘merchant’ means a provider of goods or services who accepts payment by card.

‘Non-Westpac Group branded ATM’ is any ATM which is not branded Westpac or St.George or BankSA, or Bank of Melbourne.

‘PayPass transaction’ means authorising a transaction by tapping your card on a contactless terminal and the ‘credit’ or ‘Debit MasterCard’ option automatically applies to that transaction.

‘PIN’ means the Personal Identification Number or word which has been selected by you, or which has been allocated to you by us, for use with your card via certain electronic equipment.

‘recurring payment’ means a regular drawing from your account that you have authorised a third party to make (this includes a person, company or merchant) by quoting your 16-digit Westpac Debit MasterCard number.

‘user’ is either the account holder or a person authorised by both the Bank and the account holder to use an access method to make electronic funds transfer transactions on the account.

‘Westpac Group branded ATM’ is any ATM which is branded Westpac or St.George or BankSA or Bank of Melbourne.

‘Westpac Foreign Transaction Fee’ means the charging of both the Westpac On-Charged Scheme Fee plus the Westpac Processing Fee (where applicable).

‘Westpac On-Charged Scheme Fee’ means a fee charged by MasterCard® Worldwide when processing foreign currency transactions which we pass on to you. The amount varies depending on the nature of the transaction.

‘Westpac Processing Fee’ means a fee charged to you by Westpac where a transaction is made in foreign currency.

Fees and charges

Bank fees and charges

Westpac reserves the right to charge the account linked to your Westpac Debit MasterCard® with fees and charges for the provision and operation of your account. Current information on fees and charges is available to you at any time, just ask us.

The fees and charges applicable to your account are set out in the terms and conditions applying to your account available online at westpac.com.au, at any Westpac branch Australia wide or by calling Telephone Banking on 132 032.

Westpac foreign transaction fee

The Westpac foreign transaction fee is payable and will be incorporated into the $AUD transaction amount shown on your statement. The fee charged will be dependent on the nature of the transaction as follows:

1. 3% of the $AUD transaction amount where a transaction is made in foreign currency and the merchant or financial institution accepting the card is located outside of Australia (comprising of 2% Westpac Processing Fee plus 1% Westpac On-Charged Scheme Fee);
2. 2.2% of the $AUD transaction amount where a transaction is made in foreign currency and the merchant or financial institution accepting the card is located in Australia (comprising of 2% Westpac Processing Fee plus a Westpac On-Charged Scheme Fee of 0.2%).

When do fees get charged to my account?

Fees for overseas ATMs (Cirrus) and non-Westpac Group branded ATMs³ are debited to your account on the day (or the next business day) that the cash withdrawal or balance enquiry is made.

All transactions you make using your Debit MasterCard will be counted towards the free monthly transaction allowance/limit that may apply to the account linked to your card.

1. Some overseas banks may also apply a surcharge to withdrawals from their ATMs. This should be drawn to your attention before you proceed with your transaction. This surcharge amount will be added to your withdrawal amount, converted to Australian dollars and debited to your account as one transaction.
2. Details of how to access your accounts via an ATM whilst overseas, and of the participating institutions in the Global ATM Alliance are available in the 'A banking guide for overseas travel' brochure. Visit your local branch, call Telephone Banking on 132 032 for further details or log on to westpac.com.au.
3. Non-Westpac Group branded ATMs apply an ATM operator fee by the ATM Owner, which is disclosed at the time of the transaction on the ATM screen. This fee will be debited on the day (or next business day) of the transaction and itemised separately on your statement.

A guide to using your Debit MasterCard

Getting started

You may link your Westpac Debit MasterCard® to any one of the following Consumer deposit accounts:

- Westpac Choice
- Westpac 55+ and Retired
- Westpac Choice eAccount (No longer available for sale)
- Basic (No longer available for sale)
- Westpac Cash Manager (No longer available for sale)
- Westpac One (No longer available for sale)
- Westpac One Premium (No longer available for sale)
- Westpac One Basic (No longer available for sale)
- Classic (No longer available for sale)
- Classic Plus (No longer available for sale)

- Cash Management (No longer available for sale)
- Cash Management Investor Option
(No longer available for sale)
- Bonus Saver (No longer available for sale)

Customers must be over 16 years of age and have an Australian residential address to be eligible for the card.

