

GIFT #FORGOOD

Social Enterprise Gift Guide

Every time you purchase a gift, consider buying from a social enterprise or community organisation to give the extra gift of social impact.

These featured products are not only unique and environmentally mindful, they also help create jobs and training opportunities for people overcoming barriers to work.

So, join conscious consumers across Australia and gift #forgood.

 Foundation

Emma Singer, Betty Campbell and Umatji Tjapalyi (f.l.t.r.) from Mimili Maku Arts in front of their paintings which are currently on display as part of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Art Awards at Museum and Art Gallery of the Northern Territory, Darwin. Photo courtesy the artists and Mimili Maku Arts.

EXPLORE GIFTS

- Art & Fashion
- Gifts & Homewares
- Food & Hampers
- Experiences & Equipment

What is a social enterprise?

Social enterprises are businesses like any other, but they exist specifically to make the world a better place. That could be creating jobs for the most marginalised, providing services or protecting the environment.

ART & FASHION

APY Art Centre Collective

Original Indigenous art including paintings, ceramics and jewellery that provides employment for Indigenous artists living in remote Australia.

Shop Now

HoMiE

Supporting young people affected by homelessness or hardship to equip them with the skills, confidence and experiences to be more work-ready and better prepared for their future.

Shop Now

Kaiela Arts

Making kits and publications from the Aboriginal Art Centre of Shepparton.

Shop Now

Magpie Goose

Aboriginal-owned social enterprise fashion label featuring hand screen printed clothing made in Australia.

Shop Now

Mimili Maku Arts

Limited edition screenprints, T-shirts, original artwork and commissions by artists, Pitjantjatjara and Yankunytjatjara from an Aboriginal-owned contemporary art studio in the central desert community of Mimili.

Shop Now

Studio A

Art, ceramics, comics and jewellery to help create professional pathways for artists with intellectual disability.

Shop Now

The Social Outfit

Unique clothing and accessories that provides jobs and training for people from refugee and new migrant communities.

Shop Now

Clothing the Gap

An Aboriginal social enterprise uniting people through fashion and cause, producing merch with a message & encouraging people to wear their values on a tee. It's more than a tee, it's a conversation starter.

Shop Now

Homie, a social enterprise supporting young people affected by homelessness or hardship to equip them with skills, confidence, and experiences to be more work-ready and better prepared for their future.

GIFTS & HOMEWARES

Big hART

Comics and DVDs to help create authentic stories which illuminate local injustice and build public support for change.

Shop Now

Blak Markets

Arts, craft, beauty and skin care, clothing, jewellery and bush foods that support First Nations businesses.

Shop Now

Bush Balm

Bush Balm is an Indigenous social enterprise providing employment opportunities for Purple House patients and their families. They support ethical, sustainable practices and respect traditional intellectual and cultural knowledge.

Shop Now

Centre for Stories

Books, t-shirts and prints that help empower people - whose experiences and perspectives are often marginalised - through storytelling.

Shop Now

Deadly Science

Science Books and Merch that connect schools to the First Scientists of Australia: First Nations people. DeadlyScience are aiming to create STEM equity for First Nations learners by providing STEM materials to schools across Australia.

Shop Now

Green Collect

Earth-kind, ethical and upcycled products helping the circular economy to flourish and creating employment for people experiencing disadvantage.

Shop Now

Nature Foundation

Eco friendly and sustainable products that will help support programs to inspire young Aboriginal people into careers in land management and conservation.

Shop Now

SisterWorks

Homewares, accessories and gifts that help build refugee and migrant women's confidence, independence, skills and economic outlook.

Shop Now

GIFTS & HOMEWARES

Story Factory

Books featuring fantastic writing by young people. Proceeds fund more creative writing programs for young people from under-resourced communities across Greater Sydney.

Shop Now

YMCA ReBuild

Custom-made woodwork pieces that help provide training, employment and mentoring for young people who have had contact with the criminal justice system.

Shop Now

Mettle Women Inc.

Gift boxes, books and prints that support the employment of women who are experiencing homelessness due to domestic and family violence.

Shop Now

The Beautiful Bunch

Victorian based floral delivery service that create beautiful christmas wreaths, floral arrangements and gifts that support young women from refugee backgrounds to bloom.