Default accounts

A maximum of two eligible deposit accounts can be linked to a Debit MasterCard. When you apply for a Debit MasterCard you must select a default account. If you choose to close your default account and do not have a secondary account linked, your Debit MasterCard will be automatically cancelled.

Third Party Access (available for Victorian customers only)

The account holder can authorise another person or person(s) to operate one or all of their accounts independently. Once authorised, the third party can:

- transact through methods of access, including electronic transactions;
- overdraw the account(s) to any approved limit;
- establish recurring payments (on Debit MasterCard by Victorian customers only);
- instruct us to cancel the third party authority. If the authority relates to a Debit MasterCard (where held by Victorian customers only);
- Westpac may issue an additional Westpac Debit MasterCard® to any person nominated by the account holder, provided that each person is over the age of 16 years;
- the account holder is responsible to Westpac for the use by a third party cardholder of their Debit MasterCard.

The account holder will be liable for any transactions made by the third party and any associated fees and charges. (For further information please refer to 'Security and liability for Debit MasterCard, Telephone Banking and Online Banking usage' section.)

The account holder can cancel a third party authority at any time by visiting any branch. After cancellation, the account holder needs to be aware that he or she will be liable for any transactions made on the account prior to the authority being cancelled, regardless of when they are debited to the account.

Accessing your account

You can use your Debit MasterCard in the following ways:

- at merchants in Australia or overseas – by selecting the ‘credit’ or ‘Debit MasterCard’ option (as displayed) and entering your PIN or signing the transaction slip (where available);
- at merchants in Australia – by holding your card against a contactless terminal and waiting for the transaction to be confirmed. There is no need to enter a PIN or sign purchases of $100 or less;
- at merchants overseas – by holding your card in front of a contactless terminal and waiting for the transaction to be confirmed. You may not need to enter a PIN or sign for small value transactions;
- at merchants in Australia – by selecting the ‘cheque’/‘savings’ option and entering your PIN;
- over the phone – by quoting the Debit MasterCard number and expiry date on the front of your card;
- on the internet – by using the Debit MasterCard number and expiry date on the front of your card;
- withdraw cash at ATMs – by selecting the ‘cheque’/‘savings’/‘credit’ option (if applicable) and entering your PIN.
- Some merchants may apply a surcharge to purchases made by selecting the ‘credit’ or ‘Debit MasterCard’ option or holding your card in front of a contactless terminal. This should be drawn to your attention before you proceed with the transaction. This surcharge amount will be added to your purchase amount and debited from your account as one transaction.

What you can do at Westpac branded ATMs

- Withdraw cash 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.¹
- Obtain a mini-statement.
- Deposit cash and cheques.¹
- Transfer money between linked accounts.
- Get account balances and balance summaries.
- Purchase selected vouchers.¹
- Change your PIN (provided you know your existing PIN).

1. At some ATMs.

What you can do at St.George/BankSA/ Bank of Melbourne branded ATMs

- Withdraw cash 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.¹
- Get account balances.

 Westpac ATM

 Bank of Melbourne

ATMs are located wherever you see the above symbols.

Access to your accounts is also available through non-Westpac group branded ATMs² (including overseas bank ATMs via the MasterCard ATM network) which allow you to obtain account balances or withdraw funds. Please note that an additional maximum daily cash withdrawal limit may apply at non-Westpac group ATMs. Other restrictions may also apply.

1. At some ATMs.
2. Non-Westpac Group branded ATMs apply an ATM operator fee by the ATM Owner, which is disclosed at the time of the transaction on the ATM screen. This fee will be debited on the day (or next business day) of the transaction and itemised separately on your statement.

What can you do with electronic banking terminals?

- Make purchases worldwide without cash.
- Withdraw cash at the same time from your linked account (where available).
- Get a printed receipt.
- Wide network of acceptance.

At various retail and service outlets you have the convenience of paying for goods and services and (at some outlets) obtaining cash directly from your account (known as 'cash out') by presenting your Debit MasterCard. Please note that for Debit MasterCard where you select the 'credit' or 'Debit MasterCard' option on the POS terminal you cannot get 'cash out'.

The Bank's cards are accepted at any POS terminal location in Australia. When you make a transaction at an ATM or POS terminal, you authorise us to act on the instructions you enter into the terminal. When making a purchase you should ensure that the transaction amount is correct before you enter your PIN, sign a transaction voucher or hold your card in front of a contactless terminal. By doing so, you indicate your agreement that the transaction amount is correct. You should wait until the POS terminal, including the contactless terminal, shows the transaction confirmation.

Westpac Debit MasterCard acceptance

- A Westpac Debit MasterCard® may be honoured by financial institutions and merchants displaying the MasterCard® symbol and is accepted at ATMs worldwide. However, Westpac Debit MasterCard® promotional material displayed on any site should not be taken as a guarantee by the merchant, financial institution or any person carrying on business there that all goods and services available at those premises may be purchased with this card. Where the particular merchant, financial institution or other person in Australia carrying on business does not accept MasterCard®, they may still allow you to purchase goods or services with your Westpac Debit MasterCard if you select the 'savings' or 'cheque' option at a POS terminal, or, if the contactless terminal is set to select the 'savings' or 'cheque' option for contactless transactions and you hold your card in front of the contactless terminal to authorise the transaction.
- Unless required to do so by law Westpac does not accept any liability:
 - (a) on goods or services purchased with a Westpac Debit MasterCard®; and
 - (b) for any financial institution or merchant displaying a MasterCard® or EFTPOS symbol refusing to accept or honour a Westpac Debit MasterCard®;
- The price the merchant charges for goods and services purchased with a Westpac Debit MasterCard® may vary from the price a merchant charges for the same goods and services purchased with cash.
- Any complaints about goods or services purchased with a Westpac Debit MasterCard® must be resolved directly with the merchant concerned.

Authorising Debit MasterCard® transactions

When you use your Debit MasterCard® to make purchases by selecting the 'credit' or 'Debit MasterCard' option, you make a PayPass transaction or you use your 16-digit card number to purchase goods or services, the 'credit' or 'Debit MasterCard' option automatically applies to that transaction. This section applies to your use of your card when the 'credit' or 'Debit MasterCard' option is used to process the transaction.

Generally, all transactions will need to be authorised by us before they can proceed.

The purpose of this authorisation is to confirm that there are sufficient funds available in the default deposit account for the transaction. This authorisation may be completed for a transaction that occurs at a later time such as hotel accommodation, car hire and unmanned petrol stations.

Recurring Payments

You can purchase goods or services at any time by authorising another person or company (merchant) to transact on the default deposit account by quoting your 16-digit Westpac Debit MasterCard® number and expiry date.

To cancel such an authority, you must notify the merchant. Please note, unlike Direct Debits, Westpac is not able to cancel a recurring payment on your behalf. Until you cancel your authority, the merchant is entitled to request Westpac to debit the account and Westpac is obliged to process this request. If the merchant does not comply with your request to cancel the authority, you must provide Westpac with a copy of the correspondence with the merchant to enable Westpac to dispute the relevant transaction(s) on your behalf.

Once the authorisation is obtained, it will reduce the amount of available funds in the account. If the purchase or other transaction is not completed, the amount of available funds in the account may continue to be reduced until the authorisation is cleared.

Mismatched authorisations

Some merchants may request confirmation that you have sufficient funds in your account to meet the anticipated cost of goods and services they will supply (this is a common practice in hotels and car rental agencies). We treat this request as a 'request for authorisation'.

Once the authorisation is made, the available funds in your account are reduced by up to the amount anticipated by the merchant. This means the balance in your account may not indicate the correct amount until the authorisation is cleared and you may find you have reduced funds in your account.

When the goods and services have been supplied the merchant may request a subsequent authorisation for the actual costs. This may have the effect of reducing your balance further by the sum of two authorisation amounts.