Shop Now

Bilingarra

Products that are collaboratively made by ethically sourced, Australian made makers. Indigenous literature collections that offer truth telling, education and inspiration.

Shop Now

The Bower

Find unique reclaimed and upcycled items in their store and online. As part of the circular economy, they also offer educational workshops on reuse and repair initiatives.

Shop Now

The Floral Decorator

NSW based florist offering unique flower arrangements celebrating Mother Nature's seasonal offerings. Founded by a proud Wurundjeri woman, floristry allows her to stay connected to country.

Shop Now

Two Good Co

Choose #GiftsForGood and discover their luxurious, artisanal products that support, empower and employ women rebuilding their lives after domestic violence and homelessness.

Shop Now

GIFTS & HOMEWARES

Taboo

Organic, ethically sourced and biodegradable period products that are helping to end period poverty in Australia and overseas.

Shop Now

Made in the city of.

Designer gifts, toys, homewares & more, made from 100% recycled trash plastic lids saved from landfill. Their mission is to save 1 million lids from landfill & help 100 long-term unemployed mature age women re-enter the workforce.

Shop Now

Purpose Precinct

Gift cards that can be redeemed online or in store from a range of Victorian based social enterprises who channel the majority of their profits to doing good for people and planet. Shop clothes, accessories, food and homewares.

Shop Now

The Social Outfit

FOOD & HAMPERS

GG's Hampers

GG's provides meaningful employment for people with a disability. All items in their gift hampers are procured from social enterprises around Australia.

Shop Now

Green Connect

Ethically grown farm produce & flowers, family tours & activities, Op Shop vouchers, or even sponsor your own goat. Join Green Connect to create more jobs and training for people who need it most, less waste and fair food.

Shop Now

Kua Coffee

Freshly roasted specialty coffee that supports smallholder farmers and invests in climate justice.

Shop Now

Mildura Chocolate Company (Christie Centre)

Gourmet chocolates that help create employment opportunities for people with disability.

Shop Now

STREAT

Catering, hampers and vouchers for all of your gifting needs. STREAT supports vulnerable young people with a healthy self, home and work.

Shop Now

Warndu

Indigenous owned company who curate Australian native food experiences, using locally sourced ingredients to bring First Nations food from Australia's backyard to your pantry.

Shop Now

Indigearth

Premium bush foods made from authentic Australian native products that are ethically sourced and sustainably harvested.

Shop Now

The Freedom Hub

Ethically sourced Christmas hampers that help end slavery and support survivors. Hampers contain candles, tea, coffee & chocolate etc.

Shop Now

EXPERIENCES & EQUIPMENT

BikeDr

Bikes, accessories and apparel that help enable and empower vulnerable young people to live their life in a self-directed way.

Shop Now

Free to Feed

Immersive, hands-on cooking experiences led by refugees, new migrants and people seeking asylum, who will take you on unique food journeys exploring their incredible culture.

Shop Now

Good Cycles

Bikes, accessories and apparel that help provide jobs and opportunities for young people experiencing disadvantage.

Shop Now

Hotel Etico

Hotel accommodation and restaurant in Sydney's Blue Mountains that provides employment and training for people with disability.

Shop Now

Taste Cultural Food Tours

Food tours to discover local knowledge about Sydney's multicultural cuisine, while supporting diverse communities through training programs and employment opportunities.

Shop Now

Reach & Match

An innovative, research-based learning kit crafted for inclusive education, catering to children of all abilities in both schools and families.

Shop Now

Shahnaz from Free to Feed, a social enterprise creating employment opportunities for people seeking asylum and refugees through the creation of shared food experiences. Buy a gift voucher to one of their many immersive, hands-on cooking experiences that will take you on a unique food journey exploring incredible cultures.

The Social Outfit, a social enterprise run by women, that provide refugee and new migrant women with training and employment opportunities making their garments or working in their store. They also collaborate with local brands to rescue their excess fabrics and have saved over 12,000kgs of fabric waste from landfill.

Haven't found what you're looking for?

Check out the below resources for more great gift ideas.

Unlocking business for good

Social Enterprise Finder

Australia's first national directory of certified social enterprises from our friends at Social Traders.

 westpacfoundation.org.au

 westpacfoundation@westpac.com.au

 Westpac Foundation

 Subscribe to our newsletter