Delayed authorisations

Transactions when the 'credit' or 'Debit MasterCard' option are used to process a transaction may take some weeks to be processed and debited to your account. If we gave an authorisation for the purchase or payment, the balance on your account may be greater than the available funds in your account. Please consider this whenever you reconcile your account statement.

For example, you use your card to check in to a hotel by inserting your card at an electronic banking terminal at the reception desk and selecting the 'credit' or 'Debit MasterCard' option.

A request for authorisation for the anticipated amount (for example $200) will be processed to your account to cover the anticipated amount of the hotel stay. If upon checkout, the subsequent invoice amount is less than one hundred and eighty dollars ($180) or greater than two hundred and twenty dollars ($220), the two hundred dollar authorisation will remain until the subsequent authorisation is cleared. This will temporarily reduce the amount of available funds in that account.

Disputed transactions

If you need to dispute a transaction on your Debit MasterCard, you should do so in writing as soon possible and no later than 30 days after the date of the statement on which the transaction is recorded. Please note that this time limitation does not apply to transactions made using a card and PIN.

In some circumstances, card scheme rules allow us to charge a transaction on the account back to the merchant with whom you made the transaction. This is known as a chargeback.

You should report a disputed transaction to us as soon as possible so that we may reasonably claim a chargeback right. Chargeback rights are not available for all types of transactions.

For example, we cannot claim a chargeback in relation to BPAY Payments from the account. If it is available, we will claim a chargeback right for a transaction on your account if:

- you ask us to do so; and
- you give us the information and material we require to support a chargeback, within 30 days after the date of the statement on which the transaction is recorded. Otherwise any chargeback right we have may be lost.

The timeframe for disputing a transaction may not apply where the ePayments Code applies. You should keep all voucher and transaction records given to you when using your card.

Statements

You should keep all voucher and transaction records given to you when using your card.

Your Card

Card validity and expiry

When cardholders receive their Westpac Debit MasterCard®, for security reasons, they must sign it immediately. It should only be used within the 'valid from' and 'valid thru' dates. As soon as a card expires, ensure that you destroy it, by cutting it into several pieces and disposing of them securely.

Daily withdrawal limit

A maximum daily transaction limit of $1,000 applies to your card. This can be increased to a daily limit of up to $2,000 or decreased to $500, $300 or $200 at your request.

Your daily transaction limit can be used for:

- cash withdrawals through ATMs debited to any account;
- transactions through POS terminals debited to your transaction and/or savings accounts.

The maximum daily transaction limit does not apply:

- at branch terminals;
- to any transaction made through a POS terminal when the cardholder selects the 'credit' or 'Debit MasterCard' option on the terminal;

- contactless transactions;
- to vouchers manually processed by a MasterCard® merchant.

You will be advised of the maximum daily transaction limit when the card is issued to you, and you will subsequently be advised of any changes we make to the limit. You can change your limit by calling Telephone Banking or visiting a branch.

In deciding whether you may require the standard daily limit to be increased or decreased, bear in mind that the higher the limit, the more funds will be able to be withdrawn via ATMs and POS terminals by any unauthorised person who may come into possession of your card and PIN. In this regard, refer to 'Liability for unauthorised transactions' located in this booklet.

Merchants or other providers may impose additional limits.

Card cancellation

The Bank may cancel any card at any time, without prior notice.

Once you are notified of the cancellation, you must not use your card. You must destroy it by immediately cutting it into several pieces and disposing of them securely.

You may contact us to cancel your card at any time by calling our Cards Customer Call Centre or by returning the card to us. A cancellation may not be effective until the card has been surrendered, or you have taken all reasonable steps to have the card returned to us. What constitutes taking all reasonable steps to have a card returned to us, where you are the account holder and the card in question is held by another person, will vary depending upon the particular circumstances. At a minimum, it will require you to contact that person, if at all possible, and request them to surrender their card to you, so that you can return it to us.

If you close your accounts or where the card has been cancelled, the account holder will remain liable for transactions:

- made using the card prior to or after its cancellation or closure of the accounts; and
- made using the card number for mail, internet, telephone and standing order transactions which have not been cancelled prior to termination.

The user may be liable to the account holder for any use of a card after the user has received notice of its cancellation.

Card re-issue

We may issue a new card to you at any time. All re-issued cards are subject to the terms and conditions of the card. We reserve the right not to re-issue a card.

Withdrawals at branches and other financial institutions

The minimum withdrawal amount may vary between financial institutions. Before a cash withdrawal is processed in Australia you may be required to provide a second form of identification, such as a passport or driver's licence. Overseas a passport will be required.

All cards remain our property

All cards remain the property of the Bank and you are required to return the card to us on:

- our request;
- cancellation of your card;
- closure of all of the accounts which are linked to your card;
- termination of your authority to operate all accounts which were previously linked to your card;
- if the account(s) linked to the Debit MasterCard is closed, the card will be automatically cancelled.

Overseas transactions

Customers can access their funds in their linked default account at any international ATM or POS terminals where the MasterCard logo is displayed, by following the prompts on the electronic equipment. You may need to have a PIN to use with your card.

At overseas ATMs you cannot use your Debit MasterCard to make deposits or transfer funds between consumer deposit accounts linked to your Debit MasterCard. To access the funds from your default account at overseas ATMs, select the 'credit' option.

Transaction fees apply for the use of ATMs overseas (except for ATMs participating in the Global Alliance). Westpac Foreign Transaction Fees apply to all overseas ATM withdrawals and transactions using POS terminals. If the amount of the transaction is more than your available balance, the transaction may be rejected and no fees will be charged.

Fees charged to Westpac by MasterCard® Worldwide during the conversion process are passed on to you by us and incorporated in the Westpac Foreign Transaction

Fee. Please refer to the 'Fees and Charges' section of this booklet for further details.

MasterCard® Worldwide processes foreign currency transactions, including charges incurred and refunds made, and converts these transactions into Australian dollars. Transactions that are made in foreign currencies other than United States dollars are converted into United States dollars before being converted into Australian dollars. The exchange rate used for conversion is either a government mandated exchange rate or a wholesale exchange rate, selected by MasterCard® Worldwide for the applicable currency on the day the transaction is processed. That rate may differ from the rate applicable to the date the transaction occurred, or the date when the transaction is posted to your account.

Transactions made outside Australia which are converted with your agreement into Australian dollars by the merchant or financial institution at the point of transaction using exchange rates selected by them are subject to a Westpac Foreign Transaction Fee.

Please note that exchange rates quoted by Westpac in Australia are not used to convert foreign currency transactions to the Australian dollar equivalent.

To facilitate the processing of card transactions, information relating to your card details and transaction details may be processed by MasterCard® Worldwide in countries other than Australia. By making a cash withdrawal or a purchase with your Debit MasterCard you agree that information regarding the transaction may be processed outside Australia.

Reversing a transaction

In some circumstances, card scheme rules allow us to charge a transaction on the account back to the merchant with whom you made the transaction. This is known as a chargeback.

You should report a disputed transaction to us as soon as possible so that we may reasonably claim a chargeback right.

Chargeback rights are not available for all types of transactions.

For example, we cannot claim a chargeback in relation to BPAY Payments from the account. If it is available, we will claim a chargeback right for a transaction on your account if:

- you ask us to do so; and

- you give us the information and material we require to support a chargeback, within 30 days after the date of the statement on which the transaction is recorded. Otherwise any chargeback right we have may be lost.

The timeframe for disputing a transaction may not apply where the ePayments Code applies.

You should keep all voucher and transaction records given to you when using your card.

Our responsibilities and liabilities

Electronic banking access

We will maintain electronic banking access to the nominated accounts at all times unless:

- an electronic banking terminal malfunctions or is unavailable;
- a merchant refuses to accept your card;
- at least one of the accounts is overdrawn or will become overdrawn without prior arrangement, or is otherwise considered out of order by us.

The Bank may, at any time, alter the types of accounts which may be operated, or the types of transactions performed, or the types of electronic banking terminals that may be accessed using the card and PIN. See page 6 for information about notice we will give you if we make any such change.

What happens if an electronic banking terminal does not work?

We will be responsible to the account holder for any loss, which occurs because an electronic banking terminal accepts your instructions but fails to carry out the transaction requested.

If you are aware that the electronic banking terminal is not operating properly we will only be responsible for correcting the relevant account and refunding any fees or charges.

We will not be responsible if an electronic banking terminal does not accept your instructions or your card fails to work in the terminal, such as where your card is faulty, or an electronic banking terminal malfunctions or is unavailable.

Security and liability for Debit MasterCard[®], Telephone Banking and Online Banking usage

Because anyone who has your card and PIN, Telephone Banking access code, Online Banking password or Mobile Banking passcode can make transactions on your accounts, you must take special care to protect them.

Your PIN

A Debit MasterCard will be mailed to you. Your PIN may be a four-digit number allocated to you by us, or it may be a four to six-digit number or word that you have personally selected. You have the option of changing your PIN to one of your own choice at any time (including where your record of the PIN has been lost or stolen). Visit westpac.com.au to find out how.

If you are travelling overseas you will need to have a four-digit PIN, as not all countries have the same ATM system and many overseas ATMs don't let you enter your PIN as a word.

Protecting your Card, your PIN and other codes

Protecting your Card

To protect your card you must:

- sign it as soon as you receive it;
- carry it with you whenever you can;
- regularly check that you still have your card;
- not give your card to anyone else, including a family member or friend.

Card and PIN

If you make a record of your PIN you must keep it separate and well away from your card unless the PIN is reasonably disguised. However, to minimise the risk of unauthorised transactions occurring on your account, it is best to keep your PIN record, even if disguised, separate and well apart from your card.

For example, you must not keep your card and undisguised PIN together:

- in a wallet, bag or briefcase even if in different compartments;
- in your car, even if in different areas of your car;
- in your office or at home in the same room;
- in any other situation where your card and PIN can be found and used.

Protecting your PIN and other access codes

To protect your codes you must:

- try to memorise them;
- destroy our letter telling you your PIN (if applicable) and any documentation we issue to you containing a code;
- not write your PIN on your card, even if it is disguised;
- not keep a record of your PIN with or near your card;
- not tell anyone your codes, including family members, and friends;
- your Telephone Banking three-digit access code will be requested by Telephone Banking staff to confirm your identity. You should only reveal this number to Westpac Telephone Banking employees;
- if you select your own code, do not select a number or word that can be easily guessed, such as part of the data imprinted on your card, a previously selected PIN, consecutive numbers, one number repeated or numbers which form a pattern, or that can easily be associated with you, such as your date of birth, part of your name, telephone number, driver's licence number and so forth;
- make sure that nobody watches you or hears you when you are entering or using your codes at electronic equipment;
- never enter your PIN in an electronic banking terminal that does not look genuine, has been modified, has a suspicious device attached to it or is operating in a suspicious manner;
- be ready to make a transaction when you approach an ATM or POS terminal;
- make sure that you do not leave anything behind when you complete a transaction including leaving your card unattended in or at an ATM;
- notify us immediately if your PIN mailer has not been received intact, or if a PIN change has taken place without being requested.

If you select your own code, for security reasons you should endeavour to change it at regular intervals (say, every two years).

If you make a record of your codes you must either take reasonable steps to prevent unauthorised access to the record or ensure the record is reasonably disguised. We do not consider that you have made a reasonable attempt to disguise a code if you only:

- record it in reverse order;
- record it as a series of numbers with any of them marked to indicate the code;
- record the code as a telephone number with the code in its correct sequence anywhere within the telephone number;
- record the code as a telephone number where no other telephone numbers are recorded;
- disguise the code as a date or as an amount.

There may be other forms of disguise which may be similarly unsuitable because of the ease of another person working out your code.

Please note: Liability for losses resulting from unauthorised transactions is determined under the relevant provisions of the ePayments Code where that Code applies, notwithstanding the obligations listed above.

Loss, theft or misuse of a card, PIN or other code

You must immediately notify us if your card, PIN or code record is lost, stolen or misused, or you suspect that unauthorised transactions have been made on any account. This will enable us to put a stop on your card straight away preventing or minimising losses resulting from unauthorised transactions and your potential liability for such losses (refer to the section of this booklet 'Liability for unauthorised transactions'). The best way to contact us is by visiting a Westpac branch or

For cards or PINs, call our Cards Customer Service Call Centre on:

- 1300 651 089 if you are calling within Australia;
- +61 3 6345 1058 if you are calling from overseas.

If your Debit MasterCard is lost overseas you may report the loss to:

- MasterCard® Global Cardholder Services;
- any financial institution displaying the MasterCard® logo.

We will give you a notification number or some other form of acknowledgment which you should retain as evidence of the date and time of your report. We may require you to confirm your report at one of our branches and complete certain documentation. Where a card is lost overseas, the customer is responsible for the cost of a courier to send a replacement card.

If you can't contact us by phone because our emergency telephone numbers are not available, you will not be responsible for unauthorised use of your card, PIN or other code which could have been prevented if you were able to contact us by phone provided that you tell us of the loss, theft or misuse of your card, PIN or other code within a reasonable time from the re-establishment of our telephone reporting facilities.

Liability for unauthorised transactions

When the account holder is not liable

The account holder will not be liable for losses resulting from unauthorised transactions where it is clear that the user has not contributed to the loss.

The account holder will not be liable for losses resulting from unauthorised transactions that:

- are caused by the fraudulent or negligent conduct of our staff or agents or of companies involved in networking arrangements or of merchants (i.e. providers of goods or services) who are linked to the electronic funds transfer system or of their agents or employees; or
- require the use of a card or other device and/or a code and happen before the user receives their card or other Device, and/or receives their code(s) or PIN (including a replacement or reissued card, device or code). For the avoidance of doubt, receiving a PIN includes setting a PIN for the first time when a card is first issued; or
- require the use of a card or other device and/or code and happen after we have been notified that the card or other device has been misused, lost or stolen or that the security of the code has been breached; or
- require the use of a card and happen after you have requested us to cancel the card and have either returned the card to us, or taken all reasonable steps to have the card returned to us; or

- are made with a card, code or with any other device or identifier that is forged, faulty, expired or cancelled; or
- are the result of the same transaction being incorrectly debited more than once to the same account; or
- are electronic transactions made using an identifier without a code or device; or
- are electronic transactions able to be made using a device and not a code, provided the account holder did not unreasonably delay in reporting the loss or theft of the device.

When the account holder is liable

The account holder will be liable for losses resulting from transactions which are carried out by the user, or by another person with the user's knowledge and consent.

The account holder will be liable for actual losses resulting from unauthorised transactions caused by the user:

- engaging in fraud; or
- voluntarily disclosing any of their codes to anyone, including a family member or friend; or
- keeping a record of a PIN or other code:
 - without making a reasonable attempt to disguise it or to prevent unauthorised access to it; and
 - in a way that it could be lost or stolen with their card (in the case of a PIN) or any device to which the code relates; or
- keeping a record of a code:
 - without making a reasonable attempt to disguise it or to prevent unauthorised access to it; and
 - where more than one code is used, recording both/all codes in a way that they could be lost or stolen together; or
- writing their PIN on their card; or
- writing their code on the device to be used with that code; or
- selecting a code which represents their birth date, or being an alphabetical code which is a recognisable part of their name, after we have asked them not to select such a code and told them of the consequences of doing so; or
- leaving a card in an ATM (provided the ATM incorporates reasonable safety standards that mitigate the risk of a card being left in the ATM); or

- acting with extreme carelessness in failing to protect their codes.

The account holder will also be liable for actual losses resulting from unauthorised transactions caused by the user unreasonably delaying notifying us of the misuse, loss or theft of their card or other device, or of their code(s) becoming known to someone else. The account holder's liability will only extend to losses which occur between the time when the user became aware (or should reasonably have become aware) of such misuse, loss or theft and when we were actually notified.

However, the account holder will not be liable to pay for:

- that portion of the losses incurred on any one day which exceed the daily transaction limit applicable to the card, their account(s) or the relevant device;
- that portion of the losses incurred which exceed the balance of their account(s), including any pre-arranged credit;
- losses incurred on any accounts which the account holder and the Bank had not agreed could be accessed using the relevant device.
- losses occurring after we have been notified that the card or other device has been misused, lost or stolen or that the security of the code has been breached.

The account holder's liability is subject to the Bank proving on the balance of probability that the user contributed to the losses in one or more of the ways listed above.

If more than one code is required to perform a transaction and we prove that a user breached the security requirements for one or more, but not all, of these codes, you will be liable under this clause only if we also provide, on the balance of probabilities, that the breach of the security requirements was more than 50% responsible for the losses.

When limited liability applies

The account holder will only be liable for losses resulting from unauthorised transactions to a limited extent, in circumstances where a code was required to perform the transaction and it is unclear whether the user contributed to the loss. The account holder's liability in such cases will be the least of:

- $150; or
- the balance of the account(s), including any pre-arranged credit; or
- the actual loss at the time we are notified of the misuse, loss or theft of the card or of the code(s) becoming known to someone else (excluding that portion of the loss incurred on any one day which exceeds the applicable daily transaction limit).

You will not be liable for losses resulting from an unauthorised electronic transaction made using your Debit MasterCard to the extent they exceed what the account holder's liability would have been had we exercised any rights we had under the rules of the card schemes against other parties to the scheme at the time you reported the unauthorised transactions to us.

Our liability for any loss arising from equipment or system unavailability or malfunction, where a user should reasonably have been aware that the system or equipment was unavailable or malfunctioning, is limited to:

- correcting any errors; and
- refunding any fees or charges imposed on the user.

For details on how to notify the Bank about the loss or theft of your card, please refer to 'Loss, theft or misuse of a card, PIN or other code'.

Overdrawing your accounts

Using your Debit MasterCard gives you access to the funds available in your account and does not provide you with any credit in respect of the account.

There is no agreed credit limit for your Debit MasterCard. However, it may be possible to overdraw your account.

If you do overdraw your account we may charge you interest on any overdrawn amount.

Should the use of your Debit MasterCard result in your account becoming overdrawn, please refer to 'Overdrawing your accounts' in the terms and conditions applying to your account.

- where disclosure is made with your express or implied consent.

The Code of Banking Practice

This is a self-regulatory Code adopted by us and other banks. Its purpose is to set standards of good banking practice for banks to follow when dealing with persons who are, or who may become, their individual and small business customers and their guarantors. We actively comply with the Code.

Each relevant provision of the Code applies to the banking products and services described in this booklet. Information is set out in the terms and conditions applying to your account This includes information about:

- account opening procedures;
- our obligations regarding the confidentiality of your information;
- complaint handling procedures;
- bank cheques;
- the advisability of you informing us promptly when you are in financial difficulty; and
- the advisability of you reading the terms and conditions applying to the relevant banking service.

The ePayments Code

The ePayments Code governs certain electronic payments to or from your account where you are an individual. For example, using your credit card or debit card at ATMs, online payments, Telephone Banking payments and BPAY. We will comply with this Code where it applies.

Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Obligations

Please be advised that in order for us to meet our regulatory and compliance obligations we will be increasing the levels of control and monitoring we perform.

You should be aware that:

- transactions may be delayed, blocked, frozen or refused where we have reasonable grounds to believe that they breach Australian law or sanctions (or the law or sanctions of any other country). Where transactions are delayed, blocked, frozen or refused, Westpac and its correspondents are not liable for any loss you suffer (including consequential loss) howsoever caused in connection with your Westpac Debit MasterCard®.

- we may from time to time require additional information from you to assist us in the above compliance process; and
- where legally obliged to do so, we will disclose the information gathered to regulatory and/or law enforcement agencies, other banks, other members of the Westpac Group, service providers or to other third parties.

You provide Westpac the following undertakings and indemnify Westpac against any potential losses arising from any breach by you of such undertakings:

- (a) you will not initiate, engage in or effect a transaction that may be in breach of Australian law or sanctions (or the law or sanctions of any other country); and
- (b) the underlying activity for which Westpac Debit MasterCard® is being provided does not breach any Australian law or sanctions (or the law or sanctions of any other country).
